Making A Television Play:

Filming Beckett's Television Plays Sidney Homan, 1992 If in the theater the rehearsal process is a way of discovering the play of suggesting alternative readings would the same hold true if the critic encountered works like Eh Joe Ghost Trio or Quad by going through the actual process of filming and then editing them Making Plays D. Wu, 2019-06-12 Making Plays explores great drama of the last two decades through the eyes of those who write it and those who direct it It is at once a masterclass on theatrical technique and a unique insight into the ways in which great dramatists of our time have reacted to a rapidly changing world In this book Duncan Wu talks to Michael Attenborough Alan Bennett Michael Blakemore Howard Brenton David Edgar Sir Richard Eyre Michael Frayn Sir David Hare Nicholas Hytner and Max Stafford Clark Wigs and Make-up for Theatre, TV and Film Patricia Baker, 2012-10-02 This book teaches the basic skills of theatrical and media make up and wigmaking It is ideal for students aiming at a career in the world of entertainment whether it be theatre television or film or those hoping to become make up artists within these fields While America Watches Jeffrey Shandler, 1999 In America where mediations have always provided most people with their primary encounter with the Holocaust television has helped transform watching into the morally charged act of witnessing the Holocaust By tracing the course of Holocaust television over the past half century While America Watches reveals how Americans have come to embrace this subject as a model for responding to other moral crises from domestic racial strife to ethnic cleansing operations in Bosnia BOOK JACKET

The Generation of Plays Karin Barber, 2003-03-21 Since the 1980s Yoruba popular theatre has virtually disappeared due to radio TV and other mass media in Nigeria This is the personal account of a theatre worker on tour with the Oyin Adejobi Company Drawing on archives interviews and transcribed plays she describes a successful Yoruba drama

Understanding Children's Mathematical Graphics: Beginnings in Play Elizabeth Carruthers, Maulfry Worthington, 2011-04-16 This book challenges traditional beliefs and practices of teaching written mathematics in early childhood It gives theoretical underpinnings and offers exciting insights and context to children s early mathematical thinking and in particular into children s mathematical graphics showing how this supports their understanding of the abstract symbolic language of mathematics Drawing on a wide range of examples it illustrates and explains how children explore and communicate their mathematical thinking through their mathematical graphics and how this begins in play The book looks at the power of children s own marks symbols and other graphical representations to convey meanings exploring how they support complex thinking The authors explore the relationship between children s play and meaning making Rather than viewing mathematics as a separate subject or as a set of basic skills to be transmitted they demonstrate that in supportive learning cultures children develop their own mathematical thinking to solve problems Key features include Numerous new examples and case studies of children from birth to 8 years highlighting the complexity and richness of children s thinking Explanation of pedagogical issues showing how they can support rich play and mathematics Draws on the

David Susskind Stephen Battaglio, 2010-10-12 A rich biography of one of the most important cultural figures of the 50s 60s and 70s maverick television producer and talk show host David Susskind A flamboyant impresario who began his career as an agent David Susskind helped define a fledgling television industry He was a provocateur who fought to bring high toned literary works to TV His series East Side West Side and N Y P D broke the color barrier in casting and brought gritty urban realism to prime time He indulged his passion for issues and ideas with his long running discussion program first called Open End and then The David Susskind Show where guests could come from The White House one week and a whore house the next The groundbreaking program made news year in and year out His legendary live interview with Nikita Khrushchev at the height of the Cold War inflamed both the political and media establishments Susskind was an enfant terrible whose life both on and off the screen makes fascinating reading His rough edges appetite for women and scorn for the business side of his profession often left his own career hanging by a thread Through extensive original reporting and deep access to David Susskind s personal papers family members and former associates Stephen Battaglio creates a vivid portrait of a go go era in American media David Susskind is as much a biography of an expansive and glamorous time in the television business as it is the life of one of its most colorful and important players Prologue ,2017 The Women Who Made Television Funny David C. Tucker,2007-01-31 Most of the bright and talented actresses who made America laugh in the 1950s are off the air today but their pioneering Hollywood careers irrevocably changed the face of television comedy These smart and sassy women successfully negotiated the hazards of the male dominated workplace with class and humor and the work they did in the 1950s is inventive still by today s standards Unable to fall back on strong language shock value or racial and sexual epithets the female sitcom stars of the 1950s entertained with pure talent and screen savvy As they did so they helped to lay the foundation for the development of television comedy This book pays tribute to 10 prominent television actresses who played lead roles in popular comedy shows of the 1950s Each chapter covers the works and personalities of one actress Lucille Ball I Love Lucy Gracie Allen The George Burns and Gracie Allen Show Eve Arden Our Miss Brooks Spring Byington December Bride Joan Davis I Married Joan Anne Jeffreys Topper Donna Reed The Donna Reed Show Ann Sothern Private Secretary and The Ann Sothern Show Gale Storm My Little Margie and The Gale Storm Show Oh Susanna and Betty White Life with Elizabeth For each star a career sketch is provided concentrating primarily on her television work but also noting achievements in other areas Appendices offer cast and crew lists a chronology and an additional biographical sketch of 10 less familiar actresses who deserve recognition Sports Media Brad Schultz,2005 Emphasizing the skills required to be successful in sports journalism this text offers descriptions into the role of the sports reporter s function as well as offering historical and background information into the evolution of the sports industry Television Directors, Race, and Gender Jonathan J. Cavallero,2024-07-17 This book challenges the predominant framing of US television as a writer s or producer s medium by suggesting that television directors are a vital component of TV artistry Looking beyond a perspective that favors the narrative and economic aspects of television but undervalues the medium s formal elements the book explores how directors use the visual and aural to contribute layers of meaning that add to the thematic development of television texts Starting from the belief that television aesthetics partially reveal the ways in which directors and their collaborators contribute to the overall thematic development of a program the author offers five case studies that map out the ways that directors have contributed to television drama throughout the medium s approximately 80 year history By devoting special attention to the presence and voices of directors from marginalized backgrounds the book creates opportunities to discuss television from perspectives that emphasize issues of diversity equity and inclusion This original and insightful work will appeal to students and scholars of television studies television production and media production critical media studies media authorship gender studies and race and media Style in British Television Drama L. Cooke,2013-10-18 This pioneering book provides detailed analysis of scenes from nine British television dramas produced between 1954 and 2001 Taking dinner table scenes as a recurring motif the study analyses changes in televisual style with reference to production practices technology aesthetic preferences and social and institutional change      China: Doing Business and Investing in China Guide Volume 1 Strategic, Practical Information and Contacts IBP, Inc.,2015-06 China Doing Business and Investing in Guide Volume 1 Strategic Practical Information Regulations Contacts      The Seventh Age of Man Muriel Cassel-Piccot,Geneviève Lheureux,2019-01-23 The Seventh Age of Man Issues Challenges and Paradoxes is a collection of academic essays on Old Age The contributors come from a wide range of fields of expertise which accounts for the originality of the book Depending on their respective disciplines the authors resort to various methodological approaches from sociological case studies to discourse analysis and from historical and political theories to media criticism but they often address similar questions when are people to be considered as old what does it mean to be old how do we deal with ageing and reach similar conclusions about the paradoxical representations of the elderly whether in Renaissance Europe or in contemporary China Although men and women are sometimes treated differently in most societies the older generation is alternately perceived as a threat and a burden or as financial and moral support If they are often criticized or ridiculed especially when they try to retain their youthful looks long after their prime the elderly also trigger a feeling of nostalgia as representatives of a past usually seen as more desirable than the present Their resilience and independence are regularly emphasized as well as their wisdom as a result of their long experience which helps them to contemplate their ends more serenely and which might turn them into models for their contemporaries
