Romans (Understanding the Bible Commentary Series) James R. Edwards, 2011-08-01 Martin Luther called Romans the clearest gospel of all But centuries of interpretive tradition and dogma have muddled the waters Edwards s careful exposition pays attention to literary detail and historical context to clarify the Epistle s significance for its original readers and for the church today The NIBC format section by section exposition of the NIV all Greek transliterated and separate textual and technical notes make this commentary ideal for laypeople and pastors

Commentary on St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans Friedrich Adolph Philippi, 1879 A Socio-Rhetorical Interpretation of the Letter to Philemon in Light of the New Institutional Economics Alex Hon Ho Ip, 2017-09-15 In this study Alex Hon Ho Ip argues that when Paul wrote to Philemon about Onesimus his main purpose was not to try and reunite as is widely held a runaway slave with his master but rather to have Onesimus accepted as a beloved brother in Christ By examining the letter s inner texture the author shows that Paul s main concern was for Philemon and Onesimus to be reconciled in brotherly love The inter textual weave reveals Paul s theological and ethical thoughts on love which is the basis for the apostle s main argument By taking a new institutional economics approach to help reconstruct the economic relationship between slave and master Alex Hon Ho Ip is able to offer a better understanding of the original relationship Paul argued against With all this in mind the focus is on re reading the letter and hearing how Paul s rhetoric exhorts a new relationship between Onesimus and Philemon

Confronting Racial Injustice Gerald Hiestand,Joel Lawrence,2022-11-30 One of the greatest crises facing the church is the crisis of racial injustice that has so long marred the body of Christ in America Evangelicals have traditionally had a set of biblical theological and cultural tools we have used for dealing with questions about race the necessity of personal responsibility the possibility of heart renewal through faith in Jesus the transformative impact of interpersonal relationships and the bedrock conviction that every human being is made in the image of God and is thus of equal worth and dignity But in the world after 2020 the evangelical church must now recognize that our theological playbook has been ineffective in rooting out racism from the church and in confronting our own complicity in racial injustice We must now ask What other theological convictions are required of us as we consider the image bearing humanity of George Floyd Breonna Taylor Ahmaud Arbery and many others Confronting Racial Injustice explores theological vistas to aid the church in our pursuit of racial justice

The Doctrine on Which the Church Stands or Falls (Foreword by D. A.
