Dorf, 2019 Performing Antiquity tells the captivating story about some of the most intriguing Belle poque personalities archaeologists philologists classicists and musicologists and the dancers composers choreographers and musicians who brought their research to life at the birth of Modernism Intimate Friends Martha Vicinus, 2004-06-30 The book gives an overview of lesbian love over a period of 150 years Drawing upon diaries letters and other archival sources the author gives biographical information on well known and historically less recognised women An American Obsession Jennifer Terry, 2010-12-15 Drawing on original research from medical texts psychiatric case histories pioneering statistical surveys first person accounts legal cases sensationalist journalism and legislative debates Jennifer Terry has written a nuanced and textured history of how the century old obsession with homosexuality is deeply tied to changing American anxieties about social and sexual order in the modern age Terry's overarching argument is compelling that homosexuality served as a marker of the abnormal against which malleable tenuous and often contradictory concepts of the normal were defined One of the few histories to take into consideration homosexuality in both women and men Terry's work also stands out in its refusal to erase the agency of people classified as abnormal She documents the myriad ways that gays lesbians and other sexual minorities have coauthored resisted and transformed the most powerful and authoritative modern truths about sex Proposing this history as a useable past An American Obsession is an indispensable contribution to the study of American cultural history Scents and Sensibility Catherine Maxwell, 2017-10-20 This lively accessible book is the first to explore Victorian literature through scent and perfume presenting an extensive range of well known and unfamiliar texts in intriguing and imaginative new ways that make us re think literature's relation with the senses Concentrating on aesthetic and decadent authors Scents and Sensibility introduces a rich selection of poems essays and fiction exploring these texts with reference to both the little known cultural history of perfume use and the appreciation of natural fragrance in Victorian Britain It shows how scent and perfume are used to convey not merely moods and atmospheres but the nuances of the aesthete or decadent's carefully cultivated identity personality or sensibility A key theme is the emergence of the olfactif the cultivated individual with a refined sense of smell influentially represented by the poet and critic Algernon Charles Swinburne who is emulated by a host of canonical and less well known aesthetic and decadent successors such as Walter Pater Edmund Gosse John Addington Symonds Lafcadio Hearn Michael Field Oscar Wilde Arthur Symonds Mark Andr Raffalovich Theodore Wratislaw and A Mary F Robinson This book explores how scent and perfume pervade the work of these authors in many different ways signifying such diverse things as style atmosphere influence sexuality sensibility spirituality refinement individuality the expression of love and poetic creativity and the aura of personality dandyism modernity and memory A coda explores the contrasting twentieth century responses of Virginia Woolf and Compton Mackenzie to the scent of Victorian literature
