Abbas, 2018-10-15 In a time when our loves feel conscripted and exhausted by what we often do not remember desiring Another Love A Politics of the Unrequited explores the form method imperatives and inflections of love in the global post colony and offers a way to re apprehend and re inscribe love in an anticolonial materialist and nonfascist politics and aesthetics The figure of the unrequited is invoked as a symptom of a brutally loveless yet effusively sentimentalized era and also as an ineluctable yet very concrete political location in the face of both the intensifying external realities of war occupation apartheid austerity and terror as well as the increasingly normalized internalizations of ordinary imperialism nationalism neoliberalism fascism and colonialism all of which seem bent on extinguishing the possibility of relation itself The book asks that we look at practices of love and other material labors that yield and sustain these realities within complex lifeworlds indeed those which sustain entire systems of our subjection extraction and disposability such as colonialism capitalism liberalism and fascism as lifeworlds especially when given dominant forms of recognition affection embrace and belonging are unacceptable or even repulsive Distancing itself from shortcuts afforded by love's abstract forms deployed in ethical and moral discourses that at once elevate it yet wholly reduce it to a timeless apolitical essence Another Love sees love as a material and political relation to time and space signaling willed and unwilled shifts in historical reality in societies juggling various wars and annihilations It maintains that love is something in and with which we confess our complicities not only with but also against hegemonic notions of belonging devotion martyrdom hospitality publicity collectivity and solidarity nurtured and harvested under capital and colony The longing and the love missed by the pernicious and reactionary politics both of liberal democracy and the incidental fascisms that it claims to set out to fix can give us clues into past present and future moments of rebellion resistance rejection and redemption that are crucial to a liberatory anticolonial and antifascist politic and to rethinking attachment desire and relation itself      Follow Your Light Beverly Conyers, 2020-08-25 This first

Jazz Philip Quaite, 2009 The Jeremiah Project Part 1-The Scrapbook A. J. Foltz, 2013-04 Turn off all the noise and get yourself comfortable Jeremiah invites you in The Jeremiah Project Part 1 The Scrapbook has the bones of a study guide but as Scripture is searched and questions are answered the study takes on the form of a novelette The study begins with Jeremiah s official appointment Jeremiah will represent the Lord in a monumental court case that administers justice This case still affects us today The Lord had a legal and binding relationship with Israel Their relationship is compared to marriage in this study of God s Word When God acquired Israel as a vessel bride Israel acquired God s promises which were outlined in a living and breathing contract The once gracious contract which united the two parties in holy union has by legal recourse become a beast which in study serves to bind the pair in its merciless grip The Jeremiah Project Part 1 The Scrapbook is a user friendly study that you cannot afford to miss It s like finding a few more pieces to that big puzzle of life Some of us have a good start at putting it all together but the picture of life becomes a little clearer and makes more sense after spending some time with Jeremiah You will find insightful information as he by appointment from God delivers wisdom comfort and strength that will get many through the upheaval in our world

HEARTSTRINGS SUVASMITA PANDA, ANKITA GURU, 2021-01-10 The heart is a peculiar organ It skips a beat every time it finds someone worthy to be treasured And often it turns out to be a closet to conceal the deepest emotions brewing within And when the
