Making Christ Known Historic Mission Documents From The Lausanne Movement 1974 1989:

Making Christ Known John R. W. Stott, 1997 During the fifteen year period between 1974 and 1989 the Lausanne Movement produced a number of key mission documents that have been gathered in this important anthology Beginning with the Lausanne Covenant and ending with the Manila Manifesto these vital mission documents have so far been available only as Lausanne Occasional Papers Now they are available in book form Each of the documents is presented here with its historical integrity intact The only new additions to the collection itself are a historical introduction by John R W Stott and a foreword by Billy Graham both important pieces of writing in themselves Russian Baptist Mission Theology in Historical and Contemporary Perspective Andrey Kravtsev, 2019-10-31 Since the disintegration of the USSR many Russian Baptists have actively engaged in evangelism church planting and acts of social service This book is a response to the need to critically evaluate the effectiveness of past mission efforts and their undergirding theology In this detailed study Dr Andrey Kravtsev combines historical and qualitative studies to outline the understanding of mission developed by Russian Baptists during the Soviet era when they were almost completely isolated from global missiological developments First Kravtsev identifies four key missiological concepts and uses them to analyze the history of mission theology in global evangelical mission movements and the Russian Baptists He then interviewed thirty leaders from the Russian Union of Evangelical Christian Baptists to find their view of these concepts and their convictions of the need to reconsider traditional missiological views From his findings Dr Kravtsev suggests five themes for facilitating the transition of Russian Baptist mission theology from the late Soviet model of eschatological escapism to a holistic missional evangelicalism This book places evangelical mission in contemporary Russian socio political and ideological contexts and provides an important contribution for leading churches to a renewed missionary encounter with culture For the Love of God Jerry M. Ireland, 2017-03-23 Compassionate missions constitutes a growing focus among evangelical denominations and agencies Because of this there exists a growing need to be guided by sound principles and best practices This edited volume sets forth both the biblical foundations and preferred methods for churches wanting to engage in compassion as part of their missionary efforts The aim throughout is that compassionate missions would be guided by indigenous principles that help establish autonomous local churches capable of being salt and light in their communities The contributors to this volume have over 200 years of missions experience Through their first hand knowledge of the challenges and pitfalls faced by missionaries engaging in compassion these authors set forth foundational principles and practical guidelines related to some of the most pressing issues confronting missionaries today These include HIV AIDS UPGs human trafficking orphans and vulnerable children gender issues and many more Pastors missionaries missions boards and educators will find this a valuable resource as the church in the twenty first century continues to engage in the Great Commission The New Global Mission Samuel Escobar, 2013-04-23 Veteran missiologist Samuel Escobar explores the new realities of our globalized world assesses the context of a changing mission field sets forth a thoroughly biblical theology of missions and considers implications for how Christians are to go about the task of global mission

A Time for Mission Samuel Escobar, 2013-07-14 Christian mission in the twenty first century has become the responsibility of a global church The heart of mission is the drive to cross geographical cultural and social barriers in order to share the good news of Jesus Christ with all peoples Drawing on his involvement in missionary work over many years Samuel Escobar explores how the church spreads the Christian faith God s Word forms the foundation for his reflections while he uses insights from theological and historical studies as well as from the social sciences to gain a clearer understanding of the church s missionary calling His stimulating and challenging analysis contributes significantly to a global evangelical dialogue on mission today and in the future

A Future for the Latino Church Daniel A. Rodriguez, 2011-05-04 Daniel Rodriguez argues that effective Latino ministry and church planting is now centered in second generation English dominant leadership and congregations Based on his observation of cutting edge Latino churches across the country Rodriguez reports on how innovative congregations are ministering creatively to the next generations of Latinos

Edinburgh 2010 David A. Kerr, Kenneth R. Ross, 2009 The Centenary of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh 1910 is a suggestive moment for many people seeking direction for Christian mission in the 21st century Several different constituencies within World Christianity are holding significant events around 2010 Since 2005 an international group has worked collaboratively to develop an intercontinental and multid denominational project now known as Edinburgh 2010 and based at New College University of Edinburgh This initiative brings together representatives of twenty different global Christian bodies representing all major Christian denominations and confessions and many different strands of mission and church life to prepare for the Centenary Daryl Balia International Director Edinburgh 2010

The Role and Meaning of Religion for Korean Society Song-Chong Lee, 2019-04-25 This special issue presents discussions of the role and meaning of religion for Korean society Covering wide ranging time periods the authors explore with their own cases four major characteristics of Korean religion Creativity Greater Responsiveness Adaptability and Prophethood Their topical religious traditions include Neo Confucianism Christianity Buddhism and Korean new religious movements

Gospel Witness through the Ages David M. Gustafson, 2022-02-24 A definitive history of Christian evangelism including noteworthy persons movements and methods from the past Christians have been sharing the good news of Jesus Christ with nonbelievers for two thousand years Within this deep history is wisdom for today including numerous models for understanding what evangelism is and how it should be done In Gospel Witness through the Ages David Gustafson introduces readers to evangelism s noteworthy persons movements and methods from the entire scope of church history including both examples to emulate and examples to avoid With this thorough historical approach Gustafson expands the reader s conception of the evangelistic task and suggests new ways to shape our identity as gospel witnesses today through the influence of these earlier generations of Christians With discussion questions for further reflection and primary sources from major evangelistic figures of the past Gospel Witness through the Ages is the most definitive history of evangelism available essential for understanding how Christians today can continue proclaiming the gospel to the whole world as Christians have in every century past An Indian Trinitarian Theology of Missio Dei P. V. Joseph, 2019-07-12 The recent rediscovery of the doctrine of the Trinity has left great impact on the thought and life of the Christian Church With this reinstatement the Trinity which was left out for long as an esoteric mystery has captured the imagination of theologians and elicited remarkable trinitarian formulations from across theological traditions This contemporary development has forced the church to review its dogma spirituality and Christian practices through the lens of this central doctrine of the Christian faith One of the important and essential upshots of the doctrine has been the reclamation of a theocentric and trinitarian understanding of mission as the missio Dei In view of the modern renewal of the Trinity and the global expansion of Christianity this book explores insights and perspectives from the trinitarian thoughts of St Augustine and the Indian theologian Brahmabandhab Upadhyay that can inform missio Dei theology relevant for the Indian context Re-Visioning African Pentecostal-Charismatic Ecclesiology in the Public Sphere Christian Tsekpoe, Lord Elorm Donkor, 2024-09-05 Despite the current impressive numerical growth of Pentecostal Charismatic Christianity in Africa there remain some concerns about the extent to which the church is making the desired impact in the public space As the church grows numerically the African continent is ironically plagued with many regrettable stories of corruption bad governance sexual abuse gender discrimination and perversion environmental degradation robbery economic crisis leading to poverty and hunger wars and other social vices This paradoxical increase in vices alongside the demographic growth of the Christian population on the continent has caused many to question the social impact of African Christianity Re Visioning African Pentecostal Charismatic Ecclesiology in the Public Sphere is a response to these observations The contributors to this volume who are made up of seasoned academics theological educators and missiologists and mission practitioners have engaged the subject from multidisciplinary perspectives highlighting significant contributions of African Pentecostalism while pointing out critical areas for urgent attention The volume is intended to stimulate conversations around the church's mandate of influencing the public sphere as an agent of social transformation

New Dictionary of Theology Martin Davie, Tim Grass, Stephen R. Holmes, John McDowell, Thomas A. Bock, 2013-06-14 The Cape Town Commitment which arose from The Third Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization Cape Town 2010 stands in the historic line of The Lausanne Covenant 1974 and The Manila Manifesto 1989 It has been translated into twenty five languages and has commanded wide acceptance around the world The Commitment is set in two parts Part 1 is a Confession of Faith crafted in the language of covenantal love Part 2 is a Call to Action The local church mission agencies special interest groups and Christians in the professions are all urged to find their place in its outworking This annotated bibliography of The Cape Town Commitment arranged by topic has been compiled by specialists in a range of fields As such it is the first bibliography of its kind Arranged in sections for graduate level teaching Equally useful for research students

British Evangelical Theologians of the Twentieth Century Thomas Noble, Jason Sexton, 2022-04-21 Throughout the twentieth century Britain produced some of the most prominent evangelical theologians in both church and academic circles This survey and introduction edited by Thomas Noble and Jason Sexton presents twelve of these theologians exploring what made their work so influential and their continued relevance for today As well as surveying each man's work British Evangelical Theologians of the Twentieth Century considers what is meant by calling these theologians evangelical Christians taking into account their understanding of biblical authority standing in the Reformation tradition and treatment of Scripture as well as their approaches to biblical criticism and liberal theology As a result it is ideal for students looking to deepen their understanding of British evangelical Christianity as a whole as well as increasing their knowledge of the individual figures From James Orr and Lesslie Newbigin to John Stott and J I Packer a range of perspectives within British evangelicalism is reflected Along with brief biographies each body of work is examined in three particular areas stance on the Bible biblicism the atonement crucicentrism and concern for mission and evangelism conversionism British Evangelical Theologians of the Twentieth Century is a thorough introduction to twelve of the keenest and most influential minds in British evangelical thought It will leave you with an appreciation of each man's contribution to English speaking evangelicalism as well as helping you to engage critically with their theology and understand how their work is relevant to the development and discussion of British evangelical theology today

Converging Destinies Stuart Dauermann, 2017-03-14 While all have reason to celebrate the greening of Christian Jewish relations since the Shoah and the promulgation of Nostra Aetate 4 few will deny that much work remains to be done by Christians and Jews seeking the best way forward that they might best serve God's purposes in the world the mission of God This book addresses that need by first surveying how each community has historically conceived of its own mission and from that stance assigned an identity to the other The text illuminates how such construals have often impeded progress and therefore need to be upgraded and supplemented But how shall this be done Converging Destinies proposes an eschatological vision and practical suggestions to summon Jews and Christians to prepare for that day when each will be both commended and reproved by the judge of all sounding a call for more determined action greater humility and cooperative effort as together Jews and Christians serve the mission of God accountable to him for how they have served him and each other in the world that he has created according to his will

One Faith James Innell Packer, Thomas C. Oden, 2004 Jesus Christ promised a unity for his church Are there now clear evidences of that within evangelicalism Or are evangelicals fragmenting into ever smaller divisions Renowned theologians J I Packer and Thomas C

Oden make the case that there is a significant theological consensus holding the evangelical church together With copious citations from statements produced since 1950 that are widely representative of international evangelical faith Packer and Oden let these witnesses speak for themselves Packer and Oden survey several key documents of evangelicalism particularly the Lausanne Covenant 1974 the Manila Manifesto 1989 The Gospel of Jesus Christ An Evangelical Celebration 1999 and The Amsterdam Declaration 2000 Charting sixteen different theological themes they also include references to numerous documents produced by evangelical theological seminaries and societies mission agencies parachurch organizations and assorted special convocations More than informational One Faith arises out of the hope that it may not only edify the evangelical church but also provide a potential foundation for a new ecumenism that gives glory to the God of our Lord Jesus Christ according to the good news of his gospel

Roots and Remedies of the Dependency Syndrome in World

Missions Robert Reese, 2010-06-17 The Christian movement is entering a new postcolonial era with centers of the faith on all continents American Christians have often felt uniquely qualified to lead this growing movement because of a long history of sending missionaries and funding mission projects Yet something is hampering the relationship between Western and non Western churches preventing the dynamic synergism that Christians might expect Roots and Remedies of the Dependency Syndrome in World Missions Robert Reese identifies this hindrance as the Dependency Syndrome a relic of colonial mission methods With three decades of experience in Zimbabwe Reese explains the roots of dependency and how this continues to cloud the vision of many well meaning Western Christians He documents the tragic results of relying too much on foreign ideas institutions personnel and funding that sideline non Western churches from fulfilling the Great Commission Reese addresses remedies for dependency examining healthy mission models tried and tested since the days of the apostle Paul From issues that arise from globalization to best mission practices in the twenty first century Roots and Remedies aims to achieve what most Christians are seeking but find elusive how all parts of the diverse Body of Christ around the world can cooperate productively to bring Christ where He is not now known without creating dependency

The Shortfall

Christopher J. H. Wright, James Cousins, John Stott, 2021-01-31 Inadequate funding remains one of the most significant challenges facing Christian ministries around the world Yet who bears responsibility for this deficiency Chris Wright in conversation with James Cousins challenges Christians to recognize that the problem of insufficient funding does not belong to those experiencing the shortfall but to those entrusted by God with the means to alleviate it Combining John Stott's The Grace of Giving and Chris Wright's The Gift of Accountability two classics on generosity and financial integrity along with a brand new reflection this book encourages readers to think critically about the problem itself Together these three works form a powerful treatise on Christian generosity stewardship and financial responsibility questioning and transforming long held beliefs around Christian giving The Shortfall serves as a reminder that our resources belong to God and we will be held accountable for how we choose to steward them

Redemption That Liberates Wonho Jung, 2018-02-08 This book is for both evangelicals and ecumenicals interested in a holistic approach to the Christian vision of social transformation. The author compares Richard Mouw's Reformed political theology and Nam dong Suh's Minjung theology to suggest a vision of transformation that is theologically more cogent and politically more engaged. In general, Minjung theology understands transformation in terms of political liberation, and Reformed theology in terms of spiritual redemption, and theologians of the two theologies have criticized the other's approach as theologically inadequate. However, Suh's formulation of Minjung theology and Mouw's Reformed political theology based on the neo-Calvinist worldview show significant affinities with each other in their understanding of transformation in Christ. Both Suh and Mouw show a broad understanding of liberation and redemption. They develop their theologies in an inclusive both-and way of thinking, and their holistic approach is contrasted with the exclusive either-or way of thinking in the Minjung theology of Byung-mu Ahn and the Reformed theology of David VanDrunen. The book concludes that redemption in Christ aims at an all-encompassing transformation that includes not only spiritual renewal but also liberation from social alienation, economic inequality, and political oppression.
