My Twenty Years With The Chinese Laughter And Tears 19311951:

My Twenty Years with the Chinese Nicholas Maestrini, 1990      Rooted in Hope: China - Religion - Christianity Vol 2 Barbara Hoster, Dirk Kuhlmann, Zbigniew Wesolowski, 2017-03-27 This Festschrift is dedicated to the former Director and Editor in chief of the Monumenta Serica Institute in Sankt Augustin Germany Roman Malek S V D in recognition of his scholarly commitment to China The two volume work contains 40 articles by his academic colleagues companions in faith confreres as well as by the staff of the Monumenta Serica Institute and the China Zentrum e V China Center The contributions in English German and Chinese pay homage to the jubilarian s diverse research interests covering the fields of Chinese Intellectual History History of Christianity in China Christianity in China Today Other Religions in China Chinese Language and Literature as well as the Encounter of Cultures      China's Catholics in an Era of Transformation Anthony E. Clark, 2020-07-13 This book features a collection of essays on China s modern Catholic Church by a scholar of China West intellectual and religious exchange The essays and reflections were mostly written in China while the author was traveling by train or staying in villages or large cities near to Roman Catholic cathedrals or other important historical sites during research trips to the country It is clear that Clark s understanding of Catholicism in China evolved from the first entry to the final ones in 2019 The essays included in this compendium were written in disparate contexts and in response to different events As such there is no obvious theme or order to the content However despite this the book provides valuable insights for readers wishing to gain a better understanding of the complex topography of Catholic history in China the contours of which have undergone stark transformations with each dynastic political and ecclesial transition The information presented serves to highlight and explain the lives of Catholic people and the events that have punctuated one of the most significant dimensions of China s long history of friendship conflict and exchange with the West      The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index , 1992      The Missionary Movement in American Catholic History Angelyn Dries, 1998 This is the first general history of American Catholic mission treating not only its institutions but its human and religious aspects as well It shows how the church in the United States not only sent thousands of men and women overseas but also evangelized internally and incorporated millions of immigrants Angelyn Dries offers a thoroughly researched and nuanced view of this history and its profound influence on the emergence of a distinctive American Catholic identity The Missionary Movement in American Catholic History opens with Iberian and French mission efforts on the continent prior to 1776 moves to the situation within the English colonies and the fledgling United States and then on to mission beyond U S borders from 1820 Dries continually places the movement in context discussing such issues as Nativism the frontier experience of whites the fate of Amerindians the trans Atlantic slave trade and the growth of African American Catholicism From 1898 to 1980 Dries considers the experiences of the two World Wars the rapid decolonizations of Africa and Asia and the U S s increasingly anti Communist political stance With the advent of Vatican II Dries shows American Catholics entered more deeply into conscious dialogue with their Protestant brothers and sisters as well as with Jews By 1980 this public dialogue included non believers and followers of the world religions in a broadening ecumenism Dries concludes with issues facing the missionary movement beyond 1980 including formation and gender issues the understanding and practice of mission in the future and the unfinished agenda of the U S Bishops pastoral To the Ends of the Earth The Missionary Movement in American Catholic History is a remarkably comprehensive work must reading for missionaries and church historians      Bibliography of Asian Studies ,1996
