Making Of The Christian World:

The Making of the Christian World Robert Payne,1966 The Making of the Christian World J. Payne,Robert Payne,1990 The Making of a Christian Mind Arthur Frank Holmes,1985 The Christian World Martin Marty,2009-01-13 In this cogent volume historian Martin Marty gives readers of all faiths a brief yet sweeping account of Christianity and how it grew from a few believers two thousand years ago to become the world s largest religion He depicts the life of Christ and his teachings and explains how the apostles set out to spread the Gospel With a special emphasis on global Christianity Marty shows how the religion emerged from its ancestral homeland in Africa the Levant and Asia Minor was imported to Europe and then expanded from there to the rest of the world While giving a broad overview Marty also focuses on specific issues such as how Christianity attempts to reconcile with the teachings of Christ some of its stances on armed conflict justice and dominion The Christian World is a remarkable testament to how Christ s message has touched human experience everywhere Biblical Economic Policy: Ten Scriptural Truths for Fiscal and Monetary Decision-Making David Arnott PhD,Sergiy Saydometov PhD ,2021-09-06 What does the Bible say about economics A lot What about socialism which is becoming an increasingly common concern in US economic policy discussions In Biblical Economic Policy Arnott and Saydometov build a biblical framework for analyzing national economic policy that takes on everything from taxes to spending to tariffs to minimum wage The Bible has something to say about all these critical present day issues and this book explains how to apply it to 21st century policies Authors Dave Arnott and Sergiy Saydometov hold up the mirror of the Bible and ask their fellow Christians Is this the way we re supposed to run a biblical economy What the book is not It is NOT a financial advice book It is NOT about how to apply business principles at work It is NOT about stewardship or giving It is NOT about how to run your business for the glory of God Biblical Economic Policy takes the macroeconomic view and analyzes how well America s economic policies align with biblical principles This book tackles difficult present day economic policies including taxes spending national debt interest rates and money supply Written with sound biblical grounding in accessible language Biblical Economic Policy will turn the common reader into a biblical economic analyst Making the Best of It John G. Stackhouse Jr.,2008-04-02 What should be the Christian s attitude toward society When so much of our contemporary culture is at odds with Christian beliefs and mores it may seem that serious Christians now have only two choices transform society completely according to Christian values or retreat into the cloister of sectarian fellowship In Making the Best of It John Stackhouse explores the history of the Christian encounter with society the biblical record and various theological models of cultural engagement to offer a more balanced and fruitful alternative to these extremes He argues that rather than trying to root up the weeds in the cultural field or trying to shun them Christians should practice persistence in gardening God s world and building toward the New Jerusalem Examining the lives and works of C S Lewis Reinhold Niebuhr and Dietrich Bonhoeffer for example and direction Stackhouse suggests that our mission is to make the most of life in the world in cooperation with God's own mission of redeeming the world he loves. This model takes seriously the pattern of God's activity in the Bible and in subsequent history of working through earthly means through individuals, communities and institutions that are deeply flawed but nonetheless capable of accomplishing God's purposes. Christians must find a way to live in this world and at the same time do work that honors God and God's plan for us. In an era of increasing religious and cultural tensions both internationally and domestically, the model that Stackhouse develops discourages the all or nothing attitudes that afflict so much of contemporary Christianity. Instead, he offers a fresh and refreshingly nuanced take on the question of what it means to be a Christian in the world today. World Religions

Through a Christian Worldview Pat Zukeran, 2008-08. Do Jews, Muslims and Christians worship the same God? Should Christians participate in Yoga or the martial arts? Christians today are constantly interacting with individuals, concepts and practices from the world's religions. To be an effective witness and avoid embracing false ideas, it is essential for Christians to understand and evaluate the various religions from a biblical perspective. This book is designed to equip Christians for that task. Section one gives an overview of the major religions followed by a biblical critique. Section two presents an overview and biblical critique of popular religious ideas and practices such as alternative medicine, martial arts and yoga. Section three addresses the challenges of religious pluralism and presents the author's defense for the unique and exclusive truth of Christianity. This is a needed resource for all who want to be an effective witness for Christ in a pluralistic world. This is a handy, helpful handbook for witnessing to unbelievers from various and sundry religious perspectives. Dr. Norman Geisler, Christian scholar, apologist, author and founder of Southern Evangelical Seminary, World Religions Through a Christian Worldview offers another excellent resource for learning about the beliefs of various religious groups and how they compare with the Bible. It will be helpful for Christians who want to understand and witness to members of these groups. Non-Christian readers will learn why Christianity is different from other religious claims. John Ankerberg, Author and Host of The John Ankerberg Show. Patrick Zukeran earned a Master of Theology from Dallas Theological Seminary, a Doctorate of Ministry from Southern Evangelical Seminary and serves on staff with Probe Ministries. He is a researcher, author, radio talk show host and a national and international speaker on apologetics. For more information, visit www.probe.org and www.evidenceandanswers.org.

The Making of Manhood Among Swedish Missionaries in China and Mongolia, C. 1890-c. 1914 Erik Sidenvall, 2009. Over the last thirty years, issues of gender have been creatively explored within the field of mission studies. Whereas the life and work of female missionaries have been fruitfully reflected upon, male gender identity has often been understood as an unchanging category. This book offers a pioneering account of the relationship between missionary work and masculinity. By examining four individual men, this study explores how self-making occurred within foreign missions but also how conceptions of male gender informed missionary work. Changes that occurred in the lives of these men are placed within the broader context of how issues of gender were renegotiated within the contemporary missionary movement.

Deane E. D. Downey, Stanley E. Porter, 2009-04-15 This book an edited compilation of twenty nine essays focuses on the difference s that a Christian worldview makes for the disciplines or subject areas normally taught in liberal arts colleges and universities Three initial chapters of introductory material are followed by twenty six essays each dealing with the essential elements or issues in the academic discipline involved These individual essays on each discipline are a unique element of this book These essays also treat some of the specific differences in perspective or procedure that a biblically informed Christian perspective brings to each discipline Christian Worldview and the Academic Disciplines is intended principally as an introductory textbook in Christian worldview courses for Christian college or university students This volume will also be of interest to Christian students in secular post secondary institutions who may be encountering challenges to their faith both implicit and explicit from peers or professors who assume that holding a strong Christian faith and pursuing a rigorous college or university education are essentially incompatible This book should also be helpful for college and university professors who embrace the Christian faith but whose post secondary academic background because of its secular orientation has left them inadequately prepared to intelligently apply the implications of their faith to their particular academic specialty Such specialists be they professors or upper level graduate students will find the extensive bibliographies of recent scholarship at the end of the individual chapters particularly helpful The Living Church , 1945
