Making Of The Pre By Francis Ponge:

The Making of the Pre by Francis Ponge, 1982-10-01 La Fabrique Du Pré Francis Ponge, 1979 The making of the Pr is the culmination of Francis Ponge's loving struggle with language To say that this work is just a text with illustrations or simply a notebook of preliminary sketches leading to a final poem or to call it merely a self-demonstrating development of a thought process a hymn of praise or an essay on the way that language represents objects and emotions would be insufficient Introduction Francis Ponge and the Nature of Things Patrick Alan Meadows, 1997 One of the most significant French poets of the twentieth century Francis Ponge is treated in this study The fundamental role of atomistic philosophy in Ponge's writings especially as expressed in Lucretius's De Rerum Natura is discussed Meadows is the first author to examine Ponge's writings in a book-length study The Yale Anthology of Twentieth-century French Poetry Mary Ann Caws, 2004-01-01 An influential social thinker the late Richard Harvey Brown was professor of sociology at the University of Maryland and the author of Toward a Democratic Science Scientific Narration and Civic Communication published by Yale University Press Philosophy and Poetry Ranjan Ghosh, 2019-06-04 Ever since Plato's Socrates exiled the poets from the ideal city in The Republic Western thought has insisted on a strict demarcation between philosophy and poetry Yet might their long-standing quarrel hide deeper affinities This book explores the distinctive ways in which twentieth-century and contemporary continental thinkers have engaged with poetry and its contribution to philosophical meaning making challenging us to rethink how philosophy has been changed through its encounters with poetry In wide-ranging reflections on thinkers such as Heidegger Gadamer Arendt Lacan Merleau-Ponty Deleuze Irigaray Badiou Kristeva and Agamben among others distinguished contributors consider how different philosophers encountered the force and intensity of poetry and the negotiations that took place as they sought resolutions of the quarrel Instead of a clash between competing worldviews they figured the relationship between philosophy and poetry as one of productive mutuality leading toward new modes of thinking and understanding Spanning a range of issues with nuance and rigor this compelling and comprehensive book opens new possibilities for philosophical poetry and the poetics of philosophy The Making of an Avant-Garde Niilo Kauppi, 2013-08-26 No detailed description available for The Making of an Avant Garde Merleau-Ponty's Poetic of the World Galen A. Johnson, Mauro Carbone, Emmanuel de Saint Aubert, 2020-08-04 Merleau-Ponty has long been known as one of the most important philosophers of aesthetics yet most discussions of his aesthetics focus on visual art This book corrects that balance by turning to Merleau-Ponty's extensive engagement with literature From Proust Merleau-Ponty developed his conception of sensible ideas from Claudel his conjoining of birth and knowledge as co-naissance from Valéry came implex or the animal of words and the chiasma of two destinies Literature also provokes the questions of expression metaphor and truth and the meaning of a Merleau-Pontian poetics The poetic of Merleau-Ponty is the book argues a poetic of the flesh a poetic of mystery and a poetic of the visible in its relation to the invisible Ultimately theoretical figures or figuratives that appear at the threshold between philosophy and literature enable the possibility of a new ontology What is at stake is the very meaning of philosophy itself and its mode of expression After Derrida Jean-Michel Rabaté, 2018-05-31 This collection of essays explores the main concepts and methods of reading launched by French philosopher Jacques Derrida who died in 2004 Derrida exerted a huge influence on literary critics in the 1980s but later there was a backlash against his theories Today one witnesses a general return to his way of reading literature the rationale of which is detailed and explained in the essays The authors both well known and younger specialists give many precise examples of how Derrida who always remained at the cusp between literature and philosophy posed fundamental questions and thus changed the field of literary criticism especially with regard to poetry The contributors also highlight the way Derrida made spectacular interventions in feminism psychoanalytic studies animal studies digital humanities and post colonial studies Creative Practice Inquiry in Architecture Ashley Mason, Adam Sharr, 2022-10-03 This collection introduces illustrates and advances fresh ideas about creative practice inquiry in architecture It concerns architectural knowledge how architects can use their distinctive skills habits and values to advance professional insight and how such insights can be extended to make wider contributions to society culture and scholarship It shows how architectural ways of knowing and working can be mobilised as tools for research Collected here are a series of creative practices that emerge out of architecture and actively engage with other fields and methods reaching across the academic landscape Architectural inquiries collected in this book probe matters that lie beyond the obvious expectations the conventions the default of the discipline Drawing borrowing adapting dramatising perhaps monsterring experimenting cartooning the tools and methods of each inquiry vary but they all share a common outward gaze engaging architectural ways of knowing with other disciplines and practices including the arts biological sciences ethnography and technology Chapters gathered here offer insight not only into incipient modes and tools of architectural research but emerging ethical practical and philosophical positions intimately tied to the creative practices involved Setting out the idea of creative practice inquiry in architecture this innovative volume offers a lively and resourceful contribution to a growing body of work on design as research It will be of interest to students keen to pursue architectural ways of thinking and writing practitioners who want to use their distinctive professional abilities to contribute to architectural and scholarly knowledge and academics and doctoral candidates keen to engage with the burgeoning scholarly field of design research Choice in Everyday Life Robert Urquhart, 2004-11-27 Social choice and decision making are key topics in economic theory and Robert Urquhart delves into the world of philosophy in this superb new book Circling the Canon, Volume I Marjorie Perloff, 2019-11-15 One of our most important contemporary critics Marjorie Perloff has been a widely published and influential reviewer especially of poetry and poetics for over fifty years Circling the Canon Volume I covers roughly the first half of Perloff's career beginning with her first ever review on Anthony Hecht's The Hard Hours The reviews in this volume culled from a wide range of scholarly journals literary reviews and national magazines trace the evolution of poetry in the mid to late twentieth century as well as the evolution of Perloff as a critic. Many of the authors whose works are reviewed in this volume are major figures such as W B Yeats, Ezra Pound, Sylvia Plath, and Frank O'Hara. Others including Mona Van Duyn and Richard Hugo were widely praised in their day but are now all but forgotten. Still others, David Antin, Edward Dorn, and the Language poets, exemplify an avant-garde that was to come into its own. Landscape Architecture, 1984. Acts of Literature Jacques Derrida, 2017-09-25. First published in 1992, Acts of Literature compiled in close association with Derrida brings together for the first time a number of Derrida's writings on literary texts on the question of literature. The essays discuss literary figures such as Rousseau, Mallarmé, Joyce, Shakespeare, and Kafka. Comprising pieces spanning Derrida's career, the collection includes a substantial new interview with him on questions of literature, deconstruction, politics, feminism, and history. Derek Attridge provides an introductory essay on deconstruction and the question of literature and offers suggestions for further reading. These essays examine the place and function of literature in Western culture. They highlight Derrida's interest in literature as a significant cultural institution and as a peculiarly challenging form of writing with inescapable consequences for our thinking about philosophy, politics, and ethics. This book should be of interest to undergraduates and academics in the field of literary theory and criticism and continental philosophy.

European Literature from Romanticism to Postmodernism Martin Travers, 2006-08-15. An anthology of key theoretical writings by the major representatives of the schools and movements of European literature. Each chapter in this book is devoted to one particular school of movement from within a body of literature from romanticism, realism, and modernism through to the literature of political engagement of the 1920s and 1930s. Radium of the Word Craig Dworkin, 2020-12-09. With fresh insight and contemporary relevance, Radium of the Word argues that a study of the form of language yields meanings otherwise inaccessible through ordinary reading strategies. Attending to the forms of words rather than to their denotations, Craig Dworkin traces hidden networks across the surface of texts, examining how typography and even individual letters and marks of punctuation can reveal patterns that are significant without being symbolic, fully meaningful without communicating any preordained message. Radium of the Word takes its title from Mina Loy's poem for Gertrude Stein which hails her as the Madame Curie of the laboratory of vocabulary. In this spirit, Dworkin considers prose as a dynamic literary form characterized by experimentation. Dworkin draws on examples from writers as diverse as Lyn Hejinian, William Faulkner, and Joseph Roth. He takes up the status of the proper name in Modernism with examples from Stein, Loy, and Guillaume Apollinaire and he offers in-depth analyses of individual authors from the counter-canon of the avant-garde including P. Inman, Russell Atkins, N. H. Pritchard, and Andy Warhol. The result is an inspiring intervention in contemporary poetics. The Echoing Green Cecily Parks, 2016-03-15. The Echoing Green: Poems of Fields, Meadows, and Grasses is a unique anthology of poetry about the natural world. The rich poetic history of grass spans the centuries from the pastoral poems of ancient Rome to the fields and prairies of the New World. The rapturous idealizations of William Blake's echoing green and William Wordsworth's splendour in the grass stand in vivid contrast to the obliterating greenery on human battlefields in war poems such as John McCrae's In Flanders Fields and Carl Sandburg's Grass or to the work of contemporary poets Lucia Perillo Harryette Mullen Denise Levertov and Gary Soto among them who reflect on an age of environmental crisis Here is a rich array of poets from around the world including Virgil T'ao Ch'ien Bash Andrew Marvell Robert Burns Victor Hugo Christina Rossetti Rainer Maria Rilke Anna Akhmatova Willa Cather Ingeborg Bachmann Ted Hughes Seamus Heaney Tomas Transtr mer Sherman Alexie and Derek Walcott in a dazzling celebration of our complicated relationship to nature
