desert fathers Yet until now little attention has been given to one of the most vital dimensions of their spirituality their astute penetrating interpretation of Scripture Rooted in solitude cultivated in an atmosphere of silence oriented toward the practical appropriation of the sacred texts the desert fathers hermeneutic profoundly shaped every aspect of their lives and became a significant part of their legacy This book explores the setting within which the early monastic movement emerged the interpretive process at the center of the desert fathers quest for holiness and the intricate patterns of meaning woven John Climacus John Chryssavgis, 2017-03-02 John Chryssavgis explores the ascetic into their words and their lives teaching and theology of St John Climacus a classical and formative writer of the Christian medieval East and the author of the seventh century Ladder of Divine Ascent This text proved to be the most widely used handbook of the spiritual life in the Christian East partly because of its unique and striking symbol of the ladder that binds together the whole book It has caught the attention of numerous readers in East and West alike through the ages and is a veritable classic of medieval spirituality whose popularity in the East equals that of The Imitation of Christ in the West Chryssavgis follows the development and influence of earlier desert literature from Egypt through Palestine into Sinai and includes a discussion of the theology of tears the concept of unceasing prayer as well as the monastic principles of hesychia silence and eros love Medieval Latin with the Legend of Barlaam and Josaphat Jacobus (de Voragine), Donka Markus, 2018-07-09 An engaging textbook for intermediate students of Medieval Latin From Dust to Digital Maja Kominko, 2015-02-16 Much of world s documentary heritage rests in vulnerable little known and often inaccessible archives Many of these archives preserve information that may cast new light on historical phenomena and lead to their reinterpretation But such rich collections are often at risk of being lost before the history they capture is recorded This volume celebrates the tenth anniversary of the Endangered Archives Programme at the British Library established to document and publish online formerly inaccessible and neglected archives from across the globe From Dust to Digital showcases the historical significance of the collections identified catalogued and digitised through the Programme bringing together articles on 19 of the 244 projects supported since its inception These contributions demonstrate the range of materials documented including rock inscriptions manuscripts archival records newspapers photographs and sound archives and the wide geographical scope of the Programme Many of the documents are published here for the first time illustrating the potential these collections have to further our understanding of history Monks and Monasteries of the Egyptian Deserts Otto Friedrich August The T&T Clark History of Monasticism John Binns, 2019-11-14 Despite its rich history in the Latin Meinardus, 2003 tradition Christian monasticism began in the east the wellsprings of monastic culture and spirituality can be directly sourced from the third century Egyptian wilderness In this volume John Binns creates a vivid authoritative account that traces the four main branches of eastern Christianity up to and beyond the Great Schism of 1054 and the break between the Catholic and Orthodox churches Binns begins by exploring asceticism in the early church and the establishment of monastic life in

Egypt led by St Anthony and Pachomius He chronicles the expansion influence and later separation of the various Orthodox branches examining monastic traditions and histories ranging from Syria to Russia and Ethiopia to Asia Minor Culminating with both the persecution and the revival of monastic life Binns concludes with an argument for both the diversity and the shared set of practices and ideals between the Orthodox churches creating a resource for both cross disciplinary specialist and students of religion history and spirituality
