Portraits From The Quattrocento:

Portraits from the Quattrocento Eugenio Garin, 1972 Images and Identity in Fifteenth-century Florence Patricia Lee Rubin, 2007-01-01 An exploration of ways of looking in Renaissance Florence where works of art were part of a complex process of social exchange Renaissance Florence of endless fascination for the beauty of its art and architecture is no less intriguing for its dynamic political economic and social life In this book Patricia Lee Rubin crosses the boundaries of all these areas to arrive at an original and comprehensive view of the place of images in Florentine society The author asks an array of questions Why were works of art made Who were the artists who made them and who commissioned them How did they look and how were they looked at She demonstrates that the answers to such questions illuminate the contexts in which works of art were created and how they were valued and viewed Rubin seeks out the meeting places of meaning in churches in palaces in piazzas places of exchange where identities were taken on and transformed often with the mediation of images She concentrates on questions of vision and visuality on seeing and being seen With a blend of exceptional illustrations close analyses of sacred and secular paintings by artists including Fra Angelico Fra Filippo Lippi Filippino Lippi and Botticelli and wide ranging bibliographic essays the book shines new light on fifteenth century Florence a special place that made beauty one of its defining features

Women in Italian Renaissance Art Paola Tinagli, 1997-06-15 This is the first book which gives a general overview of women as subject matter in Italian Renaissance painting It presents a view of the interaction between artist and patron and also of the function of these paintings in Italian society of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Using letters poems and treatises it examines through the eyes of the contemporary viewer the way women were represented in paintings

Renaissance Self-portraiture Joanna Woods-Marsden, 1998-01-01 An exploration of the genesis and early development of the genre of self portraiture in Italy in the 15th and 16th centuries The author examines a series of self portraits in Renaissance Italy arguing that they represented the aspirations of their creators to change their social standing

Dressing Renaissance Florence Carole Collier Frick, 2005-07-20 As portraits private diaries and estate inventories make clear elite families of the Italian Renaissance were obsessed with fashion investing as much as forty percent of their fortunes on clothing In fact the most elaborate outfits of the period could cost more than a good sized farm out in the Mugello Yet despite its prominence in both daily life and the economy clothing has been largely overlooked in the rich historiography of Renaissance Italy In Dressing Renaissance Florence however Carole Collier Frick provides the first in depth study of the Renaissance fashion industry focusing on Florence a city founded on cloth a city of wool manufacturers finishers and merchants of silk dyers brocade weavers pearl dealers and goldsmiths From the artisans who designed and assembled the outfits to the families who amassed fabulous wardrobes Frick s wide ranging and innovative interdisciplinary history explores the social and political implications of clothing in Renaissance Italy s most style conscious city Frick begins with a detailed account of the industry itself its organization within the guild structure of the city the specialized work done by male and female workers of differing social status the materials used and their sources and the garments and accessories produced She then shows how the driving force behind the growth of the industry was the elite families of Florence who in order to maintain their social standing and family honor made continuous purchases of clothing whether for everyday use or special occasions for their families and households And she concludes with an analysis of the clothes themselves what pieces made up an outfit how outfits differed for men women and children and what colors fabrics and design elements were popular Further and perhaps more basically she asks how we know what we know about Renaissance fashion and looks to both Florence s sumptuary laws which defined what could be worn on the streets and the depiction of contemporary clothing in Florentine art for the answer For Florence s elite appearance and display were intimately bound up with self identity Dressing Renaissance Florence enables us to better understand the social and cultural milieu of Renaissance Italy Bellini, Giorgione, Titian, and the Renaissance of Venetian Painting David Alan Brown, Sylvia Ferino-Pagden, Jaynie Anderson, Deborah Howard, Kunsthistorisches Museum (Vienne), National Gallery of Art (U.S.), Kunsthistorisches Museum (Wenen), 2006-01-01 Presents a survey of sixty Venetian Renaissance paintings of the calibre of Bellini and Titian s Feast of the Gods in Washington and Giorgione s Laura and Three Philosophers in Vienna Renaissance Humanism, Volume 1 Albert Rabil, Jr., 2016-11-11 This book is a volume in the Penn Press Anniversary Collection To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the University of Pennsylvania Press rereleased more than 1 100 titles from Penn Press s distinguished backlist from 1899 1999 that had fallen out of print Spanning an entire century the Anniversary Collection offers peer reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas The Renaissance Portrait Patricia Lee Rubin, 2011 Published in conjunction with an exhibition held at the Bode Museum Berlin Aug 25 Nov 20 2011 and at the Metropolitan Museum of Art New York Dec 21 2011 Mar 18 2012 Constantinople and the West Deno John Geanakoplos, 1989 Deno John Geanakoplos demonstrates the fusion of Byzantine and Latin cultural and eclesiastical relations in the Renaissance Art Patronage, Family, and Gender in Renaissance Florence Maria DePrano, 2018-02-22 This book examines a Renaissance Florentine family s art patronage even for women inspired by literature music love loss and religion The Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior, 1400-1700 Erin J. Campbell, Stephanie R. Miller, Elizabeth Carroll Consavari, 2016-03-23 Emphasizing on the one hand the reconstruction of the material culture of specific residences and on the other the way in which particular domestic objects reflect shape and mediate family values and relationships within the home this volume offers a distinct contribution to research on the early modern Italian domestic interior Though the essays mainly take an art historical approach the book is interdisciplinary in that it considers the social implications of domestic objects for family members of different genders age and rank as well as for visitors to the home By adopting a broad chronological framework that encompasses both Renaissance and Baroque Italy and by expanding the regional scope beyond Florence and Venice to include domestic interiors from less studied centers such as Urbino Ferrara and Bologna this collection offers genuinely new perspectives on the home in early modern Italy The Expanding Discourse Norma Broude, 2018-02-23 A sequel to the pioneering volume Feminism and Art History Questioning the Litany published in 1982 The Expanding Discourse contains 29 essays on artists and issues from the Renaissance to the present representing some of the best feminist art historical writing of the past decade Chronologically arranged the essays demonstrate the abundance diversity and main conceptual trends in recent feminist scholarship Structures and Subjectivities Adele F. Seeff, Joan Hartman, 2007 Structures and Subjectivities refers to what we can and probably cannot know about women in the early modern period Scholars study the societal structures their disciplines call attention to they are left to infer the subjectivities the lived experience of women whose lives they attempt to reconstruct The authors of the essays in the volume the fifth to emerge from conferences held by the University of Maryland's Center for Renaissance Baroque Studies place the largest possible meanings on structures They consider geographical boundaries and political and ecclesiastical institutions the gendering of hierarchies and the power of place the spaces that women constructed inhabited traveled in and worked in and by extension the literary and artistic conventions that both enabled and constrained their artistic production They also consider in several essays on pedagogy the structures in which they and their students pursue the study of early modern women institutions departments and classrooms Joan E Hartman is Professor of English emerita at the College of Staten Island The City University of New York at the University of Maryland Domenico Ghirlandaio Jeanne K. Cadogan, Domenico Ghirlandaio, 2000-01-01 Domenico Ghirlandaio was one of the most popular artists in fifteenth century Florence He worked in a variety of media including panel paintings wall murals mosaic and manuscript illumination and his workshop to which Michelangelo was apprenticed was highly influential This beautiful book offers a radically new interpretation of Ghirlandaio's life and work viewing him primarily as an artisan active within the craft traditions guild structure and workshop organizations of his day Jean K Cadogan argues that Ghirlandaio was a pivotal figure in the transformation of the artist from medieval artisan to Renaissance genius She traces his gradual social elevation which reflected the increasing respect with which he was treated by his patrons And she notes that the changes in the way he and other artists were viewed created a milieu that encouraged innovation in technique style and content qualities that were vividly displayed in Ghirlandaio's work Cadogan explains how his working method his pragmatic artisan approach to technique the organization and functioning of his workshop and his relations with his patrons affected the works of art Ghirlandaio produced Her text is complemented by a catalogue raisonné of Ghirlandaio's works in all media as well as an appendix of documents useful for scholars The Story of Florence Edmund G. Gardner, 1900 The Pollaiuolo Brothers Alison Wright, Antonio Pollaiuolo, 2005-01-01 Painters draftsmen goldsmiths sculptors and designers the Pollaiuolo brothers of fifteenth century Florence produced some of the most beautiful works of the Italian Renaissance Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1923 Feminism and Tradition in Aesthetics Peggy Zeglin Brand, Carolyn Korsmeyer, 2010-11-01 A Renaissance Likeness Loren W. Partridge, Randolph Starn, 1980-01-01 The theme of

Renaissance individualism the roles of a Renaissance pope and the settings and functions of Renaissance portrait making are explored in the image of the papa terrible Cover p 4 The Florentine Profile Portrait in the Quattrocento Jean Lipman, 1936*
