What is the Meaning of Human Life? Raymond Angelo Belliotti,2021-08-04 This book examines core concerns of human life What is the relationship between a meaningful life and theism Why are some human beings radically adrift without radical foundations and struggling with hopelessness Is the cosmos meaningless Is human life akin to the ancient Myth of Sisyphus What is the role of struggle and suffering in creating meaning How do we discover or create value Is happiness overrated as a goal of life How if at all can we learn to die meaningfully The Older Prisoner Diete Humblet,2021-01-23 This book critically explores the world of older prisoners to provide a more nuanced understanding of imprisonment at old age Through an ethnographical study of male and female older prisoners in two Belgian prison settings one in which older prisoners are integrated and one in which they are segregated it informs debates and seeks to recognise ageist discourse attitudes practices in prison The Older Prisoner seeks to situate the older prisoner from both a penological and gerontological perspective organised around the following broad themes the construction of the older prisoner the physical prison world the social prison world surviving prison and giving meaning The book allows readers to navigate between contrasting perspectives and voices rather than reinforcing traditional narratives and prevailing discourses on the older prisoner In doing so it hopes to open up a broader dialogue on ageing and punishment It also offers insights into the concept of meaning in life as an analytical tool to study prisoners The Good Ancestor Roman Krznaric,2021-08-31 Now in paperback A call to save ourselves and our planet that gets to the root of the current crisis society's extreme short sightedness The Development of Generativity across Adulthood Feliciano Villar,Heather L. Lawford,Michael W. Pratt,2024-08-02 This volume brings together experts in generativity and related fields to provide a compelling overview of contemporary research and theory on this topic Generativity refers to a concern for or acting towards the benefit of future generations as a legacy of the self it has implications for outcomes at the individual relational and social and broader societal levels Understanding the role and expressions of generativity at various stages of our lives is important to our sense of well being and purpose and it impacts our parenting caregiving and social relationships as well as having implications for our activities and experiences in the workforce and in voluntary activities in our communities and the wider society The chapters in this volume explore the meaning and impact of generativity across development and across life contexts and roles They address generativity within a particular area or life domain or period of the lifespan and outline key methods and findings as well as theoretical issues and applied implications The volume represents the first comprehensive exploration of generativity from early to late adulthood it offers a broad international perspective and will inform research into generativity across multiple cultures Is Human Life Absurd? A Philosophical Inquiry into Finitude, Value, and Meaning Raymond Angelo Belliotti,2019-06-24 In this work Belliotti unravels the paradoxes of human existence The purpose of this philosophical journey is to reveal paths for forging meaningful significant valuable even important lives By examining notions of The Absurd expressed within Search for the Holy Grail The Seventh Seal and The Big Lebowski the author crafts a working definition of absurdity He then investigates the contributions of classical thinkers such as Shakespeare

Schopenhauer Nietzsche Kierkegaard Tolstoy Sartre Camus as well as philosophers such as Nagel Feinberg and Taylor After arguing that human life is not inherently absurd Belliotti examines the implications of mortality for human existence the relationship between subjective and objective meaning and the persuasiveness of several challenging contemporary renderings of meaningful human lives Of Living Stone David E. Wilkins, Shelly Hulse Wilkins, 2024-04-16 Of Living Stone Perspectives on Continuous Knowledge and the Work of Vine Deloria Jr is a collection of new essays on the legacy of Vine Deloria Jr one of the most influential thinkers of our time This insightful collection features more than thirty original pieces bringing together Tribal leaders artists scientists activists scholars legal experts and humorists A group of French scholars offers surprising perspectives on Deloria's continuing global influence Readers will find thoughtful and creative views on his wide ranging and world changing body of work Some build upon his ideas while others offer important criticisms In addition to its content this volume is unique in that it was designed to center the traditional exercise of continuous knowledge whereby information is routinely shared considered and pragmatically adapted as it flows between generations In this way people ideas and traditions remain alive and relevant not set in stone as the past is honored by those living in the present as they prepare for the future The book includes contributions from a number of remarkable individuals including Climate expert Margaret Redsteer Crow Melanie Yazzie Din host of The Red Power Hour podcast Cheryl Crazy Bull Sicangu Lakota president of the American Indian College Fund Activists Faith Spotted Eagle Yankton Dakota and Lauren Schadt Cheyenne River Lakota Writer and producer Migizi Pensoneau Ponca Ojibwe Environmental scientists Kyle Whyte Citizen Potawatomi and Ryan Emanuel Lumbee Experts on Tribal Governance Deron Marquez Yuhaaviatam of San Manuel Frank Ettawageshik Little Traverse Bay Norbert Hill Oneida Megan Hill Oneida and Marty Case Artists Cannupa Hanska Luger MHA Three Affiliated Tribes and James Johnson Tlingit Legal Scholars Sarah Deer Muscogee Rebecca Tsosie Yaqui descent and Gabe Galanda Round Valley Archaeologist Paulette Steeves Cree Metis Scholars of Indigenous Traditions Noenoe Silva K The Nations Within with Clifford Lytle Red Earth White Lies Spirit and Reason and Custer Died for Your Sins Leadership and Nursing John Daly, Sandra Speedy, Debra Jackson, 2014-11-01 Leadership is fundamental to the nature of nursing to ensure the development of safe practice interdisciplinary relationships education research and ultimately the delivery of quality healthcare Leadership and Nursing Contemporary Perspectives 2e presents a global perspective of leadership issues within the Australian context It builds on the premise that nursing leadership is for all nurses not just those who are authorised to hold a position within an organisation In addition this book explores how leadership is not possible until one has an understanding of self and what motivates others The text is aimed at senior undergraduate and postgraduate nursing students making the transition to practice as well as professional nurses seeking to strengthen their clinical practice and governance Nine entirely new chapters exploring the most up to date leadership issues and themes including Leadership and its influence on patient outcomes Leadership Developing and sustaining self Indigenous leadership in nursing speaking life

Randall, Matte Robinson, 2023-11-30 Many of us have particular things in our lives photographs paintings old letters books furniture jewellery or clothing that hold special meaning for us Often they correspond to pivotal memories and can be central to our sense of self and our life narratives all the more so as we age Things That Matter sheds important light on the intricate intertwining of mementos with stories and vice versa in most people's lives The book explores the significance of cherished objects within the life stories of nine participants in a qualitative study of the links between reminiscence and resilience in later life The researchers who conducted the study represent a variety of fields including gerontology social work ministry nursing literature and education The book details how life stories can be fraught with a wide range of insights and questions from the memories that get stirred up as people embark on the process of life review prompted by the challenges and changes of aging Shedding light on the complex emotional psychological and spiritual findings of the study Things That Matter ultimately reveals the intricacy of personal narrative and the incredible ways in which things and stories are interwoven in our lives over time Aging and the Art of Living Jan Baars, 2012-08-20 In this deeply considered meditation on aging in Western culture Jan Baars argues that in today's world living longer does not necessarily mean living better He contends that there has been an overall loss of respect for aging to the point that understanding and dealing with aging people has become a process focused on the decline of potential and the advance of disease rather than on the accumulation of wisdom and the creation of new skills To make his case Baars compares and contrasts the works of such modern era thinkers as Foucault Heidegger and Husserl with the thought of Plato Aristotle Sophocles Cicero and other Ancient and Stoic philosophers He shows how people in the classical period less able to control health hazards had a far better sense of the provisional nature of living which led to a philosophical and religious emphasis on cultivating the art of living and the idea of wisdom This is not to say that modern society's assessments of aging are insignificant but they do need to balance an emphasis on the measuring of age with the concept of living in time Gerontologists philosophers and students will find Baars discussion to be a powerful perceptive conversation starter W Andrew Achenbaum author of Older Americans Vital Communities Lifespan Development in Context Tara L. Kuther, 2018-01-02 Award winning author Tara L Kuther presents Lifespan Development in Context a topically organized version of her bestselling Lifespan Development text that provides a panoramic view of the many influences that shape human development Kuther's student friendly narrative guides the reader through immersive video cases and real world examples to illustrate how the places sociocultural environments and ways in which we are raised influence who we become and how we grow and change throughout our lives Three core themes resonate throughout each chapter the centrality of context the importance of research and the value of applied developmental science Foundational theories and classic studies are combined with contemporary research and culturally diverse perspectives for a modern introduction to the field that is both comprehensive and concise Visual overviews case studies and critical thinking questions encourage self reflection and class discussion ensuring students have the tools they need to apply course concepts to their lives and future careers
