Making Of A Cop:

The Making of a Cop Harvey Rachlin,1991 An accurate account of the rigorous discipline and intensive instruction in the New York police academy and of how that training changes the lives of the young men and women who will soon be out there on the streets

Rise of the Warrior Cop Radley Balko,2013-07-09 Now updated with new material the groundbreaking history of how police forces have become militarized both in equipment and mindset and what that means for American democracy The last days of colonialism taught America s revolutionaries that soldiers in the streets bring conflict and tyranny As a result our country has generally worked to keep the military out of law enforcement But according to investigative reporter Radley Balko over the last several decades America s cops have increasingly come to resemble ground troops The consequences have been dire the home is no longer a place of sanctuary the Fourth Amendment has been gutted and police today have been conditioned to see the citizens they serve as an other an enemy Today s armored up policemen are a far cry from the constables of early America The unrest of the 1960s brought about the invention of the SWAT unit which in turn led to the debut of military tactics in the ranks of police officers Nixon s War on Drugs Reagan s War on Poverty Clinton s COPS program the post 9 11 security state under Bush Obama by degrees each of these innovations empowered police forces always at the expense of civil liberties And under Trump these powers were expanded in terrifying new ways as evidenced by the tanks and overwhelming force that met the Black Lives Matter protesters in 2020 In Rise of the Warrior Cop Balko shows how politicians ill considered policies and relentless declarations of war against vague enemies like crime drugs and terror have blurred the distinction between cop and soldier His fascinating frightening narrative shows how over a generation a creeping battlefield mentality has isolated and alienated American police officers and put them on a collision course with the values of a free society

Human-Computer Interaction: Users and Contexts Masaaki Kurosu, 2015-07-20 The 3 volume set LNCS 9169 9170 9171 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 17th International Conference on Human Computer Interaction HCII 2015 held in Los Angeles CA USA in August 2015 The total of 1462 papers and 246 posters presented at the HCII 2015 conferences was carefully reviewed and selected from 4843 submissions These papers address the latest research and development efforts and highlight the human aspects of design and use of computing systems The papers in LNCS 9171 are organized in topical sections on interaction and quality for the web and social media HCI in business industry and innovation societal and cultural impact of technology user studies     Enough Blame to Go Around Richard Steier, 2014-01-01 Since 1980 Richard Steier has had a unique vantage point to observe the gains losses and struggles of municipal labor unions in New York City He has covered those unions and city government as a reporter and labor columnist for the New York Post and since 1998 as editor and featured columnist of the Chief Leader a century old independent newspaper that covers city and state government in greater detail than today s mainstream news organizations Drawing from his column with the Chief Leader Razzle Dazzle Enough Blame to Go Around describes in vivid terms how the changed economy has drastically altered the city s labor landscape and why it has been difficult for municipal unions to adapt There can be no doubt he writes that public employee unions have contributed to the problems that confront them today including corruption and failed leadership But at the same time and for all their flaws he believes unions represent the best chance for ordinary people to receive fair economic treatment      Pedagogy Development for Teaching Online Music Johnson, Carol, Lamothe, Virginia Christy, 2018-05-11 With the shift towards online education teaching and learning music has evolved to incorporate online environments. However, many music instructors, faculty, and institutions are being challenged on how to evolve their curriculum to meet these demands and successfully foster students. Pedagogy Development for Teaching Online Music is a critical scholarly resource that examines the nature of teaching and learning music in the online environment at the post-secondary level. Featuring a broad range of topics such as online and face-to-face instruction, instructional design, and learning management systems, this book is geared towards educators, professionals, school administrators, academicians, researchers, and students seeking current research on designing online music courses using a social constructivist framework.

Police Tyler Wall, David Correia, 2018-03-13 This book armed activists on the streets as well as the many who have become concerned about police abuse with a critical analysis and ultimately a redefinition of the very idea of policing. The book contends that when we talk about police and police reform, we speak the language of police legitimation through the art of euphemism. So state sexual assault becomes body cavity search and ruthless beatings become non-compliance deterrence. A Field Guide to the Police is a study of the indirect and taken-for-granted language of policing, a language we're all forced to speak when we talk about law enforcement. In entries like Police dog Stop and frisk and Rough ride, the authors expose the way copspeak suppresses the true meaning and history of policing. Like any other field guide, it reveals a world that is hidden in plain view. The book argues that a redefined language of policing might help chart a future free society. Now in an expanded and updated edition including explanations of newsmaking, new terms like dead names, kettling, and qualified immunity, as well as a new foreword by leading criminal justice advocate Craig Gilmore.      CONF-MLA 2024 Mustafa

Istanbul, Anil Fernando, Marwan Omar, 2025-03-11 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed Proceedings of the 2nd International Conference on Machine Learning and Automation CONF-MLA 2024 held in Adana, Turkey, in November 2024. The 45 full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 102 submissions. The papers reflect the conference sessions as follows: computing, automation, machine learning, robotics, and intelligent systems, artificial intelligence, and data science.

Police Administration Gary W. Corder, 2023-03-07 Police Administration 11th Edition is a best-selling textbook that examines police administration from multiple perspectives: a systems perspective emphasizing the interrelatedness among units and organizations; a traditional structural perspective; administrative principles; management functions and the importance of written guidelines; a human behavioral perspective; the human element in organizations; and a strategic management perspective; communications and information systems; performance evaluation; strategies and tactics; and prevailing and promising approaches to increasing effectiveness of police agencies. Management functions and organizational principles are defined and explained while providing an emphasis on evidence-based policing, diversity principles, and developing police agencies as learning organizations. A concluding chapter covers contemporary themes such as community engagement and collaboration important issues such as police legitimacy and predictive policing and modern management perspectives such as emotional intelligence and servant leadership Case studies based on real life events invite students to practice managing conflicting circumstances and Modern Policing blog posts offer up to date news and breaking developments in the policing world This book is suitable for undergraduates studying police management and supervision in the US and for practitioners seeking promotion to senior management roles The ancillaries available include instructor s manual test bank and lecture slides for faculty and case studies for student use      Specifications and Drawings of
