Carey, Trish Hatch, 2007-06-28 Measure the difference you make in students academic career and personal social development Today s school counselors are under enormous pressure to document their effectiveness by using data and producing quantitative accountability reports whether or not they've had the appropriate training. This authoritative guide from highly respected counselor educators and trainers gives preservice and inservice school counselors the tools to knowledgeably identify evidence-based practices in their field and to use data in designing, implementing, and evaluating programs and interventions. Evidence-Based School Counseling provides a practical process for using evidence to determine three critical issues: what needs to be done, which interventions should be implemented, and whether or not the interventions are effective. Aligned with the American School Counselor Association's National Model, this resource offers counselors skill-building guidelines for selecting, collecting, and analyzing data for informed planning; carrying out action research; and building collaborative partnerships. Measuring student learning and behavior change, communicating results to stakeholders, and more. As counselors successfully incorporate data-based decision making and program planning into their work, they will witness positive academic and personal changes in the lives of their students.

Providing descriptive annotations of the best children's picture books published in the last decade, this comprehensive overview is perfect for librarians, teachers, parents, daycare providers, and anyone who works with young children.

Literacy Beyond Picture Books Dorothy Dendy Smith, Jill Fisher DeMarco, Martha Worley, 2009-06-02 Teaching literacy to middle school and high school students with significant disabilities can prove challenging when available reading materials don't match students' reading levels and interests. This accessible step-by-step guide shows teachers how to match students with appropriate texts and develop inventive themed units that encourage literacy learning. The authors demonstrate how teachers can build whole units around a selected text by creating hands-on activities that engage multiple senses. This valuable resource includes sample activities and lesson plans, ideas for adapting general education materials, and essential information on how to build vocabulary and use retelling and guided reading. Teach functional skills on a daily basis. Incorporate media and assistive technology. Coordinate with general education teachers and involve parents. Assess students' learning and meet Individualized Education Plan goals. Perfect for special education and inclusive classrooms, this resource features everything teachers need to motivate students with disabilities and help them develop literacy skills.

Book jacket Picture for the Frame Regina S. S. Wood, 2018-06-21 Many of us have definite plans about how the story of life goes, but the purpose of God prevails. Author Regina S. Wood narrates how she learned to embrace the unplanned and how she kept faith in God's promise. In this memoir, she tells a story about the power of a promise, the power of love, and the power of faith. Through her personal experiences and challenges during her life, Wood offers advice for the following: Having a grateful heart, Coping with life's unchangeable circumstances, Making the best choices for the maximum result, Living life to the fullest, Realizing that giving up is not an option, Striving to fulfill our purpose. Picture for the Frame serves to inspire and encourage the masses to never give up, to hear the inner voices, and to remember that each of us can persevere and achieve regardless of the not-so-idealistic circumstances presented in life.

Career and College Readiness Counseling in P-12 Schools, Second Edition Jennifer Curry, Jennifer R. Curry, Amy Milsom, 2017-02-24 Praise for the First Edition: Serves as an excellent foundational text. I am very thankful that the authors wrote this text. It is written for school counselors by school counselor educators. Gene Eakin, PhD, School Counseling Program Lead, Oregon State University. The school counseling focus makes it unique. This is a great improvement to other texts I've used, and I plan to continue using it. Dr. Carolyn Berger, Chair, Department of Counseling, Nova Southeastern University. Fully updated to serve the needs of school counselors in training, this remains the only text to present a comprehensive developmental and practical approach to preparing school counselors to conceptualize the career development and college readiness needs of P-12 students. The second edition reflects the ASCA's new Mindsets, reflections, and advice from actual school counselors, updated statistics, references, and appendices, and an updated Instructor's Manual, test bank, and PowerPoint slides. New to the Second Edition: Features a Building a College-Going Culture section that expands coverage on college readiness counseling. Reflects updated legislation and policy information, including ASCA's new Mindsets, written by former school counselors. Disseminates current data and research focusing on college readiness needs of diverse populations. Includes interventions grounded in theory and connected to national standards.
