Mathews (Firm), 1958 The Hammonds Stewart Angus Weaver, 1997 Here for the first time is the story of one of history's great scholarly and marital collaborations J L and Barbara Hammond were among the most innovative and influential historians of the twentieth century Between 1911 and 1934 they wrote eight books together that amount in effect to the first sustained social history of modern England Three of their books in particular The Village Labourer 1911 The Town Labourer 1917 and The Skilled Labourer 1919 not only anticipated what came to be known as history from below but also permanently changed the way most people think about the Industrial Revolution which they defined in the apocalyptic terms to which we have become accustomed The Hammonds were also public figures prominently involved along with L T Hobhouse J A Hobson C P Scott and others in the definition and dissemination of the new liberalism From the point of involvement in the politics of one century they helped give enduring historical shape to another and thus exercise like their friends Sidney and Beatrice Webb a dual fascination Of the two Hammonds J L was the more prolific writing six books on his own and serving as a political journalist for virtually his entire professional life which saw him intervene editorially in every public crisis from the Boer War to the Second World War Ireland was after the Industrial Revolution arguably his greatest passion one to which he devoted much of his editorial life and his supreme literary effort Gladstone and the Irish Nation 1938 Barbara Hammond was an accomplished classicist the first woman to earn a First Class degree in Greats at Oxford She is shown here to have done much more work on the labourer books than has been previously recognized and to sustain through her letters an artful running commentary on the foibles of her age Through her especially the author evokes a radical but also doggedly Victorian sensibility that survived uneasily into the age of Bloomsbury and beyond The Hammonds were unique in the extent of their fused identity in the extent to which they became as G M Trevelyan once put it one flesh and one author The Hammonds is part dual biography part evocation of an age but it is also a study of marriage a marriage at a particular moment in history a marriage in the art and craft of history William Rothenstein R. Hubert Wellington, 1923 Letters, 1927 Henry James Framed Michael Anesko, 2022-10 Henry James Framed is a cultural history of Henry James as a work of art Throughout his life James demonstrated an abiding interest in some would say an obsession with the visual arts In his most influential testaments about the art of fiction James frequently invoked a deeply felt analogy between imaginative writing and painting At a time when having a photographic carte de visite was an expected social commonplace James detested the necessity of replenishing his supply or of distributing his autographed image to well wishing friends and imploring readers Yet for a man who set the highest premium on personal privacy James seems to have had few reservations about serving as a model for artists in other media and sat for his portrait a remarkable number of twenty four times Surprisingly few James scholars have brought into primary focus those occasions when the author was not writing about art but instead became art himself through the creative expression of another s talent To better understand the twenty four occasions he sat for others to represent him Michael Anesko reconstructs the specific contexts for these works coming into being assesses James s relationships with his artists and patrons documents his judgments concerning the objects produced and insofar as possible traces the later provenance of each of them James s long established intimacy with the studio world deepened his understanding of the complex relationship between the artist and his sitter James insisted above all that a portrait was a revelation of two realities the man whom it was the artist s conscious effort to reveal and the artist or interpreter expressed in the very quality and temper of that effort The product offered a double vision the strongest dose of life that art could give and the strongest dose of art that life could give
