broad encompassing middle class professionals mosque congregations factory workers in France and the north of England itinerant African traders and prison inmates in New York The truism that Islam is a religion of the word takes on concrete meaning as these disparate communities find ways to elaborate word centered ritual and to have the visual and aural presence of sacred words in the spaces they inhabit The volume includes 46 black and white photographs that illustrate Muslim populations in Edmonton Philadelphia the Green Haven Correction Facility Manhattan Marseilles Berlin and London among other places The focus on space directs attention to the new kinds of boundaries and consciousness that exist not only for these Muslim populations but for people from all backgrounds in today s ever more integrated world Rethinking Islam and Space in Europe C.J.J. Moses,Tobias Müller,Adela Taleb,2022-09-05 The role of Islam in public spaces is one of the most prevalent political questions in Europe Contestations around the construction of mosques the ban of Islamic veils and populist rhetoric about problematic neighbourhoods indicate Europe s struggles with the place of its second largest religion This book advocates for an analytical turn in the study of Islam in Europe using space as a central conceptual lens While spatial approaches are gaining traction in the study of religion migration ethnicity race and politics the chapters in this book argue that the critical potential of a spatialised analysis in the field of Islam in Europe remains largely unexplored This volume presents a collection of nine empirical studies that offer insights into how scholars might exploit the category of space when analysing both current political issues and broader conceptual questions in the social sciences And more specifically how does a spatial perspective on Islam contribute to a deeper understanding of the formations of the state ethnicity race secularism gender and colonial structures Rethinking Islam and Space in Europe is a significant new contribution to racial and ethnic studies in Europe and will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Politics Sociology Social and Political Geography Anthropology and Religious Studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a 2021 special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Everyday Life Practices of Muslims in Europe Erkan Toğuşlu,2015-08-18 Muslims in Europe and the preservation of their religious ethnic particularities Everyday Life Practices of Muslims in Europe explores how Muslims give meaning to Islam on a day to day basis The contributions look at concrete practices identities memories and normalities in daily Muslim life and provide insights to the complexities of identities They examine Muslims use of and construction of spaces daily practices forms of interaction and modes of thinking in different areas resulting in a thorough analysis and framework of Muslims day to day life through topical chapters on food space entertainment marriage and mosque covering both extent of hybridity and preservation of religious ethnic particularities Contributors Rachel Brown Wilfrid Laurier University Mohammed El Bachouti UPF Valentina Fedele Universit della Calabria Diletta Guidi cole Pratique des Hautes tudes Ossame Hegazy Bauhaus University Weimar Ajmal Hussain Aston University Jana Jevtic Central European University Elsa Mescoli University of Li ge Wim Peumans KU Leuven Sumeyye Ulu Sameto lu EHESS Leen Sterck The Netherlands Institute for Social Research Thijl Sunier VU University Amsterdam Erkan To u lu KU Leuven Amplifying Islam in the European Soundscape Pooyan Tamimi Arab, 2017-02-09 Public manifestations of Islam remain fiercely contested across the Global West Studies to date have focused on the visual presence of Islam the construction of mosques or the veiling of Muslim women Amplifying Islam in the European Soundscape is the first book to add a sonic dimension to analyses of the politics of Islamic aesthetics in Europe Sound does not respect public private boundaries and people experience sound viscerally As such the public amplification of the azan the call to prayer offers a unique opportunity to understand what is at stake in debates over religious toleration and secularism The Netherlands were among the first European countries to allow the amplification of the azan in the 1980s and Pooyan Tamimi Arab explores this as a case study embedded in a broader history of Dutch religious pluralism The book offers a pointed critique of social theories that regard secularism as all encompassing While cultural forms of secularism exclude Muslim rights to public worship Amplifying Islam in the European Soundscape argues that political and constitutional secularism also enables Muslim demands for amplifying calls to prayer It traces how these exclusions and inclusions are effected through proposals for mosques media debates law and policy but also in negotiations on the ground between residents municipalities and mosques This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by the Religious Matters in an Entangled World program Utrecht University New Media in the Muslim World Dale F. Eickelman, Jon W. Anderson, 2003 This second edition of a collection of essays reports on how new media fax machines satellite television and the Internet and the new uses of older media cassettes pulp fiction the cinema the telephone and the press shape belief authority and community in the Muslim world The chapters in this work including new chapters dealing specifically with events after September 11 2001 concern Indonesia Bangladesh Turkey Iran Lebanon the Arabian Peninsula and Muslim communities in the United States and elsewhere The book suggests new ways of looking at the social organization of communications and the shifting links among media of various kinds in local and transnational contexts The extent to which today's new media have transcended local and state frontiers and have reshaped understanding of gender authority social justice identities and politics in Muslim societies emerges from this work West African Migrations M. Okome, 2012-01-30 Drawing on the interdisciplinary research projects of scholars from various social science and humanities disciplines this book explores how African migration to Western countries after the neo liberal economic reforms of the 1980s transformed West African states and their new transnational populations in Western countries Muslim American City Alisa Perkins, 2020-07-07 Explores how Muslim Americans test the boundaries of American pluralism In 2004 the al Islah Islamic Center in Hamtramck Michigan set off a contentious controversy when it requested permission to use loudspeakers to broadcast the adh n or Islamic call to prayer The issue gained international notoriety when media outlets from around the world flocked to the city to report on what had become a civil battle between religious tolerance and Islamophobic sentiment The Hamtramck council voted unanimously to allow mosques to broadcast the adh n making it one of the few US cities to officially permit it through specific legislation Muslim American City explores how debates over Muslim Americans use of both public and political space have challenged and ultimately reshaped the boundaries of urban belonging Drawing on more than ten years of ethnographic research in Hamtramck which boasts one of the largest concentrations of Muslim residents of any American city Alisa Perkins shows how the Muslim American population has grown and asserted itself in public life She explores for example the efforts of Muslim American women to maintain gender norms in neighborhoods mosques and schools as well as Muslim Americans efforts to organize public responses to municipal initiatives Her in depth fieldwork incorporates the perspectives of both Muslims and non Muslims including Polish Catholics African American Protestants and other city residents Drawing particular attention to Muslim American expressions of religious and cultural identity in civil life particularly in response to discrimination and stereotyping Perkins questions the popular assumption that the religiosity of Muslim minorities hinders their capacity for full citizenship in secular societies She shows how Muslims and non Muslims have through their negotiations over the issues over the use of space together invested Muslim practice with new forms of social capital and challenged nationalist and secularist notions of belonging Multifaith Spaces Terry

Biddington,2020-09-21 Multifaith spaces reflect the diversity of the modern world and enable a connection between individuals from different religious backgrounds These spaces also highlight the complex and sensitive areas of political and social debates regarding the emergence of densely urbanised populations They hold the potential to encourage connection and dialogue between members of different communities promoting empathy community and shared activity for the betterment of society This book explores the history development design and practicalities of multifaith spaces from the early shared religious buildings that had to cater for two or more faiths to the shared multifaith spaces of modern secular locations such as universities airports and hospitals Terry Biddington looks at the architectural theological social legal and practical complexities that arise from the development and use of such spaces The book also draws together research to enable further development of multifaith spaces The SAGE Handbook of Islamic Studies Akbar S Ahmed,Tamara

Muslims at the Margins of Europe Tuomas Martikainen, José Mapril, Adil Hussain Khan, 2019-07-29 This volume focuses on Muslims in Finland Greece Ireland and Portugal representing the four corners of the European Union today It highlights how Muslim experiences can be understood in relation to a country's particular historical routes political economies colonial and post colonial legacies as well as other factors such as church state relations the role of secularism and urbanisation This volume also reveals the incongruous nature of the fact that national particularities shaping European Muslim experiences cannot be understood independently of European and indeed global dynamics This makes it even more important to consider every national context when analysing patterns in European Islam especially those that have yet to be fully elaborated The chapters in this volume demonstrate the contradictory dynamics of European Muslim contexts that are simultaneously distinct yet similar to the now familiar ones of Western Europe's most populous countries

Creating Diversities Anna-Leena Siikala, Barbro Klein, Stein R. Mathisen, 2007-07-07 The effects of globalization and the momentous changes to the political map of Europe have led to a world in which multiculturalism and ethnic differences have become issues of increasing importance In Nordic countries relationships between new immigrants local ethnic groups and majorities are created in ongoing and sometimes heated discussions In transforming multicultural societies folklore has taken on new manifestations and meanings How can folklore studies illuminate the present cultural political and historical changes Creating Diversities Folklore Religion and the Politics of Heritage edited by Anna Leena Siikala Barbro Klein and Stein R Mathisen seeks answers to this question It emphasizes two important factors in the cultural and political exchanges among historical minorities recent immigrants and the majority groups dictating the conditions of these exchanges The first factor is religion which is a powerful tool in the construction of ethnic selves and in the establishment of boundaries between groups The second factor is the role of national and regional folklore archives and ethnographic and cultural historical museums which create ideas and images of minorities These representations created in different political climates affect the general understanding of the people depicted Fifteen well known folklorists and ethnographers from Norway Sweden Finland Estonia and the United States offer insights and background material on these problems In addition to immigrants and ethnic minorities in the Nordic countries especially the Sami examples are sought from among the Finno Ugrian minorities in Russia and the Nordic population in North America

Islam and Muslims in the countries of the European Union implies many different forms of intercultural relations at different levels of society as for instance between Muslims and other religious or philosophical groups within the framework of social and health care in city life and within the sector of education Furthermore the relations between Muslim religious authorities and society at large may be seen as forms of intercultural relations All these types of intercultural relations are influenced by the images fostered by various groups and individuals about the Others The chapters comprising of this volume each contribute to the elucidation of some aspects of these processes of intercultural relations They have been grouped into four main categories the image formation about Islam and Muslims and its impact on their position in the countries of the European Union especially in the press in schoolbooks and in local politics the intercultural relations between Muslims and other groups and institutions in the countries concerned as stereotypes and prejudices can exercise a detrimental effect upon intercultural relations within many different sectors of society religion and education and especially the Islamic Religious Education as well as the religiousness of Muslim and non Muslim pupils the religious authorities of the Muslim communities in the countries of the European Union and their contribution to the formation of a European Islam In this context special attention is paid to the role Muslim religious authorities play in the discussions concerning political participation by Muslims in the West

Becoming 'Good Muslim' Bulbul Siddiqi, 2017-11-28 The book uses an ethnographic approach to explore why the Tablighi Jamaat movement remains so successful in contemporary times It shows that this success results from the positive image that it cultivates and the systematic preaching activities of Tablighi Jamaat followers and that the organisation's apolitical image the public profile of the ijtema the humbleness of Tablighi followers and the attraction of belonging to the global Tablighi community all help to create a positive image of the Tablighi Jamaat among ordinary Muslims The book also argues that the Tablighi Jamaat remains successful because of its ability to hold its followers within a Tablighi guided life which is perceived as protection against the Western lifestyle Many elements of contemporary Western lifestyle are considered non Islamic and so by clearly defining what is Islamic and non Islamic in modern society the Tablighi Jamaat provides a way in which Muslims can live in the contemporary world but remain good Muslims
