Makers Of The Modern Theological Mind Rudolf Bultmann:

Rudolf Bultmann Morris Ashcraft, 2016-01-01 How does modern science respond to the obsolete language of Scripture Bultmann's lifelong task as a devout Lutheran was to demythologize the Bible's message so people could hear the Christian gospel and respond authentically He expands on the form criticism of Hermann Gunkel and Martin Dibelius About the Makers of the Modern Theological Mind series Who are the thinkers that have shaped Christian theology in our time This series tries to answer that question by providing a reliable guide to the ideas of the men who have significantly charted the theological seas of our century Each major theologian is examined carefully and critically his life his theological method his most germinal ideas his weaknesses as a thinker his place in the theological spectrum and his chief contribution to the climate of theology today

Rudolf Bultmann Morris Ashcraft, 1975 Søren Kierkegaard Elmer H. Duncan, 2016 Søren Kierkegaard 1813-1855 little known or read outside of Denmark in his own day has come to be widely appreciated for his affirmation of the Christian faith and his critique of the human condition He is responsible for one of the major currents of twentieth century thought existentialism which emphasizes the priority of existence over essence Christian existentialism appropriated his insights for theology and ethics stressing human experience freedom and the commitment of faith Elements of his approach are found in Karl Barth Paul Tillich Emil Brunner Rudolf Bultmann Reinhold Niebuhr and Karl Rahner Kierkegaard tried to clarify for his contemporaries the nature of Christianity stressing that no philosophical system could explain the human condition He emphasized the subjectivity of truth and could not refrain from attacking the cold formality and indifference of the state church of his day In this book Dr Duncan guides the reader critically and skillfully through Kierkegaard's life and works Book jacket

RUDOLF BULTMANN Adriano da Silva Carvalho, 2024-11-13 The work of theologian Rudolf Bultmann is often judged without due consideration of the historical and personal circumstances in which it occurred It is forgotten that theology is always carried out in a specific context Thus this book aims to do justice to this theologian by recognizing the relevance of his hermeneutical method It will be demonstrated that demythologization is a powerful exegetical apologetic operation because at the same time that it points to the mythological layer that covers the text of the New Testament it emancipates it from myth The next step will be to show that by recognizing a mythological envelope covering the text of the New Testament Bultmann intended to prove that the mythological vision itself had a fundamentally existential purpose This is because mythological language does not present an objective image of the world as it is on the contrary it seeks to communicate the understanding that man has of himself in the world in which he lives Therefore the myth should be interpreted not cosmologically but anthropologically or better still existentially It is therefore from this perspective that Bultmann seeks to highlight the relevance of the message of the New Testament

20th-Century Theology Stanley J. Grenz, Roger E. Olson, 2010-01-26 Stanley J Grenz and Roger E Olson offer a sympathetic guide and a critical assessment of the significant theologies and theologians of the 20th century They trace the shifts in theology as it has moved back and forth between God's immanence and God's transcendence

Tull, 2000 James E Tull's study and critique of the history and teachings of Landmarkism has established itself as a classic treatment of this important movement This present version of that study is the revised condensed and updated edition of Tull's 1960 original Tull did not finish the revision before he died in 1989 but Morris Ashcraft has now completed that task according to Tull's directions and notes Ashcraft has also added a helpful preface With this new edition of Tull's invaluable work on Landmarkism a new generation of historians students and all seeking to understand Baptists have at hand a most helpful teacher Tull on Landmarkism

Faith at the Intersection of History and Experience Brent A. R. Hege, 2009-01-01 This present study is the first in English of the theology of the German Lutheran theologian Georg Wobbermin 1869-1943 who has been called a captain of the liberal rearguard Widely read and discussed in his own lifetime Wobbermin's theology fell into obscurity as dialectical theology rose to prominence in the years following the First World War Faith at the Intersection of History and Experience presents the major themes of Wobbermin's theology particularly his analysis of the relationship between faith and history and his development of a religio psychological theological method that places faith at the intersection of history and experience Wobbermin's critiques of recent and contemporary approaches to the problem of faith and history and his attention to theological method reveal a sustained effort to continue what he called the Luther Kant Schleiermacher line of Protestant theology The consistent emphasis in Wobbermin s theology is on the systematic interrelation of objectivity and subjectivity an approach he considered to be a faithful continuation of the Reformation but one that invited conflict with the dialectical theologians chiefly Karl Barth Wobbermin s debates with Barth on issues of method reveal a vibrant and sophisticated liberal theology co existing with the dialectical theology that is conventionally assumed to have eclipsed it over a decade earlier Building on work that has been done primarily in German this study of one of the forgotten theologians of the early twentieth century appears as more German British and American theologians and historians are returning to this period of theology with renewed interest and fresh questions and it addresses an often neglected period of modern Protestant thought in histories currently available in English Baptist Theology James Leo Garrett,2009 This title offers a comprehensive analysis of Baptist theology Embracing in one common trajectory the major Baptist confessions of faith the major Baptist theologians and the principal Baptist theological movements and controversies this book spans four centuries of Baptist doctrinal history Acknowledging first the pre 1609 roots patristic medieval and Reformational of Baptist theology it examines the Arminian versus Calvinist issues that were first expressed by the General Baptists and the Particular Baptists that dominated English and American Baptist theology during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries from Helwys and Smyth and from Bunyan and Kiffin to Gill Fuller Backus and Boyce and that were quickened by the awakenings and the missionary movement Concurrently there were the Baptist defense of the Baptist distinctives vis a vis the pedobaptist world and the unfolding of a strong Baptist confessional tradition Then during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the liberal versus evangelical issues became dominant with Hovey Strong Rauschenbusch and Henry in the North and Mullins Conner Hobbs and Criswell in the South even as a distinctive Baptist Landmarkism developed the discipline of biblical theology was practiced and a structured ecumenism was pursued Missiology both impacted Baptist theology and took it to all the continents where it became increasingly indigenous Conscious that Baptists belong to the free churches and to the believers churches a new generation of Baptist theologians at the advent of the twenty first century appears somewhat more Calvinist than Arminian and decidedly more evangelical than liberal Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle,2002 This volume provides lively and clearly written expositions of those figures who have done most to shape our views in the period since 1914 Music cinema drama art fiction poetry and philosophy are just some of the fields covered *Catalog of Copyright Entries. Livingston, Francis Schüssler Fiorenza, This widely acclaimed introduction to modern Christian thought formerly published by Prentice Hall provides full scholarly accounts of the major movements and thinkers theologians and philosophers in the Christian tradition since the eighteenth century Enlightenment together with solid historical background and critical assessments This second edition deals with the entire modern period in both Europe and America and is the first to include extensive treatment of modern Catholic thinkers Evangelical thought and Black and Womanist theology The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1985 Christian Faith as Religion Paul E. Capetz, 2011-05-26 Christian Faith as Religion investigates the theologies of John Calvin and Friedrich Schleiermacher with respect to the questions What is Religion and What is Christian Religion The author argues that the classical and liberal exemplars of Protestant theology are best compared when these two questions are thoroughly examined and calls into question the contention of neo orthodox theologians Karl Barth and Emil Brunner that Schleiermacher s theological use of the category religion signifies a departure from the tradition of the Reformation He offers a revised comparative framework that discloses the material and formal similarities between Calvin and Schleiermacher with respect to their employment of the categories religion and revelation and allows the historical theologian to delineate the trajectory that accounts for both continuity and discontinuity in the transition from classical to modern Protestant theology This allows the systematic hermeneutical question of a contemporary Protestant theology informed by the historical and philosophical study of religion to be taken up anew
