Making A Nation volume 1 Custom:

State and Nation Making in Latin America and Spain: Volume 1 Miguel A. Centeno, Agustin E. Ferraro, 2013-03-29 This book examines how Latin American countries and Spain tried to build modern and efficient state institutions for more than a century without much success The chapters tell how these countries went about constructing systems of authority that could manage their territories support economic development provide basic services and promote a sense of national community The book can serve as an introduction to nineteenth century Latin America and Spain as a historical guide to the process of state building and as a tool for experts looking for the latest work by leading scholars in the field

Creating a Nation with Cloth Ping-Ann Addo, 2013-06-01 Tongan women living outside of their island homeland create and use hand made sometimes hybridized textiles to maintain and rework their cultural traditions in diaspora Central to these traditions is an ancient concept of homeland or nation fonua which Tongans retain as an anchor for modern nation building Utilizing the concept of the multi territorial nation the author questions the notion that living in diaspora is mutually exclusive with authentic cultural production and identity The globalized nation the women build through gifting their barkcloth and fine mats challenges the normative idea that nations are always geographically bounded or spatially contiguous The work suggests that contrary to prevalent understandings of globalization global resource flows do not always primarily involve commodities Focusing on first generation Tongans in New Zealand and the relationships they forge across generations and throughout the diaspora the book examines how these communities centralize the diaspora by innovating and adapting traditional cultural forms in unprecedented ways

Traditions of the North American Indians (Vol. 1-3) James Athearn Jones, 2023-12-13 In Traditions of the North American Indians Vol 1 3 James Athearn Jones meticulously documents the rich tapestry of the oral traditions legends and cultural practices of Indigenous peoples across North America Written in a narrative style that merges anthropological rigor with literary artistry the text serves as both a scholarly resource and a vibrant retelling of stories that have shaped Native American identity Jones's work emerges within the larger context of 19th century American literature characterized by an emerging appreciation for folk traditions and an increasing awareness of the cultural complexities surrounding Native American societies during a time of significant social upheaval Jones an American author and historian was deeply influenced by the burgeoning interest in Indigenous cultures during a period marked by colonial encounters and dispossession His dedication to preserving these narratives underscores a broader mission to honor and amplify Indigenous voices often marginalized in contemporary discourse Jones's experiences and academic pursuits in anthropology fueled his passion compelling him to bridge the gap between Indigenous oral traditions and Western literary forms Readers interested in cultural heritage and the intersection of storytelling and history will find unparalleled value in Jones's trilogy Traditions of the North American Indians provides not only an engaging insight into the lives and beliefs of Indigenous peoples but also stands as a testament to the resilience of their traditions amid external challenges This work is essential for anyone seeking to understand the complexities of North America's cultural landscape

Building a Godly Home, Vol. 2 William Gouge, 2013-10-22 For years William Gouge's Domestical Duties has stood as the foremost Puritan treatment of Christian family life Yet due to its size and antiquated expression it has become almost unknown among current generations of believers To help revive the usefulness of this classic book Scott Brown and Joel R Beeke divided Gouge's work into three manageable volumes updated the language to modern standards and have given it the title Building a Godly Home In the second volume A Holy Vision for a Happy Marriage we find detailed counsel about the most important relationship in the family husband and wife Gouge carefully addresses what a fit marriage is and the proper way to enter into one He then discusses the mutual duties married couples share in order for marriage to survive and thrive as well as the duties specific to men and women respectively Not only does he give detailed treatment of how these responsibilities are best expressed and too often hindered but he also provides ample biblical motivation to set us on the right course Christian husbands and wives will find much encouragement in this book

Building Free Life International Initiative, 2020-02-15 From Socrates to Antonio Gramsci imprisoned philosophers have marked the history of thought and changed how we view power and politics From his solitary jail cell Abdullah calan has penned daringly innovative works that give profuse evidence of his position as one of the most significant thinkers of our day His prison writings have mobilized tens of thousands of people and inspired a revolution in the making in Rojava northern Syria while also penetrating the insular walls of academia and triggering debate and reflection among countless scholars So how do you engage in a meaningful dialogue with Abdullah calan when he has been held in total isolation since April 2015 You compile a book of essays written by a globally diverse cast of the most imaginative luminaries of our time send it to calan's jailers and hope that they deliver it to him Featured in this extraordinary volume are over a dozen writers activists dreamers and scholars whose ideas have been investigated in calan's own writings Now these same people have the unique opportunity to enter into a dialogue with his ideas Building Free Life is a rich and wholly original exploration of the most critical issues facing humanity today In the broad sweep of this one of a kind dialogue the contributors explore topics ranging from democratic confederalism to women s revolution from the philosophy of history to the crisis of the capitalist system from religion to Marxism and anarchism all in an effort to better understand the liberatory social forms that are boldly confronting capitalism and the state There can be no boundaries or restrictions for the development of thought Thus in the midst of different realities from closed prisons to open air prisons the human mind will find a way to seek the truth Building Free Life stands as a monument of radical thought a testament of resilience and a searchlight illuminating the impulse for freedom Contributors include Shannon Brincat Radha D Souza Mechthild Exo Damian Gerber Barry K Gills Muriel Gonz lez Athenas David Graeber Andrej Gruba i John Holloway Patrick Huff Donald H Matthews Thomas Jeffrey Miley Antonio Negri Norman Paech Ekkehard Sauermann Fabian Scheidler Nazan st nda Immanuel Wallerstein Peter Lamborn Wilson and Ra l Zibechi

The Power of Labelling Rosalind Eyben, Joy Moncrieffe, 2013-09-05 The Power of Labelling illuminates a fundamental and intriguing dimension of social and political life Striking cases from a range of policy contexts generate eyeopening analyses of labellings causes and consequences uses and abuses and of alternatives in thinking and relating DES GASPER INSTITUTE OF SOCIAL STUDIES THE HAGUE The authors convincingly and often vividly explain how the unavoidable framings and labellings of the objects of policy secrete relations of power which can obscure as much as they reveal and often lead in policy itself to perverse outcomes Their detail is riveting their analyses persuasive what they suggest realistic and deeply sensible This immensely readable collection is indispensable for anyone who wants to think about how they think about development and should be forced on all who dont GEOFFREY HAWTHORN PROFESSOR OF INTERNATIONAL POLITICS UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE This is an essential book not only for those interested in understanding the development industry but also for development practitioners It discusses key questions concerning the ways in which knowledge is generated by development agencies and reaffirms the importance of understanding who categorizes people why and how R L STIRRAT PROFESSOR OF SOCIAL ANTHROPOLOGY UNIVERSITY OF SUSSEX Very important Martin Kalungu Banda Oxfam GB What does it mean to be part of the mass known as The Poor What visions are conjured up in our minds when someone is labelled Muslim What assumptions do we make about their needs values and politics How do we react individually and as a society Who develops the labels what power do they carry and how do such labels affect how people are treated This timely book tackles the critical and controversial issue of how people are labelled and categorized and how their problems are framed and dealt with Drawing on vast international experience and current theory the authors examine how labels are constituted and applied by a variety of actors including development policy makers practitioners and researchers The book exposes the intense and complex politics involved in processes of labelling and highlights how the outcomes of labelling can undermine stated development goals Importantly one of the books principal objectives is to suggest how policy makers and professionals can tackle negative forms of labelling and encourage processes of counter labelling to enhance poverty reduction and human rights and to tackle issues of race relations and global security The Afterword encapsulates these ideas and provides a good basis for reflection further debate and action
