Safe Hands My Autobiography:

Hero in the Shadows David Tossell, 2021-11-15 Don Howe is one of English football's great coaches with an unrivalled record at international and club level. As right hand man to three England managers he helped his country to the 1990 World Cup and Euro 96 semi-finals. He helped to steer them through the 1982 World Cup unbeaten and to the quarter-finals four years later. Howe masterminded the 1970-71 double at Arsenal where two spells as coach also brought European and further FA Cup glory. He was also an integral part of one of the greatest Wembley upsets when he helped Wimbledon's Crazy Gang to victory over the mighty Liverpool in 1988. As a player at West Bromwich Albion Howe won 24 international caps but as a manager he failed to achieve the success he craved. Yet over a three decade period he won acclaim from many of England's finest players as a genius of the coaching profession. Through interviews with players, colleagues, friends and family this book examines the triumphs and challenges of Don Howe's career and assesses his contribution to English football. Wenger

Jasper Rees, 2014-04-03 Granted access to Wengers friends and family, players and rival managers Jasper Rees has written the untold story behind this private man. He follows Wenger from childhood in Alsace through his stints as a journeyman player to his coaching days at Nancy, Monaco, Grampian, Everton and Arsenal.

Safe Hands David Seaman, 2001 England hero and Arsenal living legend tells his own story. THE sports book of the year updated to include the 2000-2001 season. My

Story Frederic Jesup Stimson, 1917 Second Yellow John Smith, 2020-09-21 Second Yellow More Adventures of our Footballing Heroes brings you more funny, fascinating and downright baffling tales gleaned by authors John Smith and Dan Trelfer from their unflagging research of over 240 footballer autobiographies. Together they have pored through the works of genuine legends, cult heroes and players they can only dimly recall from their 1983 Panini sticker albums to find stories and facts that will delight, shock and confuse sometimes all at once. There's the chairman who owned a ventriloquist's dummy called Algernon. There's the Liverpool legend who set a team mate's wife's hair on fire. There's the Arsenal star who confronted some innocent fans with a samurai sword. And there's the Ipswich hero who took on Sylvester Stallone in an arm wrestling contest possibly inspiring Stallone's half-forgotten epic Over The Top. This book covers all the bases of the typical footballer's life: love, violence, gambling, horrific injury, banter. It's mostly banter and apparently pigeons. The Last Line:

My Autobiography Packie Bonner, 2015-10-01 Irish national hero, a Celtic great and their most capped player. Patrick Packie Bonner is a goalkeeping legend. He was Jock Stein's last signing for the club when he left his native Donegal for the city of Glasgow in 1978 where Packie evolved from being a shy homesick teenager into a confident world class talent and first choice goalkeeper. Billy McNeill handed him a debut on St Patrick's Day in 1979 and Packie went on to provide the last line of defence a record 641 times for the club. A seasoned Irish internationalist, Packie was a vital component in the most celebrated Irish national squad ever playing in a golden era under the tutelage of the inimitable Jack Charlton. In The Last Line Packie shares stories from his incredible career including his greatest moment in front of a global audience during the Italia 90.

World Cup tournament when he became the penalty shoot out hero of the nation by saving a spot kick that took the Irish to the quarter finals stage in their very first World Cup adventure It was an iconic moment that would change his life forever not least because whilst in Italy he along with his teammates had an audience with another goalkeeper Pope John Paul II Throughout his 80 cap international career he competed against the very best in the world Men such as Ruud Gullit Marco Van Basten Gheorghe Hagi Roberto Baggio and Gary Lineker came to know the name Packie Bonner Equally in his glittering Celtic career that included the winning of four Scottish League titles three Scottish Cups and one Scottish League Cup Packie Bonner played alongside some great Celtic names like Tommy Burns Paul McStay and Murdo Macleod Along the way Packie had to endure a career threatening back injury as well as the devastation of a routine save going wrong and costing a goal on the world stage against Holland in 1994 ultimately leading to elimination from the World Cup in America More than just the telling of trophies titles and triumphs this is the story of a Celtic legend and a true great of Irish International football
