Road Orlando M. Bullock I, 2009-12-21 The one thing that stands in the way of our everyday lives is our own lack of belief We are all given a heritage of living our lives with abundance from God but so many of us fall short of receiving our blessings We continue to trust man and not our creator Rather we are faced with losing our home our job or simply having peace of mind We must understand that each of us has a journey to complete in our life span and walking with God we will be able meet our everyday challenges Hope is the anchor of the soul God is our anchor It is only he that gave his begotten son and his son came to bare all Collections & Recollections Donna Snethun, 2015-06-26 My raison d'être This is a book of my memoirs but it is more than that It goes back in time to include stories I have heard since childhood about my forefathers and mothers I am grateful that the writing bug has been so strong in the Falla family I look on whatever writing abilities I have as a gift To me it is more than a hobby it's a passion The histories that were written by Uncle Art Falla in the history books of Kinsella and District Hoofprints and Homesteading and of Sedgewick and District Sedgewick Sentinel were invaluable in my writing of this book Picking the brains of family members sisters cousins and Aunt Thordis Taylor have been of enormous assistance While our memories of any particular incident may not be exactly the same the sharing and the jogging has made the memories I have come alive In 2005 my original book Collections Recollections 1st edition was printed It is a book of memoirs I have received wonderful feedback on that book and hope that you enjoy this book as much as did the readers of Collections Recollections 1st edition I have lived too interesting a life to not leave this legacy It seemed only right to include stories about my children's paternal ancestors the Snethuns and the Sathers After having been married to Andy Snethun for fifty five years in many ways these families seem like my family I hope you enjoy following the unique lives of several generations of these pioneer families I have really tried to write only stories that very few of my readers will be able to say That happened to me too Scattered throughout my memoirs you will find poetry all of which are my originals Sometimes I write poetry like I talk not knowing when to quit I write poetry as long as the thoughts keep coming I try to control myself when I talk so I don't do the same MADMAN KNITTING or Slip, Slip, Knit Gregory Patrick, 2015-03-11 More than just a collection of blog posts Slip Slip Knit is a series of meditations and essays by a homeless man attempting to survive by knitting Beginning in 2011 and ending in 2014 these blog entries explore a sense of spirit and survival through knitting From living in the woods twenty miles from the nearest town to success as a crafter Slip Slip Knit delves into the hope and ambition of any artist who attempts with whole heart to survive on their talents hope and a sense of purpose Firestorm Marshall DeBruhl,2010-12-29 On February 13 and 14 1945 three successive waves of British and U S aircraft rained down thousands of tons of high explosive and incendiary bombs on the largely undefended German city of Dresden Night and day Dresden was engulfed in a vast sea of flame a firestorm that generated 1 500 degree temperatures and hurricane force winds Thousands suffocated in underground shelters where they had fled to escape the inferno above The fierce winds pulled thousands more into the center of the firestorm where they were incinerated By the time the fires burned themselves out many days later a great city known as the Florence on the Elbe lay in ruins and tens of thousands almost all of them civilians lay dead In Firestorm Marshall De Bruhl re creates the drama and horror of the Dresden bombing and offers the most cogent appraisal yet of the tactics weapons strategy and rationale for the controversial attack Using new research and contemporary reports as well as eyewitness stories of the devastation De Bruhl directly addresses many long unresolved questions relating to the bombing Why did the strike occur when the Allies victory was seemingly so imminent Was choosing a city choked with German refugees a punitive decision intended to humiliate a nation What if any strategic importance did Dresden have How much did the desire to send a message to Imperial Japan or the advancing Soviet armies factor into the decision to firebomb the city Beyond De Bruhl s analysis of the moral implications and historical ramifications of the attack he examines how Nazi and Allied philosophies of airpower evolved prior to Dresden particularly the shift toward morale bombing and the targeting of population centers as a strategic objective He also profiles the architects and prime movers of strategic bombing and aerial warfare among them aviation pioneer Billy Mitchell RAF air marshal Sir Arthur Bomber Harris and the American commander General Carl Spaatz The passage of time has done nothing to quell the controversy stirred up by the Dresden raid It has spawned a plethora of books documentaries articles and works of fiction Firestorm dispels the myths refutes the arguments and offers a dispassionate and clear eyed look at the decisions made and the actions taken throughout the bombing campaign against the cities of the Third Reich a campaign whose most devastating consequence was the Dresden raid It is an objective work of history that dares to consider the calculus of war From the Hardcover edition Because I Have Been Given Much Bob Turney,2006 Bob Turney was raised on a notorious housing estate in South London England At age 15 he was consigned to the scrap heap by an education system that labelled him educationally subnormal Engulfed by a life of crime from an early age he graduated to the fringes of organized crime and spent over 20 years drifting in and out of prisons and institutions Today Bob s life is completely different As a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints he has held many callings including Ward Mission Leader Stake Sunday School President and has served in an Elders
