Representing Landscape Architecture Marc Treib,2008-02-19 Representing Landscape Architecture offers a broad investigation of how the designed landscape is and has been represented for design study for criticism and even for its realization It has been said that we can only realize what we can imagine But in order to realize we must convey ideas to others as well as to ourselves Representation is by no means neutral and the process of communication the process by which the imagination takes its first form itself necessarily limits the range of our design possibilities Computers further remove from cognitive processes and raise new questions about methods and limits Written by a team of renowned practitioners and academics this book is the best available reference to date on the many dimensions of landscape representation

Envisioning Media Power Brett Christophers, 2009-04-16 Envisioning Media Power develops an original geographical perspective on the nature and exercise of power in the international television economy It uses theories of political economy as the basis for a comparative empirical examination of the UK and New Zealand television markets while closely considering these markets respective relationships with the US market and its globally influential media corporations In fleshing out this geographical perspective the book critically addresses the power to produce reproduce and extract profit from territorialized media markets To understand such powers the book examines processes of creation and dissemination of industry knowledge structures of industry governance and the locational characteristics of television s operational economy Through its rigorous and creative combination of conceptual insights with empirical substance Envisioning Media Power both illuminates the fabric of television s international space economy and ultimately offers a unique theoretic argument suggesting that power knowledge and geography are inseparable not only from one another but from the process of accumulation of media capital

The Cinematic City David Clarke, 2005-08-19 The Cinematic City offers an innovative and thought provoking insight into cityscape and screenscape and their inter connection Illustrated throughout with movie stills a diverse selection of films from Bladerunner to Little Caesar genres cities and historical periods are examined by leading names in the field The key dimensions of film and urban theory are introduced before detailed analysis of the various cinematic forms which relate most significantly to the city From early cinema and documentary film to film noir New Wave and postmodern cinema the contributors provide a wealth of empirical material and illustration whilst drawing on the theoretical insights of contemporary feminism Benjamin Baudrillard Foucault Lacan and others The Cinematic City shows how the city has been undeniably shaped by the cinematic form and how cinema owes much of its nature to the historical development of urban space Engaging with current theoretical debates this is a book that is set to change the way in which we think about both the nature of the city and film Contributors Giuliana Bruno Iain Chambers Marcus Doel David Clarke Anthony Easthope Elisabeth Mahoney Will Straw Stephen Ward John Gold James Hay Rob Lapsley Frank Krutnik Place, Setting, Perspective Eleanor Andrews, 2014-09-26 Place Setting Perspective examines the films of the Italian filmmaker Nanni Moretti from a fresh viewpoint employing the increasingly significant research area of space within a filmic text The book is conceived with the awareness that space cannot be studied only in aesthetic or narrative terms social political and cultural aspects of narrated spaces are equally important if a thorough appraisal is to be achieved of an oeuvre such as Moretti s which is profoundly associated with socio political commentary and analysis After an exploration of various existing frameworks of narrative space in film the book offers a particular definition of the term based on the notions of Place Setting and Perspective Place relates to the physical aspect of narrative space and specifically involves cityscapes landscapes interiors and exteriors in the real world Setting concerns genre characteristics of narrative space notably its differentiated use in melodrama detective stories fantasy narratives and gender based scenarios Perspective encompasses the point of view taken optically by the camera which supports the standpoint of Moretti s personal philosophy expressed through the aesthetic aspects which he employs to create narrative space The study is based on a close textual analysis of Moretti s eleven major feature films to date using the formal film language of mise en sc ne cinematography editing and sound The aim is to show how Moretti selects organizes constructs assembles and manipulates the many elements of narrative space into an entire work of art to enable meanings and pleasures for the spectator
