A History of the AbaThembu People from Earliest Times to 1920 Jongikhaya Mvenene, 2020-10-02 This book is an account of the history of the abaThembu from the reign of uKumkani Nxeko in c 1650 to the death of uKumkani Dalindyebo in 1920 The importance of this cut off date lies in the fact that uKumkani Dalindyebo s reign was characterised by relative stability compared to those of his predecessors His prestige however was demeaned by the Department of Native Affairs Secretary whose instruction was that uKumkani Dalindyebo should not be addressed as a paramount chief as that title applied exclusively to the government thereby strengthening the government s position and elevating it to be above customary law AbaThembuland was and still is central to the history of the former Transkei region and South Africa Not only does it form part of the former Transkei region but it also constitutes South Africa and so divisions conflicts developments and or underdevelopments in abaThembuland inevitably affected not only the former Transkei region but also the greater part of South Africa in no small measure Thus the history of abaThembuland and the divisions thereof overlap with the history of the former Transkei region and South Africa history and politics Decentralization and Constitutionalism in Africa Charles M. Fombad, Nico Steytler, 2019-09-10

This collection of essays assesses the efforts of African governments to constitutionalise decentralisation be it in the form of federalism local government or traditional authorities Since the end of the Cold War jurisdictions across Africa have witnessed an ostensible return to multi party democracy within the paradigm of constitutionalism and the rule of law Linked to the democratisation process many countries took steps to decentralize power by departing from the heavily centralized systems inherited from colonial regimes The centralization of power typically characterized by the personalization and concentration of power in the hands of leaders and privileged elites in capital cities mostly resulted in repressive regimes and fragile states As decentralisation is a response to these challenges this volume analyses the dynamic relationship between the efforts to implement decentralization and presence or absence of constitutionalism This volume examines a variety of forms and degrees of decentralization found across Africa It advances a new understanding of trends and patterns and facilitates the exchange of ideas among African governments and scholars about the critical role that decentralisation may play in democratization of and constitutionalism in Africa Who's Afraid of Children? Helen Brocklehurst, 2017-03-02
Brocklehurst's impressive work breaks new ground in normative international political theory It develops a new theoretical framework which exposes how children are present in international relations and security practices using an empirical and comparative assessment of the role of children and youth in a range of conflicts including Nazi Germany Mozambique South Africa Northern Ireland the Cold War and the British Empire The author argues powerfully that concepts of children are partial and contained through their construction as non political Global in scope this book is a timely and important contribution given the growing visibility of children in international relations evident after September 11 The political and ethical question at the heart of this book is will international relations dare to catch up
