Leadership, Myth, & Metaphor Daniel Cherry, Jeff Spiegel, 2006-01-06 Use the creative energy of metaphor to clarify and make your leadership vision a reality How do you see yourself as an educator How would you describe yourself as a leader Have you ever considered using metaphors to reframe your leadership practice vision and mission Often leaders stumble when asked to articulate their values ethics and purpose This book illustrates the significance of leadership archetypes and metaphoric reframing in understanding and facilitating organizational change Leadership Myth Metaphor reports on the findings of a professional development study funded by the Gates Foundation of more than 250 superintendents and principals celebrating educators unique individual core values while acknowledging their shared intrinsic beliefs including A commitment to a cause beyond oneself A devotion to an ethic of care A desire to improve the condition of society A wish to make a significant impression on student and adult lives A conviction to inspire others to seek their full potential Awareness of yourself on a personal and professional level leads to a deeper consideration of your mission as a leader and of your purpose in life      Myth and Metaphor Northrop Frye, 1990 This collection focuses on the fundamental themes that have dominated Frye's career and made him one of the world's most influential critics Each of the essays is ultimately about the conventions of language literature and discursive thought the myths metaphors cosmologies images symbols and genres that form the fabric of Western writing      Childhood as Memory, Myth and Metaphor Catherine Crimp, 2017-12-02 A fascination with childhood unites the artist Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 and the writers Samuel Beckett 1906 89 and Marcel Proust 1871 1922 But while many commentators have traced their childhood images back to memories of lived experiences there is more to their mythologies of childhood that waits to be explored They invite us to move away from familiar ideas whether psychological or biographical about what a child can represent and even what a child is The haunting child figures of Bourgeois Beckett and Proust echo each other as they show how imagining origins for a life for a work of art involves paradoxes that test the limits of our forms of expression Art meets literature profusion meets concision French meets English and images of childhood reveal new insights in this encounter between three great figures of twentieth and twenty first century culture Catherine Crimp holds a PhD from the University of Cambridge and is currently Lectrice d'anglais at the Ecole Normale Supérieure de Lyon      Myth, History, and Metaphor in the Hebrew Bible Paul K.-K. Cho, 2019-02-07 This book examines the long debated issue of the relationship between the Hebrew Bible and ancient Near Eastern myths Using an innovative interdisciplinary methodology that combines theories of metaphor and narrative Paul Cho argues that the Hebrew Bible is more deeply mythological than previously recognized Because the Hebrew Bible contains fragments of the sea myth but no continuous narrative the study of myth in the Hebrew Bible is usually circumscribed to the level of motifs and themes Cho challenges this practice and demonstrates that the Hebrew Bible contains shorter and longer compositions studded with imagery that are structured by the plot of sea myths Through close analysis of key Near Eastern myths and biblical texts Cho shows that myth had a more fundamental influence on the plot structure and conceptual framework of the Hebrew Bible than has been recognized

Crisp, 2007-02-15 The doctrine of the Incarnation lies at the heart of Christianity But the idea that God was in Christ has become a much debated topic in modern theology Oliver Crisp addresses six key issues in the Incarnation defending a robust version of the doctrine in keeping with classical Christology He explores perichoresis or interpenetration with reference to both the Incarnation and Trinity Over two chapters Crisp deals with the human nature of Christ and then provides an argument against the view common amongst some contemporary theologians that Christ had a fallen human nature He considers the notion of divine kenosis or self emptying and discusses non Incarnational Christology focusing on the work of John Hick This view denies
