Portraits In Life And Death:

Portraits in Life and Death Peter Hujar, 2024-10-08 A new edition of the cult classic photography book by the legendary Peter Hujar I am moved by the purity of Hujar's intentions These memento mori can exorcise morbidity as effectively as they evoke its sweet poetry and its panic Susan Sontag Portraits in Life and Death is the only book of photographs published by Peter Hujar during his lifetime The twenty nine portraits of creative people ranging from William Burroughs Susan Sontag and John Waters to Larry Ree founder of the Trocadero Gloxinia Ballet Company and T C whose identity is unclear possess a haunting beauty and degree of psychological examination that is both offbeat and riveting Following the portraits come eleven images that can only be described as devastating pictures of semi preserved clothed bodies of nineteenth century Sicilians found in the arid catacombs beneath a church in Palermo There is no necessary connection in the photographs themselves or between the two sections of the book yet the pictorial progression from life to death is an emblem of the journey we all take The living subjects seem to be meditating on the mortality that is limned with such profound effect in the catacomb pictures In different ways both groups of images speak to the basic fears and emotions that we carry with us somewhere beyond our consciousness After viewing this extraordinary book it is almost impossible not to make those connections and interpretations or be moved by Hujar's consistent ability to convey what appears to be the inner spirit of his subjects Even so an air of nonchalance even gaiety hovers over the photographs The book is odd oblique sometimes opaque and certainly deeply felt but it sticks to the mind like a burr It will be noticed Once seen it cannot be forgotten Peter Hujar, 2024 Catalogue of the ... library of ... John Morice ... which will be sold by auction John Morice, 1844 *Catalogue of the valuable library of the late J. Morice, which will be sold by auction. Life, Death and Representation Jas Elsner, Janet Huskinson, 2010-12-15 This volume presents a collection of essays on different aspects of Roman sarcophagi These varied approaches will produce fresh insights into a subject which is receiving increased interest in English language scholarship with a new awareness of the important contribution that sarcophagi can make to the study of the social use and production of Roman art The book will therefore be a timely addition to existing literature Metropolitan sarcophagi are the main focus of the volume which will cover a wide time range from the first century AD to post classical periods including early Christian sarcophagi and post classical reception Other papers will look at aspects of viewing and representation iconography and marble analysis There will be an Introduction written by the co editors Hope Leslie, Or, Early Times in the Massachusetts Catharine Maria Sedgwick, 1842 Bibliographie Biographique Universelle Eduard Maris Oettinger, 1866 The Death of Aztec Tenochtitlan, the Life of Mexico City Barbara E. Mundy, 2018-03-22 Winner Book Prize in Latin American Studies Colonial Section of Latin American Studies Association LASA 2016 ALAA Book Award Association for Latin American Art Arvey Foundation 2016 The capital of the Aztec empire

Tenochtitlan was in its era one of the largest cities in the world Built on an island in the middle of a shallow lake its population numbered perhaps 150 000 with another 350 000 people in the urban network clustered around the lake shores In 1521 at the height of Tenochtitlan s power which extended over much of Central Mexico Hernando Cort s and his followers conquered the city Cort s boasted to King Charles V of Spain that Tenochtitlan was destroyed and razed to the ground But was it Drawing on period representations of the city in sculptures texts and maps The Death of Aztec Tenochtitlan the Life of Mexico City builds a convincing case that this global capital remained through the sixteenth century very much an Amerindian city Barbara E Mundy foregrounds the role the city s indigenous peoples the Nahuatl played in shaping Mexico City through the construction of permanent architecture and engagement in ceremonial actions She demonstrates that the Aztec ruling elites who retained power even after the conquest were instrumental in building and then rebuilding the city Mundy shows how the Nahuatl entered into mutually advantageous alliances with the Franciscans to maintain the city s sacred nodes She also focuses on the practical and symbolic role of the city s extraordinary waterworks the product of a massive ecological manipulation begun in the fifteenth century to reveal how the Nahuatl struggled to maintain control of water resources in early Mexico City Human Personality and Its Survival of Bodily Death: 7. Phantasms of the dead Frederic William Henry Myers,1903 the life and death of john of barneveld, advocate of holland; with a view of the primary causes and movements of the thirty years war john lothrop,1874 The Life and Death of Llewellynn Jewitt ... William Henry Goss,1889 Death in the Early Twenty-first Century Sébastien Penmellen Boret,Susan Orpett Long,Sergei Kan,2017-07-18 Focusing on tradition technology and authority this volume challenges classical understandings that mortuary rites are inherently conservative The contributors examine innovative and enduring ideas and practices of death which reflect and constitute changing patterns of social relationships memorialisation and the afterlife This cross cultural study examines the lived experiences of men and women from societies across the globe with diverse religious heritages and secular value systems The book demonstrates that mortuary practices are not fixed forms but rather dynamic processes negotiated by the dying the bereaved funeral experts and public institutions In addition to offering a new theoretical perspective on the anthropology of death this work provides a rich resource for readers interested in human responses to mortality the one certainty of human existence Portraits from Life Edmund Gosse,1991 This book contains edited versions and extracts from Gosse s essays on his friends many of them the leading writers of his period such as Tennyson Rossetti Robert Louis Stevenson and Henry James The book is interesting not only because of Gosse s personal reminiscences about these respected and popular literary figures but it also makes Gosse s vast output available for the first time to today s reader Patterns and Portraits Renée House,John Wayland Coakley,John Coakley,1999 Volume 31 in the HSRCA series explores the important and largely unacknowledged contribution of women to the history of the Reformed Church in America Much more than an expose of untold stories this significant foray into women studies discusses the church's continuing struggle to define the role of women in ministry and begins at last to rewrite the whole story of this significant North American denomination Aspects of death and correlated aspects of life in art, epigram, and poetry Frederick Parkes Weber, 1918 Death Representations in Literature Adriana Teodorescu, 2015-01-12

If the academic field of death studies is a prosperous one there still seems to be a level of mistrust concerning the capacity of literature to provide socially relevant information about death and to help improve the anthropological understanding of how culture is shaped by the human condition of mortality Furthermore the relationship between literature and death tends to be trivialized in the sense that death representations are interpreted in an over aestheticized manner As such this approach has a propensity to consider death in literature to be significant only for literary studies and gives rise to certain persistent clichés such as the power of literature to annihilate death This volume overcomes such stereotypes and reveals the great potential of literary studies to provide fresh and accurate ways of interrogating death as a steady and unavoidable human reality and as an ever continuing socio cultural construction The volume brings together researchers from various countries the USA the UK France Poland New Zealand Canada India Germany Greece and Romania with different academic backgrounds in fields as diverse as literature art history social studies criminology musicology and cultural studies and provides answers to questions such as What are the features of death representations in certain literary genres Is it possible to speak of an homogeneous vision of death in the case of some literary movements How do writers perceive imagine and describe their death through their personal diaries or how do they metabolize the death of the significant others through their writings To what extent does the literary representation of death refer to the extra fictional socio historically constructed Death Is it moral to represent death in children's literature What are the differences and similarities between representing death in literature and death representations in other connected fields Are metaphors and literary representations of death forms of death denial or on the contrary a more insightful way of capturing the meaning of death The Athenæum James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1897 From Islands to Portraits Sergio Perosa, 2000 Throughout the long course of literature islands have accumulated uncanny connotations of death together with peculiarities of linguistic definition and expression Since the age of discovery after the Caribbean Islands America itself and later the archipelagos and atolls in the Pacific became known to travellers and conquistadores islands have been sought searched explored and physically possessed as women cultural recognition takes the form of sexual and physical possession Venus was born from the sea and is identified with an island These are the themes of the first two variations discussed in this book Art Books, 1950 Including an international directory of museum permanent collection catalogs
