singular mind of Zosia Mamet a collection of charmingly witty and achingly vulnerable essays about the challenge and magic of growing up in show business You may know Zosia Mamet from her role as Shoshanna on Girls or for being one of Hollywood's original nepo babies or as she says So if I'm a nepo baby I'm like a B minus one at best and maybe not even a full one I'm like a nepo baby lite a nepito baby if you will What you might not know is that as a toddler she visited theaters where her mom was rehearsing and crawled around on the floor scrunching herself between seats that she earnestly believed in Santa Claus for way too long that she spent years navigating body image issues in hopes of finding elusive self love and that she was so overwhelmed and overjoyed when finally meeting her idol David Sedaris that she hid in the bathroom and melted into a glitter puddle The essays in Does This Make Me Funny introduce us to Zosia Mamet in all her glory from her early days growing up in literary and dramatic circles to her years as a young adult pining for acceptance and love to her first attempts to make it as an actor to where she and Shosh are now A gripping funny and earnest look at what it means to be a girl in the world and how to define yourself amid the bustle of show business Does This Make Me Funny is a captivating debut from a natural born storyteller Journal of the House of Representatives of the State of Ohio Ohio.
