Making Movies Student Films To Features:

Writing, Making, and Distributing Your Short Film Chris Easterly, 2024-12-30 This book is a concise practical guide to writing and making a successful short film In an accessible and relatable tone the book covers the filmmaking process from plot ideation to film distribution without getting bogged down in the complicated details Written by an experienced writer and filmmaker the book shows you how to create content from script to screen that can connect with an audience It does so by considering classic storytelling templates like Aristotle s Three Act Structure and Joseph Campbell s The Hero s Journey as well as examining a variety of successful short films analyzing what makes them work or not and why To support learning it also provides a list of recommended short films to study with brief background information on each This is supplemented with the author s personal experiences of writing and making films along with exclusive insights from successful Hollywood and independent writers and producers There are also questions and prompts at the end of each chapter uniquely designed to guide the reader through the step by step process of writing their own short script Students and professionals alike who want to craft and perfect their short films will find this to be an invaluable resource and a one stop guide to success Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities Film Scripts George Garrett, O. B. Hardison, Jane R. Gelfman, 1989 These scripts from 1964-65 movies are presented to aid in understanding filmmaking The reader viewer can study the script and finished images to compare film script with movie productions Film School Confidential Tom Edgar, Karin Kelly, 2007-04-03 Now completely revised all there is to know on getting into the right schools and making the experience count This completely revised edition of Film School Confidential continues to offer the inside scoop on every major film school program in the country A must have guide for students who are considering applying to film school this book provides more than 20 profiles of the best film school programs across the country Covering such key areas as curriculum student body reputation and employment options for film school grads the authors provide solid objective information on each program as well as snippets from interviews with students and faculty members The Forgotten Film Adaptations of D.H. Lawrence's Short Stories Jason Mark Ward, 2016-07-11 This book looks beyond fidelity to emphasize how each adaptation of D H Lawrence s short stories functions as a creative response to a text foregrounding the significance of its fluidity transtextuality and genre The adaptations analysed range from the first to the most recent and draw attention to the fluidity of textual sources the significance of generic conventions and space in film the generic potentialities latent within Lawrence s tales and the evolving nature of adaptation By engaging with recent advances in adaptation theory to discuss the evolving critical reception of the author s work and the role of the reader this book provides a fresh forward looking approach to Lawrence studies The Guerilla Film Makers Handbook Chris Jones, Genevieve Jolliffe, 2006-01-01 This third edition of the UK's best selling filmmaker's bible builds upon the most successful features of the previous books. Including illustrations, diagrams and box outs, this book comes with a DVD packed with further interviews with filmmakers as well as theatrical trailers The Art & Science of Moviemaking (Part II) Jonathan D. Krane, 2012-09-07

Make Your Movie Barbara Freedman Doyle, 2012-08-06 This book is for anyone interested in the business of breaking into the movies. Learn who the key players are when it comes to getting a movie made and how to navigate the politics of filmmaking from start to finish from first pitch to filling movie seats My Death: a Personal Guidebook Jeremy Kagan, 2013-06-26 This is a powerful memoir of a near death experience. After a Native American sweat lodge, the author loses control of his body and then his life. He begins a passage that leads to a personal hell. He discovers a way to escape and emerges into an amazing exploration of the soul's journey. In this intense adventure, there are insights into stages of consciousness and encounters of blissful perfection. This spiritual inspirational book is meant to be an aid to removing the universal fear of the final journey we are all taking. The stories and the pictures are absolutely fascinating. It certainly deserves to be widely read. Dr. Jeffrey Long, M.D., author of Evidence of the Afterlife. Mr. Kagan has created a sprawling, intensely sensory world. The highly allusive style lends itself well to the book's marvelous evocation of the heady delirium and urgency of the primary death experience. Abigail Holstein, Associate Editor, Ecco. The prose is good and strong. I read every word of My Death wishing there were more. Virginia Barber, literary agent. The message of the book is deeply beautiful and timely. Janet Mills, Amber Allen Publishing Inc. Directory of World Cinema: Australia and New Zealand Ben Goldsmith, Geoff Lealand, 2010-12-15 This addition to Intellect's Directory of World Cinema series turns the spotlight on Australia and New Zealand and offers an in-depth and exciting look at the cinema produced in these two countries since the turn of the twentieth century. Though the two nations share considerable cultural and economic connections, their film industries remain distinct, marked by differences of scale, level of government involvement and funding, and relations with other countries and national cinemas. Through essays about prominent genres and themes, profiles of directors, and comprehensive reviews of significant titles, this user-friendly guide explores the diversity and distinctiveness of films from Australia and New Zealand from Whale Rider to The Piano to Wolf Creek. How to Make Your Own Video or Short Film Bob Harvey, 2008-04-25 New technologies now offer accessibility to the medium of video and film for virtually anyone who feels they have something to say. You might be someone who wants to create a video to share online, someone who wants to record and document everyday events that happen around you, a charity worker wanting to highlight the plight of the less fortunate, or a journalist keen to use film to explore social issues. An artist or a writer eager to experiment within an audio-visual medium, anyone who wants to step into a world of discovery and challenge and learn new skills along the way. This book offers an abundance of hints, tips, and practical advice that will help emerging film makers discover an exciting form of expression either for personal satisfaction or to make their mark in a highly competitive industry It includes deciding what kind of film you want to make choosing a camera choosing your subject matter dealing with copyright using music to enhance your film working with professional actors researching information and avoiding location problems production meetings budgets schedules conducting interviews for documentaries digital editing sound and lighting techniques and making your film stand out from the crowd
