Making An Exhibition Of Myself:

An Ethnographic Inventory Tomás Sánchez Criado, Adolfo Estalella, 2023-05-09 This book provides an inventory of modes of inquiry for ethnographic research and presents fieldwork as an act of relational invention. It advances contemporary debates in ethnography by arguing that the empirical practice of anthropology is and has always been an inventive activity. Bringing together contributions from scholars across the world, the volume offers an expansive vision of the resourcefulness that anthropologists unfold in their empirical investigations by compiling inventive social and material techniques or field devices for anthropological inquiry. The chapters seek to inspire both novel and experienced practitioners of ethnography to venture into the many possibilities of fieldwork to demonstrate the essential creative and inventive practices neglected in traditional accounts of ethnography and to invite anthropologists to confidently engage in inventive fieldwork practices.

She lay on the operating table enduring the pain of losing a child with her red eyes. Looking at the distant cold man, her heart gradually became cold and resolute. Lu Yanzhi: if there's still a next life, I just hope that I don't run into you. Her life was short. She met him, fell in love with him, and married him. His life, however, was very long. Without her, the years would be very long. Prioritizing People in Ethical Decision-Making and Caring for Cultural Heritage Collections Nina Owczarek, 2023-06-27 While historically focusing on the object, the study of ethics in conservation has expanded to consider the human aspect of conservation work. This book offers a flexible framework to guide decision making in line with this development, offering an inclusive, compassionate approach to collections care. This edited volume contributes theories and international examples for advancing conservation practice and providing best practice for the field that centers people in conservation of cultural heritage and collections care. The first part examines the ethical theory that underpins conservation decision making by challenging outdated norms, introducing updated methods, and demonstrating new ways to approach compassionate collections care. The second part considers the challenges of human-centered ethics in conservation practice, while the final part provides real-world examples and case studies of these best practices in action, including successful challenges to colonial authority. By presenting both theoretical and practical aspects of prioritizing people, this volume establishes the need for rethinking conservation approaches while demonstrating how to do so effectively. Combining theory and practice, Prioritizing People in Ethical Decision-Making and Caring for Cultural Heritage Collections is valuable reading for conservation professionals, including collections managers, conservators, curators, and registrars. It will also benefit students working in Cultural Heritage Conservation, Museum studies, and Heritage Studies, as well as those taking courses in Art History and Anthropology. Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1872 Liquor Store Theatre Maya Stovall, 2020-10-09 For six years Maya Stovall staged Liquor Store Theatre a conceptual art and anthropology video project included in the Whitney Biennial in 2017 in which she danced near the liquor stores in her Detroit neighborhood as a way to start conversations with her neighbors In this book of the same name Stovall uses the project as a point of departure for understanding everyday life in Detroit and the possibilities for ethnographic research art and knowledge creation Her conversations with her neighbors which touch on everything from economics aesthetics and sex to the political and economic racism that undergirds Detroit's history bring to light rarely acknowledged experiences of longtime Detroiters In these exchanges Stovall enacts an innovative form of ethnographic engagement that offers new modes of integrating the social sciences with the arts in ways that exceed what either approach can achieve alone and in a society in which the haves have more and more and the have nots are ever more marginalized he warns that contemporary architecture continues to stack up huge potential problems for the future as housing costs spiral out of control resources are squandered on architectural bling and society fractures This courageous passionate deeply researched and profoundly argued book should be read by everyone concerned with what is around us Its combative critique of the entire Modernist architectural project and its apologists will be highly controversial to many But it contains salutary warnings that we ignore at our peril And it asks awkward questions to which answers are long overdue Harald Szeemann Glenn Phillips, Philipp Kaiser, Doris Chon, Pietro Rigolo, 2018-04-10 Widely regarded as the most influential curator of the second half of the twentieth century Harald Szeemann 1933 2005 is associated with some of the most important artistic developments of the postwar era A passionate advocate for avant garde movements like Conceptualism and Postminimalism he collaborated with artists such as Joseph Beuys Bruce Nauman Richard Serra and Cy Twombly developing new ways of presenting art that reflected his sweeping vision of contemporary culture Szeemann once stated that his goal as an exhibition maker was to create a Museum of Obsessions This richly illustrated volume is a virtual collection catalogue for that imaginary institution tracing the evolution of his curatorial method through letters drawings personal datebooks installation plans artists books posters photographs and handwritten notes This book documents all phases of Szeemann's career from his early stint as director of the Kunsthalle Bern where he organized the seminal Live in Your Head When Attitudes Become Form 1969 to documenta 5 1972 and the intensely personal exhibition he staged in his own apartment using the belongings of his hairdresser grandfather 1974 to his reinvention as a freelance curator who realized projects on wide ranging themes until his death in 2005 The book contains essays exploring Szeemann's curatorial approach as well as interviews with collaborators Its more than 350 illustrations include previously unpublished installation photographs and documents as well as archival materials This volume is published to accompany an exhibition on view at the Getty Research Institute at the Getty Center February 6 to May 6 2018 a satellite show will be at the Institute of Contemporary Art in Los Angeles February 4 to April 22 2018 at the Kunsthalle Bern in Bern Switzerland June to September 2018 at the Kunsthalle Düsseldorf in Düsseldorf Germany October 2018 to January 2019 and at the Castello di Rivoli Museo d'Arte Contemporanea Rivoli in Turin Italy February to May 2019 The Handbook of Textile Culture Janis Jefferies, Diana Wood Conroy, Hazel Clark, 2015-11-05 In recent years the study of textiles and culture has become a dynamic field of scholarship reflecting new global material and technological possibilities This is the first handbook of specially commissioned essays to provide a guide to the major strands of critical work around textiles past and present and to draw upon the work of artists and designers as well as researchers in textiles studies The handbook offers an authoritative and wide ranging guide to the topics issues and questions that are central to the study of textiles today it examines how material practices reflect cross cultural influences it explores textiles relationships to history memory place and social and technological change and considers their influence on fashion and design sustainable
