Politics, Policy and Public Administration in Theory and Practice Andrew Podger, Michael de Percy, Sam Vincent, 2021-06-15 This festschrift celebrates the extensive contribution John Wanna has made to the research and practice of politics policy and public administration It includes both personal acknowledgements of his work and substantial essays on the issues that he focused most closely upon during his academic career budgeting and financial management politics and public policy and administration The essays address contemporary developments in public sector financial management in Australia and overseas changing political processes in Queensland and the Commonwealth and public governance and administration reform trajectories in Australia and internationally including in China A common theme is the importance of linking research to practice reflecting John Wanna's own style and contribution Essays include exploration of the interface between academia and practice including from the perspective of practitioners The authors of the essays in this volume include eminent Australian and international scholars of public administration experienced public service practitioners and younger scholars influenced by John Wanna

The Ayes Have It John Wanna, Tracey Arklay, 2010-07-01 The Ayes Have It is a fascinating account of the Queensland Parliament during three decades of high drama politics It examines in detail the Queensland Parliament from the days of the Labor split in the 1950s through the conservative governments of Frank Nicklin John Bjelke Petersen and Mike Ahern to the fall of the Nationals government led briefly by Russell Cooper in December 1989 The volume traces the rough and tumble of parliamentary politics in the frontier state The authors focus on parliament as a political forum on the representatives and personalities that made up the institution over this period on the priorities and political agendas that were pursued and the increasingly contentious practices used to control parliamentary proceedings Throughout the entire history are woven other controversies that repeatedly recur controversies over state economic development the provision of government services industrial disputation and government reactions electoral zoning and disputes over malapportionment the impost of taxation in the low tax state encroachments on civil liberties and political protests the perennial topic of censorship as well as the emerging issues of integrity concerns about conflicts of interest and the slide towards corruption There are fights with the federal government especially with the Whitlam government and internal fights within the governing coalition which eventually leads to its collapse in 1983 after which the Nationals manage to govern alone for two very tumultuous terms On the non government side the bitterness of the 1950s split was reflected in the early parliaments of this period and while the Australian Labor Party eventually saw off its rivalrous offshoot the QLP DLP it then began to implode through waves of internal factional discord

New Directions in Saskatchewan Public Policy David McGrane, 2011 In this new scholarly compilation by David P McGrane established and emerging trends in Saskatchewan public policy are the foundation for setting new directions for the province in the 21st century In what direction should Saskatchewan be headed in the 21st century To answer this question academics from various disciplines at the University of Regina and University of Saskatchewan have come together to produce New Directions in Saskatchewan Public Policy the first edited book exclusively devoted to public policy in the province with chapters discussing taxation immigration agriculture urban affairs poverty reduction the social economy labour aging Aboriginal public administration and climate change The authors provide an analysis and description of the current policies of the Wall government and also look back to explore what the Romanow and Calvert governments did in these areas The overarching theme of the book is that despite the province s robust economic growth significant public policy challenges remain for the Saskatchewan provincial government The lesson is that economic growth does not magically solve entrenched societal problems and that economic prosperity will dissipate if worrisome social trends are left unchecked While many scholarly books shy away from prescription the authors of this book include sections in their chapters that set out new directions for policy development As such the book not only contains solid analysis of the present policy situation but also offers concrete ideas for future policy makers

Women and American Politics Susan J. Carroll, 2003 Women and American Politics brings together leading scholars in the field of women and politics to provide an account of recent developments and the challenges that the future brings for the study of gender and American Politics The book examines women's participation in the electoral arena and the emerging scholarship on the relationship between the media and women in politics the participation of women of colour and women's activism outside the electoral arena This volume demonstrates both the wealth of knowledge about women and American politics by the current generation of scholars and the vast number and range of important research questions which pose a challenge for the next generation

Rethinking Strategic Learning Russ Vince, 2004-04-22 Russ Vince examines learning as both a social and a strategic process invariably linked to emotions and politics that are mobilized by attempts at learning and organizing He makes a substantial contribution to theories of organizational learning and develops new ideas about critical reflection and collective leadership The author outlines a critical perspective on HRD arguing that staff responsible for learning and change in organizations have put too much effort into the development of individuals and not enough into understanding and engaging with organizational dynamics that limit and shape individuals' opportunities and abilities to learn and change HRD is explained as an intervention within a political system and practice of management and leadership with all the difficulties and contradictions that attempting to manage and to lead are likely to contain and reveal This means that the focus of HRD is on action on developing the capacity to act on generating credibility through action and on influencing and working with others in situations loaded with emotion and politics

Women Transforming Congress Cindy Simon Rosenthal, 2002 From the first to one of the most recent Jeannette Rankin Montana 1916 to Hillary Rodham Clinton New York 2001 only two hundred women have ever served in the U S Congress Have these relatively few women changed the predominantly masculine institution in which they serve Have women as voters activists staff and members made a difference Edited by Cindy Simon Rosenthal Women Transforming Congress examines the increasing influence of women on Congress and the ways in which gender defines and shapes Congress as a political institution Written by women in politics and leading scholars on Congress the essays in this volume go beyond the limitations of prior research through their diverse analytical approaches and singular historical breadth The volume follows women on the campaign trail in committee rooms in floor debate and in policy deliberations where previously the focus was on men s interests and activities A gallery of photographs showing notable women from their earliest years of involvement with Congress to the present complements the essays

How Arts Education Makes a Difference Josephine Fleming, Robyn Gibson, Michael Anderson, 2015-12-22 This book presents ground breaking research on the ways the Arts fosters motivation and engagement in both academic and non academic domains It reports on mixed method international research that investigated how the Arts make a difference in the lives of young people Drawing on the findings of a longitudinal quantitative study led by the internationally renowned educational psychologist Andrew Martin the book examines the impact of arts involvement in the academic outcomes of 643 students and reports on the in depth qualitative research that investigates what constitutes best practice in learning and teaching in the Arts The book also examines drama dance music visual arts and film classrooms to construct an understanding of quality pedagogy in these classrooms With its evidence based but highly accessible approach this book will be directly and immediately relevant to those interested in the Arts as a force for change in schooling How Arts Education Makes a Difference discusses The Arts Education Motivation Engagement and Achievement Research Visual Arts Drama and Music in Classrooms Technology mediated Arts Engagement

International Perspectives on Arts and Cultural Policies in Education This book is a timely collation of research and experiential findings which support the need to promote arts education in schools worldwide It will be particularly useful for educationists researchers in education and arts advocates Leadership, Gender, and Organization Mollie Painter-Morland,2011-04-23 This text provides perspectives on the way in which gender plays a role in leadership dynamics and ethics within organizations It seeks to offer new theoretical models for thinking about leadership and organizational influence Most studies of women s leadership draw on an ethics of care as characteristic of the way women lead but as such it tends towards essentialist gender stereotypes and does little to explain the complex systemic variables that influence the functioning of women within organizations This book moves beyond the canon in exploring alternative paradigms for thinking about leadership and gender in organizations The authors draw on the literature available in systems thinking systemic leadership and gender theory to offer alternative perspectives for thinking about the ways women lead The book offers invaluable theoretical perspectives and insightful narratives to graduate students and researchers who are interested in women s leadership gender and organization It will be of interest to all women in leadership positions but specifically to those interested in understanding the systemic nature of leadership and their role within it Making a Difference Ian M. Mette,Dwayne Ray Cormier,Yanira Oliveras,2023-09-22 Making A Difference aims to equip educators with a framework for providing instructional leadership that ensures culturally responsive instruction Changing what is taught how it is taught and who it is intended for is one of the most effective ways of contributing to a more progressive equitable and inclusive society This requires instructional leaders to mitigate harmful educational practices from prepackaged curricula and teacher evaluation systems Through specific structures schools can support teachers to become culturally responsive instructors through formative feedback structures that can transform schools from systems of oppression into systems of opportunity
