Making It Real The Canonization Of Englishcanadian Literature:

Making it Real Robert Lecker,1995      Anthologizing Canadian Literature Robert Lecker,2015-11-02 The first collection of critical essays devoted to the study of English Canadian literary anthologies brings together the work of thirteen prominent critics to investigate anthology formation in Canada and answer these key questions Why are there so many literary anthologies in Canada and how can we trace their history What role have anthologies played in the formation of Canadian literary taste How have anthologies influenced the training of students from generation to generation What literary values do the editors of various anthologies tend to support and how do these values affect canon formation in Canada How have different genres fared in the creation of literary anthologies How do Canadian anthologies transmit ideas about gender region ideology and nation Specific essays focus on anthologies as national metaphors the controversies surrounding early literary collections representations of First Nations peoples in anthologies and the ways in which various editors have understood exploration narratives In addition the collection examines the representation of women in Canadian anthologies the use of anthologies as teaching tools and the creation of some very odd Canadian anthologies along the way      A History of Canadian Literature William H. New,William Herbert New,2003 New offers an unconventionally structured overview of Canadian literature from Native American mythologies to contemporary texts Publishers Weekly A History of Canadian Literature looks at the work of writers and the social and cultural contexts that helped shape their preoccupations and direct their choice of literary form W H New explains how from early records of oral tales to the writing strategies of the early twenty first century writer reader literature and society are interrelated New discusses both Aboriginal and European mythologies looking at pre Contact narratives and also at the way Contact experience altered hierarchies of literary value He then considers representations of the real whether in documentary fantasy or satire historical romance and the social construction of Nature and State and ironic subversions of power the politics of cultural form and the relevance of the media to a representation of community standard and individual voice New suggests some ways in which writers of the later twentieth century codified such issues as history gender ethnicity and literary technique itself In this second edition he adds a lengthy chapter that considers how writers at the turn of the twenty first century have reimagined their society and their roles within it and an expanded chronology and bibliography Some of these writers have spoken from and about various social margins dealing with issues of race status ethnicity and sexuality some have sought emotional understanding through strategies of history and memory some have addressed environmental concerns and some have reconstructed the world by writing across genres and across different media All genres are represented with examples chosen primarily but not exclusively from anglophone and francophone texts A chronology plates and a series of tables supplement the commentary      Censorship in Canadian Literature Mark Cohen,2001-10-09 Cohen critiques Timothy Findley s broad anti censorship position he traces Margaret Atwood s evolution from implicit support for the censorship of pornography in Bodily Harm to the rejection of censorship in The Handmaid's Tale and he provides the first detailed study of the draft of Margaret Laurence's unfinished novel showing the degree to which her final silence was a result of her censorship ordeal. Finally an analysis of the writing of Beatrice Culleton and Marlene Nourbese Philip shows how different kinds of socio cultural censorship from gate keepers to self censorship silence Native and black Canadian voices. Cohen's re definition of censorship as essentially a practice of judgment takes us beyond the traditional Enlightenment delineation of censorship as an oppressive government practice and the consequent neutralist liberal condemnation of censorship on principle. Since judgment is enmeshed in the fabric of human endeavour censorship is inevitable since censorship is inevitable. Cohen concludes debate over whether censorship itself is desirable should give way to a search for censorship practices that are more just.

Canadian Literature Faye Hammill, 2007-09-13 An important critical study of Canadian literature placing internationally successful anglophone Canadian authors in the context of their national literary history. While the focus of the book is on twentieth century and contemporary writing it also charts the historical development of Canadian literature and discusses important eighteenth and nineteenth century authors. The chapters focus on four central topics in Canadian culture: Ethnicity, Race, Colonisation, Wildernesses, Cities, Regions, Desire and Histories and Stories. Each chapter combines case studies of five key texts with a broad discussion of concepts and approaches including postcolonial and postmodern reading strategies and theories of space, place and desire. Authors chosen for close analysis include Margaret Atwood, Michael Ondaatje, Alice Munro, Leonard Cohen, Thomas King and Carol Shields.

The novel english as paradigm of canadian literary identity Natalia Rodriguez Nieto, 2014-04-02 La presente tesis se centra en el género novelístico en lengua inglesa como paradigma de la Identidad literaria canadiense con el fin de analizar su construcción restrictiva por medio de la Recuperación de contribuciones de mujeres y autores étnicos que han sido bien relegadas o bien infravaloradas como agentes literarios relevantes. Esta investigación abarca un periodo que comprende desde la publicación de la primera novela canadiense en inglés The History of Emily Montague de Frances Brooke en 1769 hasta 1904 a lo que la obra de Sara Jeannette Duncan titulada The Imperialist vi la luz es decir desde los comienzos del género en inglés hasta la primera novela modernista. La primera parte engloba el marco teórico general del Nuevo Historicismo, el Feminismo y los Estudios étnicos puesto que resaltan el papel crucial de la historización de la literatura en la creación de tradiciones e identidades literarias e impulsan una visión crítica tanto de la producción literaria de mujeres y escritores étnicos como de su consideración. La segunda parte se centra en la historia tradici e identidad literarias canadienses. Por medio de la novela se analiza el proceso de antologización de la literatura canadiense en inglés a través de un estudio detallado sobre la presencia ausencia de autoras y autores étnicos en antologías publicadas entre 1920 y 2004. También se incluyen las contribuciones de críticas feministas y o étnicos puesto que cuestionan axiomas establecidos en la historia tradici e identidad canadienses y posibilitan el acceso a las obras de estos escritores as alternativos cuyos diversos sentidos identitarios de otro modo silenciados son revelados Precisamente estos diferentes sentidos de la identidad son el eje de la tercera parte Desde 1769 a 1904 existen una primera novela frecuentemente infravalorada escrita Frances Brooke novelas olvidadas de autoras con gran reconocimiento como Susanna Strickland Moodie escritoras relevantes en la ficción juvenil como es el caso de Agnes Maule Machar Margaret Murray Robertson y Margaret Marshall Saunders contribuciones tempranas de autores técnicos como Martin Robinson Delany y Winnifred Eaton as como novelistas de éxito de la talla Agnes Early Fleming Lily Dougall Susan Frances Harrison y Sara Jeannette Duncan Dando voz y resaltando su relevancia este trabajo demuestra que la literatura canadiense temprana está plagada de autoras y autores técnicos inteligentes poderosos y reconocidos cuyas aportaciones deben ser reconsideradas si se pretende seguir manteniendo el carácter multicultural y no patriarcal de las letras canadienses Estas novelas de un autor afroamericano y residente temporal en Canadá de una mujer canadiense de ascendencia china inglesa y un amplio espectro de mujeres inmigrantes o nativas pone de manifiesto no sólo que Canadá cuenta con un pasado literario sólido y forjado desde la diversidad sino que cuestiona el hecho de que esta herencia literaria todavía necesita ser recuperada

The Reception of Northrop Frye, 2021-08-31 The widespread opinion is that Northrop Frye's influence reached its zenith in the 1960s and 1970s after which point he became obsolete his work buried in obscurity This almost universal opinion is summed up in Terry Eagleton's 1983 rhetorical question Who now reads Frye In The Reception of Northrop Frye Robert D Denham catalogues what has been written about Frye books articles translations dissertations and theses and reviews in order to demonstrate that the attention Frye's work has received from the beginning has progressed at a geometric rate Denham also explores what we can discover once we have a fairly complete record of Frye's reception in front of us such as Hayden White's theory of emplotments applied to historical writing and Byron Almásy's theory of musical narrative The sheer quantity of what has been written about Frye reveals that the only valid response to Eagleton's rhetorical question is a very large and growing number the growth being not incremental but exponential
