ENGLISH DESCRIPTION everything was clear everything was in from of him there was now a way to see there was a book Popol Wuj was what they named it The Popol Vuh sacred book of the K iche Mayas gives an account of the Mayan universe the plurality of their gods the diversity of nature and the origin of humanity It is a story that is both mythical and historical current and ancestral Due to its deep reflection about existence it surpasses the Mayan cultural dimension and it becomes a universal work A great poetic elegance and a richness in symbolism make the Popol Vuh the epitome of indigenous literature and becomes one of humanity s poetic patrimonies This edition of the Popol Vuh translated and edited by Mayan culture specialists is being true to the K iche poetic structure by explicitly representing the semantic compass of Mayan versification In order to achieve that reading that was intended the text was aligned to the right

Decolonizing Indigeneity Thomas Ward, 2016-12-20 While there are differences between cultures in different places and times colonial representations of indigenous peoples generally suggest they are not capable of literature nor are they worthy of being represented as nations Colonial representations of indigenous people continue on into the independence era and can still be detected in our time The thesis of this book is that there are various ways to decolonize the representation of Amerindian peoples Each chapter has its own decolonial thesis which it then resolves Chapter 1 proves that there is coloniality in contemporary scholarship and argues that word choices can be improved to decolonize the way we describe the first Americans Chapter 2 argues that literature in Latin American begins before 1492 and shows the long arc of Mayan expression taking the Popol Wuj as a case study Chapter 3 demonstrates how colonialist discourse is reinforced by a dualist rhetorical ploy of ignorance and arrogance in a Renaissance historical chronicle Agust n de Z rate s Historia del descubrimiento y conquista del Per Chapter 4 shows how by inverting the Renaissance dualist configuration of civilization and barbarian the Nahua Aztecs who were formerly considered barbarian can be civilized within Spanish norms This is done by modeling the categories of civilization discussed at length by the Friar Bartolom de las Casas as a template that can serve to evaluate Nahua civil society as encapsulated by the historiography of Fernando de Alva Ixtlilxochitl a possibility that would have been available to Spaniards during that time Chapter 5 maintains that the colonialities of the pre Independence era survive but that Criollo indigenous dialogue is capable of excavating their roots to extirpate them By comparing the discussions of the hacienda system by the Peruvian essayist Manuel Gonz lez Prada and by the Mayan Quich eye witness to history Rigoberta Mench this books shows that there is common ground between their viewpoints despite the different genres in which their work appears and despite the different countries and the eight decades that separated them suggesting a universality to the problem of the hacienda which can be dissected This book models five different decolonizing methods to extricate from the continuities of coloniality both indigenous writing and the representation of indigenous peoples by learned elites The True(r) Prehistory Aloys Eiling, Leila Sarris, 2025-09-03 This thought provoking book presents a radically revised version of human prehistory In a departure from previous works in this area which have compiled puzzling phenomena and speculative ideas this volume the first in a series of four provides a coherent and conclusive framework that offers a better understanding of our collective prehistoric history Many events from a bygone era that are often dismissed as myth or fringe theory are investigated through the lens of mathematics and the natural sciences The result is a compelling concept that challenges entrenched beliefs and sheds new light on distant past of humanity Adopting a multidisciplinary approach the place of humankind in nature and the cosmos is explored In particular this book provides answers to the question of whether humans are solely the product of natural evolution or if genetic engineering has influenced our development It critically reinterprets the global spread of humanity particularly the settlement of the Americas in light of the latest findings from field research In addition it examines the astonishing mathematical and scientific knowledge of ancient civilizations which reveals how little we truly understand about prehistory The insights presented call for a paradigm shift in how we perceive our origins and evolution Readers seeking a deeper and more nuanced understanding of history will find this a stimulating and transformative view La América real y la América mágica a través de su literatura Mercedes Suárez, Natalia Pérez de Herrasti, Mercedes Pico de Coaña, 1996-01-01 Hacia una espiritualidad laica Marià Corbí Quiñonero, 2010-01-01 Este libro pretende rescatar para nuestro tiempo la sabiduría humana y espiritual de las grandes tradiciones religiosas en un contexto cultural que se ha tornado inevitablemente laico La poca en la que vivimos está atravesada por cambios radicales que afectan a todas las esferas de nuestra vida incluida la religión Según el autor sin embargo lejos de lamentarnos por la gran crisis de las religiones debemos afrontar el reto de cultivar una espiritualidad creativa libre de los límites establecidos por creencias y ortodoxias excluyentes Para ello hay que releer con coraje y en profundidad las religiones y las tradiciones espirituales en las que nuestros antepasados fundamentaron su calidad humana y espiritual pues más que nunca necesitamos también calidad humana y espiritual para orientar nuestro futuro y gestionar de forma sostenible nuestras potentes ciencias y tecnologías La Cenicienta del Imperio Maya Carzon Carzon, 2011 Carlos Pellicer en el espacio de la plástica Elisa García Barragán, Carlos Pellicer, 1997 Handbook of Latin American Studies, 1944 Contains scholarly evaluations of books and book chapters as well as conference papers and articles published worldwide in the field of Latin American studies Covers social sciences and the humanities in alternate years The Mayas, 1991
