Inculturation and Ecclesial Communion Francis E. George, 1990      Inculturation and Ecclesial Communion Francis Eugene George (card.), 1990      Pope John Paul II on Inculturation S. Iniobong Udoidem, 1996 This work undertakes a philosophical analysis and study of the thought of John Paul II on inculturation and evangelization It investigates the development of the Pope's thought on inculturation and argues that inculturation is the central theme that unifies the Pope's encyclical The relationship between inculturation and evangelization is argued for with particular attention to the analysis of such themes as creation as inculturation incarnation as inculturation and evangelization as inculturation The text then argues that the relationships between these themes are not only reciprocal but hermeneutical It also focuses on the relationship between hermeneutics and inculturation and argues that hermeneutics is the most rational foil for understanding the mechanics and the logic of inculturation The text shows how inculturation as proposed by Pope John Paul II serves as a unifying principle that would usher in a new world order intellectually and socially Such world vision would allow for cooperation and unity between nations of varied cultures and thus allow for the development of a Christian and world community where peaceful co existence would be a priority This is the hope of the Pope's gospel of Evangelization 2000

what might be called a theology of a multicultural church Inculturation Shorter argues is the recognition that faith must in effect become culture to be fully received and lived In the course of a wide ranging discussion the author explores the intimate relationship between inculturation and theology focusing in particular on scripture the history of missions especially in Africa and contemporary Catholic thought Shorter concludes with an exploration of the future of the church a multicultural church Toward a Theology of Inculturation offers a substantive explication of what inculturation is what it is not how and when it occurs and what its limits are or should be The Reception of the Second Vatican Council's Liturgical Reforms in Nigeria (Nsukka Diocese) Uchenna Aba, 2016 Fifty years after the promulgation of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy a great moment has dawned in which a more dispassionate assessment of the reception of this important document has become imperative in order to enable the Church to undertake necessary steps in realizing the full potential of the renewal envisaged by the Council Fathers The present study identifies peculiar and diverse challenges confronting the process of reception in the Nsukka Diocese Nigerian Church today However the author acknowledges that the full reception of Sacrosanctum Concilium is still a work in progress Uchenna Aba is a Catholic priest in Nsukka Nigeria and currently the Chaplain of St Martin s Parish Goch Diocese of Muenster Germany Dissertation Subject Religious Studies African Studies
