Making Foreign Policy U S Soviet Union And China:

Chinese Foreign Policy Think Tanks and China's Policy Towards Japan Xuanli Liao, 2006 Examines Chinese foreign policy think tanks and their influence in China's foreign policy towards Japan between the late 1970s and late 1990s Through case studies this book demonstrates a growing pluralistic trend in post Mao China's foreign policy making process China

- U.S. relations in the 21st century fostering cooperation preventing conflict. , Image, Perception, and the Making of U.S.-China Relations Hongshan Li, Zhaohui Hong, 1998 Image Perception and the Making of U S China Relations examines major events in the history of the relationship between the U S and China to show the development and effects of national images and perceptions These essays expose the effects of ideology as represented through foreign policy and the actions of leaders as well as the role of the media and governments in shaping public opinion and attitudes They show the evolution of the influential forces from the nineteenth century through the twentieth century In each country a small group of people has always controlled these forces by manipulating the power of the media and governments The nature of this situation changed national perceptions as power often moved from one small group to another As a result of manipulating the images and perceptions of each country these biased and untrue views have inevitably led to conflict between the two countries A Companion to American Foreign Relations Robert Schulzinger, 2008-04-15 This is an authoritative volume of historiographical essays that survey the state of U S diplomatic history The essays cover the entire range of the history of American foreign relations from the colonial period to the present They discuss the major sources and analyze the most influential books and articles in the field Includes discussions of new methodological approaches in diplomatic history United States-Soviet Union-China, the Great Power Triangle United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on Future Foreign Policy Research and Development, 1976 United States-Soviet Union-China United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on Future Foreign Policy Research and Development, 1976 The Making of China's Foreign Policy in the 21st century Suisheng Zhao, 2018-02-02 This book is a study of the making of foreign policy of China a rising power in the 21st century It examines three sets of driving forces behind China's foreign policy making One is historical sources including the selective memories and reconstruction of the glorious empire with an ethnocentric world outlook and the century of humiliation at the hands of foreign imperialist powers The second set is domestic institutions and players particularly the proliferation of new party and government institutions and players such as the national security commission foreign policy think tanks media and local governments The third set is Chinese perception of power relations particularly their position in the international system and their position relations with major powers This book consists of articles from the Journal of Contemporary China China - U.S. Relations in the 21st Century, 1996 Secrecy in US Foreign Policy Yukinori Komine, 2016-04-01 Secrecy in US Foreign Policy examines the pursuit of strict secrecy by President Nixon and his National Security Advisor Kissinger in foreign policy decision making in relation to the US rapprochement with China Moreover it sheds new light on the complexity and dynamism of the evolution of China initiatives and demonstrates the many policy options and perspectives among US officials Dr Komine focuses on three major elements of the rapprochement China and the Three Worlds: A Foreign Policy Reader King C. Chen,2020-07-24 This title was first published in 1979 The reopening of China in 1971 by President Richard Nixon has already been regarded as a turning point of China s foreign policy and international politics It has facilitated the reestablishment of Peking s diplomatic relations after the Cultural Revolution broadened the dimension of China s international political economic and cultural activities and promoted China s campaign against hegemonism of the superpowers Its impact on China s relationships with the outside world particularly the United States and Third World countries is immeasurable This volume explores the the three world theory is China s Mao Tse tung s new concept of world politics after the Sino American rapprochement This concept originally developed from the Soviet twocamp theory of 1947 has an immediate connection with Peking s intermediate zone theory of 1964 The Taiwan Issue In Sinoamerican Strategic Relations Martin L Lasater,2019-07-09 The first two years of the Reagan administration saw a close correlation between improved unofficial relations between Washington and Taipei and a deterioration of strategic cooperation between Washington and Beijing These developments led many U S officials and scholars to conclude that U S security interests may require periodic concessions over Taiwan to ensure China s cooperation in countering the Soviet threat Rejecting this view Mr Lasater argues that Washington s and Beijing s bilateral relations with Moscow and not the Taiwan issue are the key international determinants of Sino American strategic cooperation Examining the parameters of that cooperation and the role of Taiwan in Sino American relations Mr Lasater suggests that Beijing is deliberately using U S security concerns to seek concessions on Taiwan and other issues He advises a policy that stands firm in negotiations with the Chinese and that resists the temptation to make politically expedient concessions a more balanced course of action whereby improved relations with Beijing are sought concurrently with the maintenance of friendly unofficial ties with Taipei New Dimensions of Chinese Foreign Policy Sujian Guo,Shiping Hua,2007-07-19 New Dimensions of Chinese Foreign Policy is an in depth analysis of China s new place in international affairs Taking Hu Jintao s proposal for peaceful development as a starting point the contributors in this volume examine the new trends of thought in the fourth generation of Chinese policymakers Special emphasis is placed on US China relations Editors Sujian Guo and Shiping Hua have assembled a list of contributors_ many of which are Chinese or Chinese American scholars_ with thorough knowledge of changes in Chinese foreign policy and their implications for the world The essays contained in this volume cover a comprehensive breadth of topics including China s changing ideology in foreign policy Chinese elite perspectives on the rise of China the political orientations of the emerging elite social dimensions of China s power status soft power management approaches to the North Korean nuclear issues Middle East foreign policy entry into World Trade Organization and foreign trade policy changing attitudes toward international regimes and the implications of China U S interdependence The insightful contributions of New Dimensions of Chinese Foreign Policy is essential reading for any student or researcher of contemporary Chinese politics Making China Policy Ramon Hawley Myers, Michel Oksenberg, David L. Shambaugh, 2001 The study focuses systematically on the range of domestic influences but also considers less obvious but vital roles played by European and Asian nations as well as Taiwan and China itself China's Foreign Policy Making Lin Su, 2017-03-02 Various domestic factors impact upon China's foreign policy making such as bureaucracy academics media and public opinion This stimulating book examines their increasing influence and focuses in particular on China's policy towards the United States exploring whether there has been an emergence of societal factors independent of the Communist Party that have begun to exert influence over the policy process It also debates questions such as how it will affect the ability of the Chinese government to frame and implement its policy towards the US and whether it has generated institutional arrangements in China for cooperation on issues such as trade human rights and Taiwan The book provides a better understanding of the role of societal forces in China's foreign policy making process Chinese Foreign Policy Thomas W. Robinson, David L. Shambaugh, 1995 This study of Chinese foreign policy is intended for academics and graduates of Chinese studies and of international relations international economics and those interested in decision making theory Mainland China After The Thirteenth Party Congress King-yuh Chang, 2019-04-05 This book is an outcome of the conference Communist China After the Thirteenth Party Congress held in Taipei It raises few questions on the relationship between ideology and politics in mainland China Mao Zedong & China's Foreign Policy Amrita Jash, 2025-07-22 This book analyses China's foreign policy from 1949 to 1976 through a cognitive perceptual lens emphasise Mao Zedong's central role as the primary decision making authority Moving beyond realist frameworks it highlights how Mao's ideological worldview shaped by his theory of contradictions revolutionary zeal and use of historical analogies drove China's foreign policy particularly in relation to Vietnam His subjective interpretation of global affairs reinforced by Marxist Leninist principles and China's historical identity guided key strategic decisions The study underscores the importance of individual leaders beliefs perceptions and psychological traits in shaping foreign policy offering broader implications for understanding international relations through cognitive and psychological approaches India's Foreign Policy Ghosh, Anjali, Chakraborti, Tridib, Majumdar, Anindyo J., Chatterjee, Shibashis (eds), 2009 India's Foreign Policy features scholars specializing in different dimensions of foreign policy analysis who examine the dynamics of India's international relations It reviews India's economic growth that has propelled it to the status of a globally recognized power and examines its nuclear policy and maritime strategy as a register of its present capabilities and future aspirations It also features news media as an important index to and catalysis for the formulation of government policies and India's bilateral and multilateral relations Normalization of U.S.-China Relations William C. Kirby, Robert S. Ross, Gong Li, 2020-03-17 Relations between China and the United States have been of central importance to both countries over the past half century as well as to all states affected by that relationship Taiwan and the Soviet Union foremost among them Only recently however has the opening of archives made it possible to research this history dispassionately The eight chapters in this volume offer the first multinational multi archival review of the history of Chinese American conflict and cooperation in the 1970s On the Chinese side normalization of relations was instrumental to Beijing s effort to enhance its security vis vis the Soviet Union and was seen as a tactical necessity to promote Chinese military and economic interests The United States was equally motivated by national security concerns In the wake of Vietnam policymakers saw normalization as a means of forestalling Soviet power As the essays in this volume show normalization was far from a foregone conclusion

The Cold War and the Origins of Foreign Relations of the People's Republic of China NIU Jun, 2018-10-16 In The Cold War and the Origin of Diplomacy of People s Republic of China Niu Jun offers a new analytical framework for understanding the Cold War and PRC s diplomacy from 1949 to 1955 He sees it as an interactive historical process between the Cold War China s domestic transition from revolution to nation building and the revolutionary ideology in the minds of Chinese leaders and Chinese people Niu Jun s analytical framework sheds fresh light on the widely studied events of PRC s diplomacy such as China s alliance with the Soviet Union and confrontation with the U S military actions on the Korean Peninsula and in Indochina settlement of the first Taiwan Strait crisis development of nuclear weapons and so on
