William C. Kashatus, 1995 The Making of New World Slavery Robin Blackburn, 2010-08-02 The Making of New World Slavery argues that independent commerce geared to burgeoning consumer markets was the driving force behind the rise of plantation slavery The baroque state sought successfully to feed upon this commerce and with markedly less success to regulate slavery and racial relations To illustrate this thesis Blackburn examines the deployment of slaves in the colonial possessions of the Portuguese the Spanish the Dutch the English and the French Plantation slavery is shown to have emerged from the impulses of civil society not from the strategies of individual states Robin Blackburn argues that the organization of slave plantations placed the West on a destructive path to modernity and that greatly preferable alternatives were both proposed and rejected Finally he shows that the surge of Atlantic trade predicated on the murderous toil of the plantations made a decisive contribution to both the Industrial Revolution and the rise of the West Making Thirteen Colonies Joy Hakim, 2003 Presents the history of America from the earliest times of the Native Americans to the Clinton administration

The Making of a Radical Scott Nearing, 2000-09-01 Scott Nearing lived one hundred years from 1883 to 1983 a life spanning most of the twentieth century In his early years Nearing made his name as a formidable opponent of child labor and military imperialism Having been fired from university jobs for his independence of mind Nearing became a freelance lecturer and writer traveling widely through Depression era and post war America to speak with eager audiences Five time Socialist candidate for president Eugene V Debs said Scott Nearing He is the greatest teacher in the United States Concluding that it would be better to be poor in the country than in New York City Scott and Helen Nearing moved north to Vermont in 1932 and commenced the experiment in self reliant living that would extend their fame far and wide They began to grow most of their own food and devised their famous scheme for allocating the day s hours one third for bread work livelihood one third for head work intellectual endeavors and one third for service to the world community Scott who d grown up partly on his grandfather's Pennsylvania farm taught Helen who was raised in suburbia groomed for a career as a classical violinist the practical skills they would need working with tools cultivating a garden and managing a woodlot and building stone and masonry walls For the rest of their lives the Nearings chronicled in detail their good life first in Vermont and ultimately on the coast of Maine in a group of wonderful books many of which are now being returned to print by Chelsea Green in cooperation with the Good Life Center an educational trust established at the Nearings Forest Farm in Harborside Maine to promote their ongoing legacy With a new foreword by activist historian Staughton Lynd The Making of a Radical is freshly republished Scott Nearing's own story told as only he could tell it The Making of Our United States Ray Osgood Hughes, 1927 The Americas and the New World Order Joshua Hyles, 2019-09-20 This collection of essays includes papers presented at the 22nd annual Eugene Scassa Mock OAS Conference an intercollegiate competition and prestigious academic conference focused on inter American political systems and the politics history and culture of the Americas The volume includes sections on cultural perceptions and soft power in the Americas migration and immigration crime and terrorism commodities and economic partnerships in the Americas and beyond and relations and impacts between Asia and the Americas Running the historical gamut from the Colonial Era into the present day and written by recognized authorities in their fields and promising new scholars alike the collection presents a wide assortment of viewpoints and research backgrounds to portray the Americas and its historic present and future place in the ever changing world order consideration to those who made new lives in Ireland even as they made Ireland new The Lively Experiment Chris Beneke, Christopher S. Grenda, 2015-03-19 Three hundred and fifty years ago Roger Williams launched one of the world's first great experiments in religious toleration. Insisting that religion be separated from civil power, he founded Rhode Island, a colony that welcomed people of many faiths. Though stark forms of intolerance persisted, Williams' commitments to faith and liberty of conscience came to define the nation and its conception of itself. Through crisp essays that show how Americans demolished old prejudices while inventing new ones, The Lively Experiment offers a comprehensive account of America's boisterous history of interreligious relations. Female Friends and the Making of Transatlantic Quakerism, 1650-1750 Naomi Pullin, 2018-05-24 Quaker women were unusually active participants in seventeenth and eighteenth century cultural and religious exchange as ministers, missionaries, authors, and spiritual leaders. Drawing upon documentary evidence with a focus on women's personal writings and correspondence, Naomi Pullin explores the lives and social interactions of Quaker women in the British Atlantic between 1650 and 1750. Through a comparative methodology focused on Britain and the North American colonies, Pullin examines the experiences of both those women who travelled and preached and those who stayed at home. The book approaches the study of gender and religion from a new perspective by placing women's roles, relationships, and identities at the centre of the analysis. It shows how the movement's transition from sect to church enhanced the authority and influence of women within the movement and uncovers the multifaceted ways in which female Friends at all levels were active participants in making and sustaining transatlantic Quakerism. Widener Library Shelflist: American history Harvard University. Library, 1967 Betsy Ross and the Making of America Marla R. Miller, 2010-04-22 A first rate biography of the seamstress and patriot and a vivid portrait of life in Revolutionary era Philadelphia. Authoritative and engrossing. Publishers Weekly starred review. Finalist Cundill Prize in History. Betsy Ross and the Making of America is the first comprehensively researched and elegantly written biography of one of America's most captivating figures of the Revolutionary War. Drawing on new sources and bringing a fresh, keen eye to the fabled creation of the first flag, Marla R. Miller thoroughly reconstructs the life behind the legend. This authoritative work provides a close look at the famous seamstress while shedding new light on the lives of the artisan families who peopled the young nation and crafted its tools, ships, and homes. Betsy Ross occupies a sacred place in the American consciousness, and Miller's winning narrative finally does her justice. This history of the ordinary craftspeople of the Revolutionary War and their most famous representative reinvigorates a timeworn American icon by placing her firmly into historical and social context and illuminates the significant role that ordinary citizens, especially women, played in the birth of the new nation. Booklist. An engaging biography. The New York Times Book Review. Fascinating. Cokie Roberts. New York Times bestselling author of Founding Mothers. A stupendous literary achievement. It's not easy to accurately write about a real folk legend. Miller does so with historical accuracy, vivid descriptive language, and an encyclopedic knowledge of her subject. Douglas Brinkley. New York

Times bestselling author of The Wilderness Warrior A Defence of the Christian Doctrines of the Society of Friends ,1825
