WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY R. JOSEPH HOFFMANN

William D. Dennison

Myth and Christianity Karl Jaspers, Rudolf Bultmann, 1958 The Absence of Myth Sophia Heller, 2012-02-01 In this provocative work Sophia Heller challenges the assumption that we cannot be without myth that myth is necessary to vital soulful living Indeed Heller argues we have been living in a world without myth for a long time The Absence of Myth examines the loss of a religious mode of being in the world and demonstrates how theorists who insist on the presence of myth deny its historical end Absence of myth may seem obvious evidenced by our lack of cult and ritual and by our de animated natural world as well as in the emergence of conceptual thought and psychological awareness which could only arise with the dissolution of a prereflective mythic mode of being in the world But what appears to be straightforward becomes complicated when myth is intentionally conflated with thought and reflection usually in the attempt to cultivate a mythic consciousness that aims to restore meaning to life and assuage the spiritual malaise of contemporary culture Myth cannot rest in peace It must be continually unearthed redefined and recontextualized such that modern and postmodern notions of myth are made to substitute for something that has never been experienced only imagined Sacred Narrative Alan Dundes, 1984-11-15 Alan Dundes defines myth as a sacred narrative that explains how the world and humanity came to be in their present form This new volume brings together classic statements on the theory of myth by the authors The twenty two essays by leading experts on myth represent comparative functionalist myth ritual Jungian Freudian and structuralist approaches to studying the genre Christ and Modernity David J. Hawkin, 2010-10-30 In this re examination of the roots of the relationship between religion and science David Hawkin focuses on the concept of autonomy as he explores the question Is there continuity and compatibility between the autonomy that underlies Christian faith and the role of individual freedom in the technological age What makes this work particularly valuable is Professor Hawkin's review of the theological philosophical political psychological and sociological works that have formed our ideas of the nature of both Christianity and modernity Reimarus Strauss Schweitzer and Bultmann on the quest for the historical Jesus Bauer and Turner on Christian faith and practice Machiavelli Nietzsche Darwin Freud and Marx on our historicity Gogarten Cox and Bonhoeffer who affirm our autonomy in the technological process Ellul and George who deny it George Eliot's Spiritual Quest in Silas Marner J. H. Mazaheri, 2012-11-30 Based on K Barth's definition of faith and R Bultmann's existentialist theology J H Mazaheri has attempted to reveal G Eliot's profound religious and spiritual quest by focusing on the short but powerful novel Silas Marner The critic believes that her thought in the area of religion and theology has not been appreciated enough by critics and that a postmodern reading is necessary in order to understand it So through a close textual reading the author shows not only the affinities G Eliot had with Coleridge and Wordworth already mentioned by others but also with Schleiermacher and Kierkegaard The novelist clearly distinguishes between religion and superstition if she strongly rejects the latter she believes in the reality and good aspects of the former Indeed she demythologizes Christianity in a positive way and implicitly offers a new definition of religion On the other hand although she admired and translated Feuerbach's The Essence of Christianity she differed from him as much as she did from Strauss whom she also translated This essay on Silas Marner proposes thus a new approach to G Eliot's thought while stressing the qualities of her art especially in the way she uses allegory irony and The Origins of Demythologizing Johnson, 2018-08-14 Preliminary Material Roger A Johnson The Enigma of Demythologizing Roger A Johnson The Philosophical Origins of Demythologizing Marburg Neo Kantianism Roger A Johnson The Religionsgeschichtliche Formulation of Myth Roger A Johnson The Enlightenment Formulation of Myth Roger A Johnson The Existentialist Formulation of Myth Roger A Johnson Demythologizing as a Synthetic Construct Roger A Johnson Bibliography Roger A Johnson Name Index Roger A Johnson Subject Index Roger A Johnson The New Century Keith Ansell-Pearson, Alan D. Schrift, 2014-09-03 This volume covers the period between the 1890s and 1930s a period that witnessed revolutions in the arts and society which set the agenda for the rest of the century In philosophy the period saw the birth of analytic philosophy the development of new programmes and new modes of inquiry the emergence of phenomenology as a new rigorous science the birth of Freudian psychoanalysis and the maturing of the discipline of sociology This period saw the most influential work of a remarkable series of thinkers who reviewed evaluated and transformed 19th century thought A generation of thinkers among them Henri Bergson Emile Durkheim Sigmund Freud Martin Heidegger Edmund Husserl Karl Jaspers Max Scheler and Ludwig Wittgenstein completed the disenchantment of the world and sought a new re enchantment Iesus the Christ Walter Kasper, 2011-10-06 Here at last is a reissue of Kasper's major work with a brilliant new introduction surveying recent developments in Christology Kasper assesses the Christological enterprise in the Church from the earliest down to the most recent times which can be recommended without hesitation to teacher and serious student The book also provides a solid theological basis for preaching This may also be described as a work of Christian serenity but one which is not indifferent to current problems It is the fruit of the deep peace which all men can gain from contemplation of Jesus the Christ As Karl Rahner has said this book is modern in the very best sense of the word Synthesising biblical philosophical and traditional material the book remains essential reading for specialists and is used widely for courses on Christology the very basis of Christian theology itself The Young Bultmann William D. Dennison, 2008 During his early life 1884 1925 Rudolf Bultmann passionately attempted to unite scholar and laity through his understanding of God which developed in the context of his home and its love for the common people of the church the legacy of Schleiermacher Marburg Lutheran neo Kantianism the eschatological perspective of the History of Religion School dialectical theology and Heidegger's philosophy of existence Bultmann always insisted that God reflected the inner forces of life within each human being Over the years however Bultmann came to hold that Lutheran neo Kantianism provided the basic structure by which to analyze critique and strengthen his understanding of God In light of this neo Kantian structure Bultmann insisted that God could not be the formulation of any scientific ethical or artistic construction In other words God could not be the object or manifestation of human reason in any form since God transcended human reason Hence in 1925 through the assistance of the dialectical theologians and Heidegger Bultmann presented his purest formulation of a neo Kantian understanding of God God as the spontaneous moment of encountering the dialectical forces Bultmann Unlocked Tim Labron, 2011-01-13 within our existential being Preaching Gospel Charles L. Campbell, Clayton J. Schmit, Mary Hinkle Shore, Jennifer E. Copeland, 2016-08-30 Teaching preaching like preaching itself is a noble endeavor After nearly four decades of teaching Richard Lischer has sent legions of preachers across the world to preach gospel This volume pays tribute to his faith filled life of preaching and teaching The contributors some of whom were taught by Lischer have received many laurels themselves so readers will find in these pages wisdom for preaching from many quarters Some authors include sermons with helpful commentary about the preaching exercise some offer essays to illuminate the task of sermon writing all acknowledge the influence of Richard Lischer on their preaching and teaching Sacred Discontent Herbert N. Schneidau, 1977 Philosophical Faith and the Future of Humanity Helmut Wautischer, Alan M. Olson, Gregory J. Walters, 2012-01-02 Karl Jaspers who died in 1969 had a profound impact on 20th century theology and philosophy His central thesis called for among other things a de centering of philosophy from its Eurocentric roots and a renewal of its dialogue with other traditions especially Asian ones This collection of essays includes unpublished work by Jaspers himself as well as testimonies to his life and career by colleagues associates and translators some of who knew Jaspers personally Readers will also find commentary and interpretation by researchers who have explored Jaspers work for decades and a biographical account of Jaspers student Leonard Ehrlich who handled much of Jaspers English translation The book interrogates Jaspers conceptions of philosophical faith his philosophy of communication and the prospects for world philosophy in the future Focusing on philosophical faith it assesses Jaspers interpretations of key philosophers such as Kant Hegel Schelling Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Rosenzweig as well as examining his personal relationships with Bultmann and Heidegger Contributors also look at Jaspers philosophies of religion and history his hypothesis of the axial age Achsenzeit and his contributions to metaphysics periechontology and economics Finally chapters cover Jaspers philosophy of communication and world history The latter are informed by a burgeoning interest in Kantian Freiheitphilosophie that influenced Jaspers as well as concerns over the future of humanity These concerns in part account for Jaspers growing popularity in the Middle East Eastern Europe Central South America and Asia Also included are lucid clarifications of the difference between religious and philosophical faith and the relevance ofcertainty trust and communication for a future of mankind Trained as a psychiatrist Jaspers practiced this profession before becoming a philosopher and thus had a keen insight into the workings of the human mind even as he challenged the philosophical establishment of his time It is perhaps this depth to his background that adds to the contemporary relevance of his work Modes of Faith Theodore Ziolkowski, 2011-08-22 In the decades surrounding World War I religious belief receded in the face of radical new ideas such as Marxism modern science Nietzschean philosophy and critical theology Modes of Faith addresses both this decline of religious belief and the new modes of secular faith that took religion s place in the minds of many writers and poets Theodore Ziolkowski here examines the motives for this embrace of the secular locating new modes of faith in art escapist travel socialism politicized myth and utopian visions James Joyce he reveals turned to art as an escape while Hermann Hesse made a pilgrimage to India in search of enlightenment Other writers such as Roger Martin du Gard and Thomas Mann sought temporary solace in communism or myth And H G Wells Ziolkowski argues took refuge in utopian dreams projected in another dimension altogether Rooted in innovative and careful comparative reading of the work of writers from France England Germany Italy and Russia Modes of Faith is a critical masterpiece by a distinguished literary scholar that offers an abundance of insight to anyone interested in the human compulsion to believe in forces that transcend the individual Zionism Vs. the West Jonas E. Alexis, 2018-04-03 A person can be brought into bondage in two different ways by force or by his own will Force is a crude way of bringing a person into submission but using the persons own free will can be done sophistically and covertly Under the banner of democracy and freedom America has been under the bondage of what E Michael Jones has aptly called sexual liberation and political control for over fifty years In the first two volumes of the trilogy Alexis explored these ideological themes In this last volume he expands on some of those pernicious ideas emphasizing how Zionism for over sixty years has shaken the moral philosophical and intellectual foundation of much of Western culture The Iraq War alone will cost America at least six trillion dollars and as if to prove that America is still in bondage the oppressors continue to use sophisticated means to seduce Americans so that perpetual wars will never cease to exist in the Middle East and in much of the world This book will seek to address these and related issues and in the process tell us something about the fundamental nature of reality and how to approach this cosmic conflict which has dominated the West for over a thousand years Paine, Scripture, and Authority Edward Hutchins Davidson, William J. Scheick, 1994 Such descent dissent creates the possibility for conversion for the transformation of outmoded religious beliefs into a political paradise regained Stages of Thought Michael Horace Barnes, 2009-07-15 This work approaches the question of the relationship of religious to scientific thought The author argues that they evolved together and are therefore complementary

Reason Relativism And God Joseph Runzo,1986-05-19 Journal of Latin American Theology, Volume 18, Number 2 Lindy Scott,2024-01-30 This issue of the Journal of Latin American Theology features articles with pastoral perspectives for postpandemic times as well as reflection on justice and theological education Edesio Sanchez Cetina addresses the difference between how disease is dealt with in the Bible and modern understandings of illness and healing Fabio Salguero Fagoaga wrestles with COVID related suffering in light of Christian hope in the resurrection Mary Luz Reyes Bejarano proposes an interdisciplinary model of pastoral care that puts victimology in dialogue with psychology and theology She does this within the framework of a regional program in Colombia for women dealing with the aftermath of violence Daniel S Schipani

develops a psycho theology of lament and offers keys for walking alongside and supporting companioning people facing crisis situations Luis Cruz Villalobos identifies eleven positive keys to coping evidenced by Paul in 2 Corinthians and these become the basis of a proposed hermeneutic of post traumatic Christian praxis Esteban M Voth discusses how the Hebrew term tsedeg is rendered in Bible translations in English righteousness and Spanish justicia justice He then connects the impact of the translation to how followers of Jesus live out their theology Dieumeme Noelliste celebrates the collaborative nature of advanced degree programs and the prophetic missional approach taken by many institutions of theological education in the global South Four book reviews a film review and one poem close out this volume Remythologizing Theology Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2010-01-14 The rise of modern science and the proclaimed death of God in the nineteenth century led to a radical questioning of divine action and authorship Bultmann's celebrated demythologizing Remythologizing Theology moves in another direction that begins by taking seriously the biblical accounts of God's speaking It establishes divine communicative action as the formal and material principle of theology and suggests that interpersonal dialogue rather than impersonal causality is the keystone of God's relationship with the world This original contribution to the theology of divine action and authorship develops a fresh vision of Christian theism It also revisits several long standing controversies such as the relations of God's sovereignty to human freedom time to eternity and suffering to love Groundbreaking and thought provoking it brings theology into fruitful dialogue with philosophy literary theory and biblical studies
