

Superpowers (6 of the 21)

Empathy (A)

You have amazing powers of perception. You sense needs and emotions, even when no one is saying anything, which makes you a great asset when the team is building a new relationship.

Experimentation (B)

You have a prototyping mindset. You rapidly generate ideas, identify the best, set them in motion, and refine as you go. You have high standards, but aren't afraid to fail, which helps your team take action.

Grit (C)

You are the quiet engine of the team—pushing yourself and the work until it is truly done. You pace yourself, overcoming setbacks and procrastination, and you motivate others to do the same.

Provocation (D)

You often strive for greatness when others might be content with good enough. You push the team outside its comfort zone. The team needs you most when the work lacks originality.

Systems Thinking (E)

You see the forest and the trees—even the underground root system. When the team is navigating a complicated situation, you help them think through the pros and cons of various options.

Vision (F)

You have a kind of crystal ball—you can see a future destination in vivid color. Even if some details about how to get there may be hazy, you keep the team's ambition high throughout the journey.

Making Of A Great Power:

The Great War and the Making of the Modern World Jeremy Black, 2011-03-17 This new work demonstrates how the outcome of the First World War has formed the modern world we live in today The First World War was the Great War for its leading participants In revisiting the events of 1914 1918 a century on Jeremy Black considers how we now look at the impact of the conflict across the globe and how it came to be World War I in our consciousness For millions both soldiers and civilians the conflict proved fatal The suffering and loss of the war provides much of its resonance and significance but this book seeks to throw light beyond this not least in asking how it ended in victory and defeat Casting aside the conventional narrative Jeremy Black returns to a vast range of original sources and investigates not only the key events of the war but its consequences in restructuring the old order As its significance has changed with time and not only with the loss of first hand testimony Black considers the struggle not only in its historical context but through its memorialisation today China's

Achilles' Heel Srikanth Thaliyakkattil, 2019-06-24 This book analyses Chinese discourse on Indian attitudes towards the Belt Road Initiative BRI and argues that the Indian discourse is becoming one of the biggest hurdles to China creating its own narrative about China's rise in Asia and beyond In doing so it spans across the themes of the power struggle between China and US China and India the Chinese perception of India China South Asia relations the China US India strategic triangle and the success and failures of BRI The first part of the book focuses on the Chinese thinking behind the launch of the BRI and addresses questions related to the purpose of this initiative and ways in which it will facilitate China's rise as a superpower Subsequently the book addresses how effective or ineffective India's challenge is and how it is negatively affecting China's BRI From New Babylon to Eden Bertrand Van Ruymbeke, 2025-10-02 A revealing account of the choices French immigrants faced as they settled in South Carolina Winner of the National Huguenot Society's 2007 Book of the Year award From New Babylon to Eden traces the persecution of Huguenots in France and the eventual immigration of a small bloc of the French Calvinist population to proprietary South Carolina Placing the Carolina migration in the context of the larger Huguenot diaspora Van Ruymbeke proffers an account that challenges accepted history Describing their settlement as a process of acculturation and creolization rather than simply assimilation he contends that most of these French Calvinists sought to create their own churches but were thwarted by an Anglicized elite eager to dominate Anglo Carolinian society He also reveals that most members of the initial generation were only moderately prosperous and that it was their descendants who acquired the wealth often associated with lowcountry Huguenots A new foreword by Owen Stanwood and preface from the author consider the continuing significance of the book nearly twenty years after its original publication Great

Powers and Geopolitics Aharon Klieman, 2015-04-02 This book presents the theoretical historical comparative political framework needed to fully grasp the truly dynamic nature of 21st century global affairs The author provides a realistic assessment of the shift from US predominance to a new mix of counterbalancing rival middle tier and assertive regional powers while highlighting those geopolitical zones of contention most critical for future international stability The book will appeal to scholars and policy makers interested in understanding the contours of the emerging world order and in identifying its principal shapers and leading political actors The Making of Japanese Manchuria, 1904-1932 Yoshihisa Tak

Matsusaka,2020-03-23 In this history of Japanese involvement in northeast China the author argues that Japan's military seizure of Manchuria in September 1931 was founded on three decades of infiltration of the area This incremental empire building and its effect on Japan are the focuses of this book The principal agency in the piecemeal growth of Japanese colonization was the South Manchurian Railway Company and by the mid 1920s Japan had a deeply entrenched presence in Manchuria and exercised a dominant economic and political influence over the area Japanese colonial expansion in Manchuria also loomed large in Japanese politics military policy economic development and foreign relations and deeply influenced many aspects of Japan's interwar history The Great Power Triangle Gerald Segal,1982-06-18 America's

Great-Power Opportunity Ali Wyne,2022-04-07 It has become axiomatic to contend that U S foreign policy must adapt to an era of renewed great power competition The United States went on a quarter century strategic detour after the Cold War the argument goes basking in triumphalism and getting bogged down in the Middle East Now China and Russia are increasingly challenging its influence and undercutting the order it has led since 1945 How should it respond to these two formidable authoritarian powers In this timely intervention Ali Wyne offers the first detailed critique of great power competition as a foreign policy framework warning that it could render the United States defensive and reactive He exhorts Washington to find a middle ground between complacency and consternation selectively contesting Beijing and Moscow but not allowing their decisions to determine its own course Analyzing a resurgent China a disruptive Russia and a deepening Sino Russian entente Wyne explains how the United States can seize the great power opportunity at hand to manage all three of those phenomena confidently while renewing itself at home and abroad Also available as an audiobook Asia-Pacific Secondary States as Kingmakers Richard J. Cook,Maximilian Ohle,Zhaoying Han,2025-05-30 Focusing on the Asia Pacific region Cook Ohle and Han investigate the escalating strategic competition between China and the US They explore the dynamics of key regional secondary states caught in the middle namely Japan South Korea the Philippines and Vietnam emphasising their crucial role as potential kingmakers in the shifting balance of power China and the US are competing to win influence over these regional linchpins to advance their geopolitical ambitions and ultimately win the strategic competition Elucidating a power of the weak paradox this contribution examines the challenging choices faced by these secondary states as they navigate alignment pressures which influence the trajectory of the great power strategic competition Drawing upon a range of first hand government sources and regional perspectives the authors take the temperature of the China US strategic competition revealing the intricate influencing dynamics and perilous choices linchpins are being pushed to make that will determine the fate of the Asia Pacific This is a timely resource for researchers students scholars and politicians navigating the complex realm of international relations by providing a profound exploration of power struggles strategic choices and the often overlooked role of secondary states      Making Global Society Barry Buzan,2023-08-10 Barry Buzan proposes a new approach to making International Relations a truly global discipline that transcends both Eurocentrism and comparative civilisations He narrates the story of humankind as a whole across three eras using its material conditions and social structures to show how global society has evolved Deploying the English School s idea of primary institutions and setting their story across three domains interpolity transnational and interhuman this book conveys a living historical sense of the human story whilst avoiding the overabstraction of many social science grand theories Buzan sharpens the familiar story of three main eras in human history with the novel idea that these eras are separated by turbulent periods of transition This device enables a radical retelling of how modernity emerged from the late 18th century He shows how the concept of global society can build bridges connecting International Relations Global Historical Sociology and Global World History      The Age of Oligarchy Geoffrey Holmes,D. Szechi,2014-07-16 The second volume on early and mid Georgian Britain shows how the country used its expanding wealth its new found social cohesion at home and its international influence abroad to become not only a European but an imperial power As with the first volume every aspect of the period is covered      Making War on the World Mark Shirk,2022-03-01 The state bounds politics it constructs and enforces boundaries that separate what it controls from what lies outside its domain However states face a variety of threats that cross and challenge their geographical and conceptual boundaries Transnational violent actors that transcend these boundaries also defy the state s claims to political authority and legitimacy Mark Shirk examines historical and contemporary state responses to transnational violence to develop a new account of the making of global orders He considers a series of crises that plagued the state system in different eras golden age piracy in the eighteenth century anarchist propagandists of the deed at the turn of the twentieth and al Qaeda in recent years Shirk argues that states redraw conceptual boundaries such as between international and domestic to make sense of and defeat transnational threats In response to forms of political violence that challenged boundaries states developed creative responses that included new forms of control surveillance and rights As a result these responses gradually made and transformed the state and global order Shirk draws on extensive archival research and interviews with policy makers and experts and he explores the implications for understandings of state formation Combining rich detail and theoretical insight Making War on the World reveals the role of pirates anarchists and terrorists in shaping global order      Immortalaeism Vault Impera,2020-02-28 Vault Impera investigates the fundamental philosophical aspects of power demonstrating fundamental aspects of the relationship of power itself and the relationship of power to human nature Examining what power is Vault proceeds to discuss what power is to people and in a convincing argument illustrates how to increase in power and also to determine if one is powerful In the second writing of Immortalaeism Vault illuminates the philosophy of empire Concerned with the element of rulership which was discussed in power. Vault provides a beginning for the philosophy of empire which he simply uses as an empirical demonstration of power indicating it is written to be an appendix demonstrating power in organisation. Lastly, Vault relates a spiritual book called Immortalae which was produced through a spiritual endeavour that lasted thirteen years from the time Vault was eighteen. Attempting many religions, experiences and philosophies, Vault communicates his spirituality which he has founded and established as his own religion which in eventuality includes all three written works into a paradigm that Vault labels Immortalaeism. Vault provides spiritual answers that surround the notion of the holy grail in the final book. All three writings are transmitted through his personal experience on the subjects and are a product of his life circumstances.

The Making of Modern Iran Dr Stephanie Cronin, 2012-11-12. This collection of essays by a distinguished group of specialists offers a new and exciting interpretation of Riza Shah's Iran. A period of key importance, the years between 1921-1941 have until now remained relatively neglected. Recently, however, there has been a marked revival of interest in the history of these two decades and this collection brings together some of the best of this recent new scholarship. Illustrating the diversity and complexity of interpretations to which contemporary scholarship has given rise, the collection looks at both the high politics of the new state and at history from below, examining some of the fierce controversies which have arisen surrounding such issues as the gender politics of the new regime, the nature of its nationalism and its treatment of minorities.

Realism and Idealism in Foreign Policy Decision Making Hayden J. Smith, 2020-12-02. Using a typology of worldviews based on perception of threat and expansionist or isolationist objectives, Hayden J. Smith examines influences on the foreign policy decision making of individual US Presidents including Richard Nixon, Jimmy Carter, George W. Bush, Barack Obama and Donald Trump.

The World America Made Robert Kagan, 2012. Argues that the world would be worse off if the United States were to withdraw from its position as the predominant power and that an American decline is not inevitable but that it will take resolve and effort to avoid the possibility.

Contemporary Security Studies Alan Collins, 2016. This book offers an introduction to Security Studies. It features an impressive breadth and depth of coverage of the different theoretical approaches to the study of security and the ever-evolving range of issues that dominate the security agenda in the 21st Century.

Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis, 1984.

Theory of Unipolar Politics Nuno P. Monteiro, 2014-04-21. Theory of Unipolar Politics studies the durability and peacefulness of the post-Cold War international system.

Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1924.

Making Weight Mike Zorick, 2012-10-24. This book is about the life of a blind athlete. The intent of this book is to educate the sighted world regarding situations as they relate not only to blind people but also to all society. In many cases, the blind must be overly aggressive and take the risk of being judged as pushy. Even then, they still get very few opportunities. As it stands, 70% of blind adults in this country are unemployed. Hopefully, this book will do something to change that situation.
