Chapman, M. Glancy, S. Harper, 2007-04-25 The first major overview of the field of film history in twenty years this book offers a wide ranging account of the methods sources and approaches used by modern film historians The key areas of research are analysed alongside detailed case studies centred on well known American Australian British and European films The South Korean Film Industry Sangjoon Lee, Dal Yong Jin, Junhyung Cho, 2024 A multifaceted exploration of the South Korean film industry American Film in the Digital Age Robert C. Sickels, 2010-12-08 This eclectic yet comprehensive analytical overview of the cataclysmic changes in the American film industry since 1990 shows how they have collectively resulted in a new era The Digital Age The American film industry has entered a new era American Film in the Digital Age traces the industrial changes since 1990 that have brought us to this point namely the rise of media conglomerates the proliferation of pornography through peripheral avenues of mainstream media the role of star actors and directors in distributing and publicizing their own pet projects the development of digital technology and the death of truly independent films Author Robert Sickels draws straight lines from the movies to music DVDs video games fast food digital on demand and more to demonstrate how all forms of media are merging into one He explores the irony that the success of independent films essentially killed independent cinema showing how it has become almost impossible to get a film released without the imprimatur of one of the big six media companies Fox Viacom TimeWarner Disney General Electric or CBS In the end using recent popular films as examples he explains not only how we got where we are but where we re likely headed as well

Making Films in Contemporary Hollywood Alan Lovell, Gianluca Sergi, 2005-02-25 Traditionally film critics have concentrated on the director seeing feature filmmaking as a form of individual expression The authors challenge this view arguing that filmmaking is a form of collective expression They examine the idea that many individuals including editors cinematographers and sound designers contribute to the making of a film and argue that it is misleading to classify them as technicians The authors consider is how money and power determines the structure within which all those involved with filmmaking work And in challenging the accepted view of the dynamics of filmmaking the book raises questions about the nature of the feature film Is it essentially a visual form What place does it have How important is the script Making Films in Contemporary Hollywood contains analysis interviews and case studies of Chinatown Jurassic Park and When Harry Met Sally bringing a fresh perspective to the study of filmmaking that will be both informative and provocative for Media and Film Studies students at all levels Contemporary Japanese Film Mark Schilling, 1999-11-01 This comprehensive look at Japanese cinema in the 1990s includes nearly four hundred reviews of individual films and a dozen interviews and profiles of leading directors and producers Interpretive essays provide an overview of some of the key issues and themes of the decade and provide background and context for the treatment of individual films and artists In Mark Schilling's view Japanese film is presently in a period of creative ferment with a lively independent sector challenging the conventions of the industry mainstream Younger filmmakers are rejecting the stale formulas that have long characterized major studio releases reaching out to new influences from other media television comics music videos and even computer games and from both the West and other Asian cultures In the process they are creating fresh and exciting films that range from the meditative to the manic offering hope that Japanese film will not only survive but thrive as it enters the new millennium

The Evolution of Hollywood's Calculated Blockbuster Films Alexander Ross, 2023-04-24 In this book Alexander Ross highlights how creative entrepreneurs saved the Hollywood studios in the 1970s by establishing the calculated blockbuster consisting of key replicable markers of success as Hollywood's preeminent business model Ross demonstrates how visionary individuals such as Coppola Spielberg Lucas and Zemeckis helped create the modern calculated blockbuster business model BBM However with the rise of streaming giants and the studios struggling to compete many consumers of entertainment now elect to partake from the comfort of their homes making the difference between cinema and television anachronistic Revisiting the history of those 1970s blockbusters and their ongoing impact on contemporary filmmaking Ross offers distinct analysis on whether the calculated blockbuster can continue to lead or if the streamers will continue to generate their own content and eventually fully control the dissemination process For scholars and students in film pop culture and business along with aspiring filmmakers screenwriters producers and executives the book will be a valued resource

The Cinema of Steven Soderbergh Andrew deWaard, R. Colin Tait, 2013-05-07 The industry's only director cinematographer screenwriter producer actor editor Steven Soderbergh is contemporary Hollywood's most innovative and prolific filmmaker A Palme d'Or and Academy Award winner Soderbergh has directed nearly thirty films including political provocations digital experiments esoteric documentaries global blockbusters and a series of atypical genre films This volume considers its slippery subject from several perspectives analyzing Soderbergh as an expressive auteur of art cinema and genre fare as a politically motivated guerrilla filmmaker and as a Hollywood insider Combining a detective's approach to investigating the truth with a criminal's alternative value system Soderbergh's films tackle social justice in a corporate world embodying dozens of cinematic trends and forms advanced in the past twenty five years His career demonstrates the richness of contemporary American cinema and this study gives his complex oeuvre the in depth analysis it deserves

Women Make Horror Alison Peirse, 2020-09-17 Winner of the the 2021 Best Edited Collection Award from BAFTSS Winner of the 2021 British Fantasy Award in Best Non Fiction Finalist for the 2020 Bram Stoker Award for Superior Achievement in Non Fiction Runner Up for Book of the Year in the 19th Annual Rondo Halton Classic Horror Awards But women were never out there making horror films that's why they are not written about you can't include what doesn't exist Women are just not that interested in making horror films This is what you get when you are a woman working in horror whether as a writer academic festival programmer or filmmaker These assumptions are based on decades of flawed scholarly critical and industrial thinking about the genre Women Make Horror sets right these misconceptions Women have always made horror They have always been an audience for the genre and today as this book reveals women academics critics and filmmakers alike remain committed to a film genre that offers almost unlimited opportunities for exploring and deconstructing social and cultural constructions of gender femininity sexuality and the body Women Make Horror explores narrative and experimental cinema short anthology and feature filmmaking and offers case studies of North American Latin American European East Asian and Australian filmmakers films and festivals With this book we can transform how we think about women filmmakers and genre

Nancy Meyers Deborah Jermyn, 2017-07-27 Nancy Meyers is acknowledged as the most commercially successful woman filmmaker of all time described by Daphne Merkin in The New York Times on the release of It's Complicated as a singular figure in Hollywood she may in fact be the most powerful female writer director producer currently working Yet Meyers remains a director who alongside being widely dismissed by critics has been largely absent in scholarly accounts both of contemporary Hollywood cinema and of feminism and film Despite Meyers impressive track record for turning a profit including the biggest box office return ever achieved by a woman filmmaker at that time for What Women Want in 2000 and a multifaceted career as a writer producer director dating back to her co writing Private Benjamin in 1980 Meyers has been oddly neglected by Film Studies to date Including Nancy Meyers in the Bloomsbury Companions to Contemporary Filmmakers rectifies this omission giving her the kind of detailed consideration and recognition she warrants and exploring how notwithstanding the challenges authorship holds for feminist film studies Meyers can be situated as a skilled auteur This book proposes that Meyers box office success the consistency of style and theme across her films and the breadth of her body of work as a writer producer director across more than three decades at the forefront of Hollywood thus importantly bridging the second third waves of feminism make her a key contemporary US filmmaker Structured to meet the needs of both the student and scholar Jermyn's volume situates Meyers within this historical and critical context exploring the distinctive qualities of her body of work the reasons behind the pervasive resistance to it and new ways of understanding her films

EBOOK: Cinema Entertainment: Essays On Audiences, Films And Film Makers Gianluca Sergi, Alan Lovell, 2009-05-16 Entertainment is a defining feature of contemporary culture yet it is often accused of being superficial and even harmful In this thought provoking book the authors challenge this negative view and argue for a reconsideration of the value of entertainment and the effect it has on the world in which we live Taking Hollywood cinema as its central focus this exciting book explores the range of debates that the phenomenon of cinema entertainment has aroused It is packed with examples from modern popular films throughout including a whole chapter on the hugely successful film The Dark Knight The book features interviews with Randy Thom and Walter Murch filmmakers involved in creating some of the most successful films of recent years There is an interesting discussion of the work and reputation of renowned filmmakers Steven Spielberg and Alfred Hitchcock names which have become synonymous with cinema entertainment The authors consider what makes a film successful by looking at box office figures as well as detailed description and critique of current debates surrounding what it means to entertain and be entertained Cinema Entertainment is important reading for film and media students as well as anyone interested in contemporary mass culture Film Histories Paul Grainge,2007-01-11 An introduction to film history this anthology covers the history of film from 1895 It is arranged chronologically and each chapter contains an introduction on the key developments within the period Various types of film history are undertaken to enable students to become familiar with different types of film historical research American Film History Cynthia Lucia,Roy Grundmann,Art Simon,2015-09-08 From the American underground film to the blockbuster superhero this authoritative collection of introductory and specialized readings explores the core issues and developments in American cinematic history during the second half of the twentieth century through the present day Considers essential subjects that have shaped the American film industry from the impact of television and CGI to the rise of independent and underground film from the impact of the civil rights feminist and LGBT movements to that of 9 11 Features a student friendly structure dividing coverage into the periods 1960 1975 1976 1990 and 1991 to the present day each of which opens with an historical overview Brings together a rich and varied selection of contributions by established film scholars combining broad historical social and political contexts with detailed analysis of individual films including Midnight Cowboy Nashville Cat Ballou Chicago Back to the Future Killer of Sheep Daughters of the Dust Nothing But a Man Ali Easy Rider The Conversation The Texas Chain Saw Massacre Longtime Companion The Matrix The War Tapes the Batman films and selected avant garde and documentary films among many others Additional online resources such as sample syllabi which include suggested readings and filmographies for both general and specialized courses will be available online May be used alongside American Film History Selected Readings Origins to 1960 to provide an authoritative study of American cinema from its earliest days through the new millennium The Ironic Filmmaking of Stephen Frears Lesley Brill,2018-02-22 Stephen Frears has a career approaching over half a century directing films of astonishing variety beauty and daring and yet many often have trouble remembering his name The Ironic Filmmaking of Stephen Frears celebrates this great filmmaker beginning with a short biography of Frears general observations on unifying themes and styles in his oeuvre and the characterization of his manner of directing By focusing on 10 key films Lesley Brill finds coherence in Frears characteristic irony and in his concentration on many kinds of love In movies such as My Beautiful Laundrette Dangerous Liaisons High Fidelity The Queen Philomena and many others Frears portrays widely varied situations and characters with a combination of insight skepticism and sympathy He has the passionate unjudgmental focus of an artist who stands simultaneously at a distance from his subjects and within their worlds Through Frears work is widely admired Brill argues that he has attracted little scholarly writing because of a combination of the diffidence of his self presentation and the difficulty of explicating the complex ideas and characters of his films The Ironic Filmmaking of Stephen Frears is meant to inspire others to further examine his films individually and his career as a whole
