Mysticism and Social Transformation Janet K. Ruffing, 2001-02-01 Where do Mysticism and and political action meet How does faith empower its adherents to resist oppression What are the origins of authentic contemporary mysticism From the thirteenth century Franciscan movement to African American mystics this wide ranging volume of essays considers exemplars of Christian mysticism including Teresa of Avila Ignatius of Loyola the Quakers and the Society of Friends whose practices and influence brought about social change Linking major conceptual issues and social theory the essays examine the historical impact of mysticism in contemporary life and argue for a hermeneutical approach to mysticism in its historical context The contributors look at how mystical empowerment can serve as a catalyst for expressing compassion in acts of justice and long term social change We learn how Sojourner Truth and Rebecca Cox Jackson driven by mystical experiences to take up lives of preaching faced the same misogynistic religious environments as did women mystics throughout history which has submerged this key area of women s experience The final two essays describe the development of socially engaged Buddhism in Asia and America and the mystical roots of deep ecology

Mysticism and Social Change Alton Brooks Pollard, 1992 Academics and activists alike have long dismissed mysticism as an otherworldly and escapist form of religion Alton B Pollard III in a ground breaking study of the noted African American mystic Howard Thurman presents an analysis of religious experience that challenges prevailing interpretations of mysticism and social change Drawing on perspectives from sociology phenomenology and history the author examines the meaning of mystical religion for the underside of contemporary American society What he uncovers is significant an activist form of mysticism compelled by the dictates of spiritual experience that defies social conventions and engenders social change

A Strange Freedom Howard Thurman, 2014-11-18 A spiritual advisor to Martin Luther King Jr the first black dean at a white university cofounder of the first interracial pastored intercultural church in the United States Howard Thurman offered a transcendent vision of our world This lyrical collection of select published and unpublished works traces his struggle with the particular manifestations of violence and hatred that mark the twentieth century His words remind us all that out of religious faith emerges social responsibility and the power to transform lives

Mysticism and Social Change Alton Brooks Pollard, 1992 Academics and activists alike have long dismissed mysticism as an otherworldly and escapist form of religion Alton B Pollard III in a ground breaking study of the noted African American mystic Howard Thurman presents an analysis of religious experience that challenges prevailing interpretations of mysticism and social change Drawing on perspectives from sociology phenomenology and history the author examines the meaning of mystical religion for the underside of contemporary American society What he uncovers is significant an activist form of mysticism compelled by the dictates of spiritual experience that defies social conventions and engenders social change

Between the 'Mysticism of Politics' and the 'Politics of Mysticism' David Ranson, 2013-08-31 Between the Politics of Mysticism and the Mysticism of Politics traces the dialectic of the mystical and the political from both a theological and an historical perspective It presents the dialectic as a hermeneutic for the rise of the new ecclesial communities within the Roman Catholic Tradition and suggests it as the framework by which a trajectory for Christian holiness might emerge in the 21st century      Howard Thurman's Philosophical Mysticism Anthony Sean Neal, 2019-01-02 African American Philosophy and African American Philosophers have played a central role in understanding and also shaping what it means to be black in America Some of their conclusions were reactions to the mistreatment they received from the majority population but other of their conclusions were extensions and or novel positions taken with a view through past perceptual lenses Yet with the mass exodus of black students from HBCU s after the civil rights era many of the important figures and their inquiries have been little or poorly studied The significance of this work is found in its attempt to grapple with one such seminal figure his memory of his ancestors and the education he received from Morehouse College in the Atlanta University Center all of which formed the roots of the ideas he later produced Howard Thurman former Dean of Marsh Chapel at Boston University and mentor to figures such as Martin Luther King Jr left quite a large ideological footprint however just as others of his milieu his ideas have been largely overlooked Thurman s deep rooted knowledge of black culture particularly black religious ideas as they existed during the period of African enslavement in the United States and as they were exhibited in the Negro Spirituals shaped his thinking and allowed him to produce a body of work grounded in the musings and traditions of his ancestors This volume investigates forms an analysis and even critiques Thurman s work such that others can benefit from the profundity of his thoughts while also taking note of their relevance for today s philosophers concerned with humanity      The Wiley-Blackwell Handbook of Transpersonal Psychology Harris L. This book challenges experiential esoteric and colloquial understandings of mysticism by bringing a fresh relevance to the term through an interdisciplinary dialogue between literature mysticism and theology in the context of postmodernity In order to achieve this the author takes selected writings of Iris Murdoch Denise Levertov and Annie Dillard and incorporates them into various stages of a redesigned mystic way The fourteenth century mystic Julian of Norwich is invoked throughout as a role model whom these three writers seek to emulate as popular writers contemplatives and theologians As theologians who are concerned with the pressing issues of our age Grace Jantzen Dorothee Soelle and Sallie McFague are drawn on as conversation partners to complete the three way discussion The author maintains that understanding the writing and reading of creative texts in the context of practical mysticism facilitates an integrated approach to the use of literature for theological expression
