Mythic Voice Of Statius:

The Mythic Voice of Statius William J. Dominik, 1994 This critical study of Statius' Thebaid focuses on the central theme of power how it is exercised on the supernatural and human levels the consequences of its pursuit and abuse in terms of the human condition and the question of its contemporary relevance Anticipation and Anachrony in Statius' Thebaid Robert Simms, 2019-10-03 Applying the latest narratological theory and focusing on the use of anachrony or chronological deviation this book explores how Statius competes successfully for a place within an established literary canon Given the tremendous pressure on poets to render familiar stories in unfamiliar and novel ways how did he achieve this When Statius elected to sing of the quarrelsome sons of Oedipus he was acutely aware that this was a well trod road one frequently reproduced in a variety of genres epic drama and lyric poetry Despite this highly varied corpus against which he sought to contend he boasts that his epic has novelty and proudly declares that he is now counted among the prisca nomina or ancient names that sang of Thebes And indeed precisely the fact that there were so many story versions a greater number survive for comparison than for any other work from antiquity rivaling even the popularity of the Trojan legend means that the story is conveniently positioned to offer a unique exploration into how Statius creates a compelling story despite working within a saturated and overly familiar mythic tradition This book argues that it is chiefly through the use of narrative anachrony or non chronological modes of narration that Statius manipulates states of anticipation suspense and even surprise in his audience

Intertextuality in Flavian Epic Poetry Neil Coffee, Chris Forstall, Lavinia Galli Milic, Damien Nelis, 2019-12-16 This collection of essays reaffirms the central importance of adopting an intertextual approach to the study of Flavian epic poetry and shows despite all that has been achieved just how much still remains to be done on the topic Most of the contributions are written by scholars who have already made major contributions to the field and taken together they offer a set of state of the art contributions on individual topics a general survey of trends in recent scholarship and a vision of at least some of the paths work is likely to follow in the years ahead In addition there is a particular focus on recent developments in digital search techniques and the influence they are likely to have on all future work in the study of the fundamentally intertextual nature of Latin poetry and on the writing of literary history more generally Exemplary Traits J. Mira Seo, 2013-05-01 How did Roman poets create character The mythological figures that dot the landscape of Roman poetry entail their own predetermined plotlines and received characteristics the idea of a gentle maternal Medea is as absurd as a spineless and weak Achilles For Roman poets the problem is even more acute since they follow on late in a highly developed literary tradition The fictional characters that populate Roman literature such as Aeneas and Oedipus link text and reader in a form of communication that is strikingly different from a first person narrator to an addressee With Exemplary Traits Mira Seo addresses this often overlooked question Her study offers an examination of how Roman poets used models dynamically to create character and how their referential approach to character reveals them mobilizing the literary tradition Close readings of Virgil Lucan Seneca and Statius offer a more nuanced discussion of the expectations of both authors and audiences in the Roman world than those currently available in scholarly debate By tracing the philosophical and rhetorical concepts that underlie the function of characterization Exemplary Traits allows for a timely reconsideration of it as a fruitful literary technique

Structures of Epic Poetry Christiane Reitz, Simone Finkmann, 2019-12-16 This compendium 4 vols studies the continuity flexibility and variation of structural elements in epic narratives It provides an overview of the structural patterns of epic poetry by means of a standardized stringent terminology Both diachronic developments and changes within individual epics are scrutinized in order to provide a comprehensive structural approach and a key to intra and intertextual characteristics of ancient epic poetry

Roman Literature under Nerva, Trajan and Hadrian Alice König, Christopher Whitton, 2018-03-15 This volume is the first holistic investigation of Roman literature and literary culture under Nerva Trajan and Hadrian AD 96 138 With case studies from Frontinus Juvenal Martial Pliny the Younger Plutarch Quintilian Suetonius and Tacitus among others the eighteen chapters offer not just innovative readings of literary and some less literary texts but a collaborative enquiry into the networks and culture in which they are embedded The book brings together established and novel methodologies to explore the connections conversations and silences between these texts and their authors both on and off the page The scholarly dialogues that result not only shed fresh light on the dynamics of literary production and consumption in the High Roman Empire but offer new provocations to students of intertextuality and interdiscursivity across classical literature How can and should we read textual interactions in their social literary and cultural contexts

Flavian Poetry and its Greek Past Antonios Augoustakis, 2014-01-16 Flavian Poetry and its Greek Past breaks new ground by investigating the close interaction between Flavian poetry and Greek literary tradition and by evaluating the meaning of this affiliation in the socio political and cultural context of the late first century CE Authors examined include Martial Silius Italicus Statius and Valerius Flaccus Their interaction with Greek literature is not just thematic or geographical the Greek literary past is conceived as the poetic influence of a variety of authors periods and genres such as Homer the Cyclic tradition Greek lyric poetry Greek tragedy Hellenistic poetry and aesthetics and Greek historiography

Motherhood and the Other Antony Augoustakis, 2010-07-22 This is the first book length study to reconstruct the role of women in the epic poems of the Flavian period of Latin literature Antony Augoustakis examines the role of female characters from the perspective of Julia Kristeva's theories on foreign otherness and motherhood to underscore the on going negotiation between same and other in the Roman literary imagination as a telling reflection on the construction of Roman identity and of gender and cultural hierarchies

Apuleius Gerald Sandy, 2018-07-17 The first three chapters of this book elucidate the scholastic goals of both classical cultures during the Roman Imperial period Apuleius works share the stage in these chapters with representatives of the second century Greek cultural paradigm They define patterns of discourse and fit selected examples of analogous Apuleian strategies into the broader cultural framework Subsequent chapters focus closely on the complete Apuleian corpus under the general headings of Apuleius in the roles of orator philosopher and novelist Two of Apuleius philosophical works and his novel the Golden Ass provide an unparalleled opportunity to analyze the methods of translation and adaptation employed by the major Latin writer of the second half of the second century Justice as an Aspect of the Polis Idea in Solon's Political Poems

Joseph A. Almeida, 2017-07-31 This book examines the meaning of justice or dike in the political poems of Solon from a new interpretative perspective The first two chapters argue that neither standard historical nor literary treatments have provided an adequate foundation for understanding Solon's dike The main defect lies in an inability to connect Solon's concrete political work with his poetic perceptions The book's central proposal is that the polis idea from new classical archaeology provides an objective standard for an interpretation of Solon's dike which remedies this defect The third chapter sets forth the polis idea which becomes the measure for an examination in the final two chapters of Solon's view of dike The book thus exhibits an interdisciplinary approach to Archaic poetry Groaning Tears Elise P. Garrison, 1995 This monograph explicates suicide in Greek tragedy in light of the fifth century ethical climate and social milieu It organizes the suicides according to the important ethical considerations of the ancient world and places them in their theatrical context

Cornelius Fronto Hout, 2018-07-17 This is the first commentary on the letters of Marcus Cornelius Fronto c 90-95 c 167 It aims at an extensive grammatical stylistic and historical interpretation of the letters and the ancient testimonies on Fronto The author demonstrates where Fronto stands in Latin literature hence the numerous quotations of parallel similar and dissentient passages from Fronto and other writers The letters are written in a pure simple style with a great deal of colloquialisms and many a post classical turn of phrase The many archaisms show how Fronto as a philologist had a comprehensive knowledge of pre-Ciceronian Latin This commentary based on the Teubner edition by the author Leipzig 1988 offers a thorough explanation of Fronto's style and language e.g. of his archaisms and colloquialisms identification of the persons mentioned and the chronology of the letters Seven elaborate indices complete this book A
