All the Wild Horses Charles G. Summers, Jr., Dayton O. Hyde, Rita Summers, Now available in paperback founder of the Black Hills Wild Horse Sanctuary and a lifelong rancher Dayton O Hyde acts as a guide to the natural history behavior and future chances of the wild horses that survive across the United States from the mustangs of the West to the ponies of Assateague and Chincoteague islands He writes as well of his personal experiences with wild horses around the globe from the ghostly white horses of the French Camargue to zebras in Africa Beautifully illustrated with the work of Rita and Charles Summers renowned photographers of the world s wild horses this arresting book truly conveys the nature and the plight of these splendid animals      Uncle Jack's Creek Royal La Plante, 1999      Finding the Mother Tree Suzanne Simard, 2021-05-04 NEW YORK TIMES BEST SELLER From the world s leading forest ecologist who forever changed how people view trees and their connections to one another and to other living things in the forest a moving deeply personal journey of discovery Finding the Mother Tree reminds us that the world is a web of stories connecting us to one another The book carries the stories of trees fungi soil and bears and of a human being listening in on the conversation The interplay of personal narrative scientific insights and the amazing revelations about the life of the forest make a compelling story Robin Wall Kimmerer author of Braiding Sweetgrass Suzanne Simard is a pioneer on the frontier of plant communication and intelligence her TED talks have been viewed by more than 10 million people worldwide In this her first book now available in paperback Simard brings us into her world the intimate world of the trees in which she brilliantly illuminates the fascinating and vital truths that trees are not simply the source of timber or pulp but are a complicated interdependent circle of life that forests are social cooperative creatures connected through underground networks by which trees communicate their vitality and vulnerabilities with communal lives not that different from our own Simard writes in inspiring illuminating and accessible ways how trees living side by side for hundreds of years have evolved how they learn and adapt their behaviors recognize neighbors compete and cooperate with one another with sophistication characteristics ascribed to human intelligence traits that are the essence of civil societies and at the center of it all the Mother Trees the mysterious powerful forces that connect and sustain the others that surround them And Simard writes of her own life born and raised into a logging world in the rainforests of British Columbia of her days as a child spent cataloging the trees from the forest and how she came to love and respect them And as she writes of her scientific quest she writes of her own journey making us understand how deeply human scientific inquiry exists beyond data and technology that it is about understanding who we are and our place in the world

A Purpose Ridden Ryan Correy,2015-05-04 In the summer of 1996 a father and his 13 year old son embarked on a 3400 km bicycle tour across Canada Affectionately known as Manhood Training this unique bonding experience became the inspiration for Ryan Correy to break away from convention and turn a passion for cycling into his purpose in life The world s most extreme cycling challenges serve as an evolving proving ground for the young rider including self doubt on a solo tour to Arizona after high school falling asleep and crashing into a cemetery gate on the grueling Race Across America The toughest sporting event in the world murder and robbery along the Pan American Highway The longest road in the world a near mountaintop helicopter rescue while traversing the infamous Tour Divide The longest mountain bike race in the world cashing in after being hit by a car in California hallucinations and foot crippling pain on a six day 20 hour stationary cycling world record attempt and plenty more A Purpose Ridden is an honest and often obsessive first hand account of becoming one of Canada s most respected adventure cyclists Ryan shares in great detail the sponsorship woes the evolution of his ego an admiration for flawed role model Lance Armstrong the many accolades earned family tragedy and of course the evolving relationship with his father their fights and friendships lost along the way The path less travelled begins with a paternal taunt We re close enough to home If you want we can call your mother to come and pick you up now
