Migrants, Refugees, and Asylum Seekers in Latin America Raanan Rein, Stefan Rinke, David M.K. Sheinin, 2020-06-08 Scholarship on ethnicity in modern Latin America has traditionally understood the region's various societies as fusions of people of European indigenous and or African descent These are often deployed as stable categories with European or white as a monolith against which studies of indigeneity or blackness are set The role of post independence immigration from eastern and western Europe as well as from Asia Africa and Latin American countries in constructing the national ethnic landscape remains understudied The contributors of this volume focus their attention on Jewish Arab non Latin European Asian and Latin American immigrants and their experiences in their new homes Rejecting exceptionalist and homogenizing tendencies within immigration history contributors advocate instead an approach that emphasizes the locally and nationally embedded nature of ethnic identification
