Making Sense of Church Spencer Burke, 2009-08-30 Samplings of online discussions about God truth and church from theOoze.com Our culture is rapidly changing and people are searching for new models and paradigms to find meaning in their lives As in all transitional periods this search takes place in grass roots conversations where the new is taking form No other place so uniquely captures this struggle more than the message boards at theOoze.com the premier melting pot of emerging spiritual conversation Making Sense of Church is a snapshot of this community conversation as it tries to make sense of God in the emerging worldview It represents a gathering of individuals with different points of view theologies life contexts and feelings Author Spencer Burke creator of theOoze.com provides the framework writing for each chapter and acts as a guide to the accompanying e mail postings that supplement the chapters Subjects discussed include Authentic Community Experiential Worship The Internet and God Art as a Vehicle for Communicating Truth Spirituality and Sexuality What Is the Church What Is Postmodernism

Doing Church as A Team Wayne Cordeiro, 2011-08 In Doing Church as a Team Pastor Wayne Cordeiro underscores that church numbers are insignificant when every individual is not involved However if the team members work together as one toward a single clearly defined goal anything is possible and everyone shares in the joys and rewards of success The Making of an Ecologist David R. Klein, 2019-08-15 This is an innovative and collaborative life history of one of Alaska's pioneering wildlife biologists David R Klein has been a leader in promoting habitat studies across wildlife research in Alaska and this is his first hand account of how science and biological fieldwork has been carried out in Alaska in the last sixty years This book tells the stories of how Klein did his science and the inspiration behind the research while exposing the thinking that underlies particular scientific theories In addition this book shows the evolution of Alaska's wildlife management regimes from territorial days to statehood to the era of big oil The first portion of the book is comprised of stories from Klein's life collected during oral history interviews while the latter section contains essays written by Klein about philosophical topics of importance to him such as eco philosophy the definition of wilderness and the morality of hunting Many of Klein's graduate students have gone on to become successful wildlife managers themselves in Alaska and around the globe Through The Making of an Ecologist Klein's outlook philosophy and approach toward sustainability wildlife management and conservation can now inspire even more readers to ensure the survival of our fragile planet in an ever changing global society

The Making of Modern English Society from 1850 Janet Roebuck, 1982 In the second half of the nineteenth century and the first half of the twentieth century a variety of forces emerged which changed society in many profound and subtle ways The Making of Modern English Society from 1850 uses the findings of recent historical and sociological research contemporary literature and a wide range of historical sources to form a clear picture of the main patterns of the social changes which took place in this turbulent period Jane Roebuck shows how in these hundred years the whole fabric of society altered more rapidly and radically than in any preceding century She gives an account of the dramatic change which occurred in all spheres of national life She demonstrates how the drift towards socialism which began in the nineteenth century gathered momentum in the twentieth and how massive social change was the product of the two world wars In the field of economics the author considers the development of the maturing but still primitive industrial economy of the mid nineteenth century into a modern economy based on mass production and mass consumption She also describes the change in emphasis from desire for world power to concern for domestic prosperity and welfare services

From Here to Maturity Thomas E. Bergler, 2014-11-27 Expert guidance on how to grow up in Christ This book is a follow up to Thomas Bergler's acclaimed work The Juvenilization of American Christianity which documents how church youth ministries over the past several decades have contributed to a process of adolescent spiritual traits becoming accepted and even celebrated by Christians of all ages This juvenilization in the church is a real problem that must be addressed says Bergler and in his new book he addresses it head on From Here to Maturity is an accessible guide for helping both individuals and whole faith communities to grow spiritually Bergler claims that spiritual maturity defined as basic competence in the Christian life is both desirable and attainable and he effectively presents a biblical theology of spiritual maturity identifying its traits from pertinent New Testament passages Adapting Dallas Willard's model of spiritual formation and applying it to congregational life Bergler offers a wealth of practical research based guidance as to how Christian leaders can effectively foster spiritual maturity in their congregations He also identifies six key faith sustaining factors and provides a system for evaluating a church s state of spiritual maturity and steps for improving it Ecumenically friendly From Here to Maturity will be useful to individuals and leaders from many different churches and theological traditions Your Church in Rhythm Bruce B.
