A Companion to Middle English Hagiography Sarah Salih, 2006 The saints were the superheroes and the celebrities of medieval England bridging the gap between heaven and earth the living and the dead A vast body of literature evolved during the middle ages to ensure that everyone from kings to peasants knew the stories of the lives deaths and afterlives of the saints However despite its popularity and ubiquity the genre of the Saint's Life has until recently been little studied This collection introduces the canon of Middle English hagiography places it in the context of the cults of saints analyses key themes within hagiographic narrative including gender power violence and history and finally shows how hagiographic themes survived the Reformation Overall it offers both information for those coming to the genre for the first time and points forward to new trends in research Dr SARAH SALIH is a Lecturer in English at the University of East Anglia Contributors SAMANTHA RICHES MARY BETH LONG CLAIRE M WATERS ROBERT MILLS ANKE BERNAU KATHERINE J LEWIS MATTHEW WOODCOCK

Writing and Holiness Derek Krueger, 2013-04-03 Drawing on comparative literature ritual and performance studies and the history of asceticism Derek Krueger explores how early Christian writers came to view writing as salvific as worship through the production of art Exploring the emergence of new and distinctly Christian ideas about authorship in late antiquity Writing and Holiness probes saints lives and hymns produced in the Greek East to reveal how the ascetic call to imitate Christ's humility rendered artistic and literary creativity problematic In claiming authority and power hagiographers appeared to violate the saintly practices that they sought to promote Christian writers meditated within their texts on these tensions and ultimately developed a new set of answers to the question What is an author Each of the texts examined here used writing as a technique for the representation of holiness Some are narrative representations of saints that facilitate veneration others are collections of accounts of miracles composed to publicize a shrine Rather than viewing an author's piety as a barrier to historical inquiry Krueger argues that consideration of writing as a form of piety opens windows onto new modes of practice He interprets Christian authors as participants in the religious system they described as devotees monastics and faithful emulators of the saints and he shows how their literary practice integrated authorship into other Christian practices such as asceticism devotion pilgrimage liturgy and sacrifice In considering the distinctly literary contributions to the formation of Christian piety in late antiquity Writing and Holiness uncovers Christian literary theories with implications for both Eastern and Western medieval literatures

South Asian Folklore Peter Claus, Sarah Diamond, Margaret Mills, 2020-10-28 With 600 signed alphabetically organized articles covering the entirety of folklore in South Asia this new resource includes countries and regions ethnic groups religious concepts and practices artistic genres holidays and traditions and many other concepts A preface introduces the material while a comprehensive index cross references and black and white illustrations round out the work The focus on south Asia includes Afghanistan Bangladesh India Pakistan and Sri Lanka with short survey articles on Tibet Bhutan Sikkim and various diaspora communities This unique reference will be invaluable for collections serving students scholars and the general public

Emotion in Motion Mike Robinson, David Picard, 2016-05-06 What happens when tourists scream with fear shout with anger and frustration weep with joy and delight or even faint in the face of revealed beauty How can certain sites affect some tourists so deeply that they require hospitalisation and psychiatric treatment What are the inner contours of tourist experience and how does it relate to specific emotional cultures What are the consequences of the emotional cultures of tourists upon destinations How are differences in emotional culture mobilized and played out in the transnational contact zones of international tourism While many books have engaged with the structural frames of tourist practice and experience this is the first to deal with the emotional dimensions of tourism travel and contact and the ways in which they can transform tourists destinations and travel cultures through emotional engagements The book brings together an international array of scholars from anthropology psychiatry history cultural geography and critical tourism studies to explore how the movement to and through the realms of exotic people wild nature's subliminal art spirit worlds metropolitan cities and sexualised others variably provoke emotions peak experiences travel syndromes and inner dialogues The authors show how tourism challenges us to engage with concepts of self other time nature sex the body and death Through a set of ethnographic and historic cases they demonstrate that such engagements usually have little to do with the actual destination but rather are deeply anchored in personal memories repressed fears and desires and the collective imaginaries of our societies Religion in the History of the Medieval West John Van Engen, 2023-05-31 These ten essays by John Van Engen situate religion in the history of medieval Western Europe as an unavoidable presence in everyday life as a conceptual framework for social and political life as a force integral to its historical dynamics Four of the essays are bibliographical and retrospective in nature reviewing the field broadly but also pointing toward a more dialectical approach to understanding the interaction of religion and society in the European middle ages Other studies deal with large topics usually subsumed under the abstract term Christianization They grapple with learned sources as well as those associated with popular religion and show what can be gained from an imaginative use of all that lawyers and theologians said about religion in their society The essays finally look for the quality and dynamic of change even inventiveness released by religious action and conviction in medieval European society The Oxford Handbook of Religion in Modern Ireland Gladys Ganiel, Andrew R. Holmes, 2024 This volume offers a range of sociological political and historical perspectives on religion in Ireland from 1800 to the present Going beyond the usual Catholicism Protestantism dichotomy and adopting an all island approach the book's contributors address religion's interaction with several contemporary themes and debates in modern Ireland Versions of Virginity in Late Medieval England Sarah Salih, 2001 This study looks at the question of what it meant to be a virgin in the Middle Ages and the forms which female virginity took It begins with the assumptions that there is more to virginity than sexual inexperience and that virginity may be considered as a gendered identity The Life and After-Life of St John of Beverley Susan E. Wilson, 2017-07-28 This represents the first study devoted to the life and after life of St John of Beverley John was bishop of Hexham and then York after which he retired to his own monastery in Beverley and was buried there in 721 His cult was quickly established and spread to attract pilgrims from all over the British Isles and even Europe It was also established in Brittany by the tenth century especially in the town of Saint Jean Br velay which is named after him The great economic wealth of Beverley in the Middle Ages was largely due to it being a major ecclesiastical centre focused around John's relics His reputation as a powerful saint was harnessed not only to protect Beverley and the surrounding areas and to give succour to pilgrims to his shrine but also to further the ambitions of successive kings of England to the extent that Henry V raised him to the status of a patron saint of England following the battle of Agincourt which was fought on the feast day of St John's translation The hagiographic works on John extend over nearly six hundred years from that written by Bede c 731 the Vita Sancti Johannis composed by a monk called Folcard c 1066 then four separate collections of post mortem miracle stories of the eleventh thirteenth centuries and a number of miracles recorded in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries This span is greater even than the hagiography relating to St Benedict which had been believed to cover more years than any other collection in Europe Dr Wilson uses these sources as a unique opportunity to examine the ways in which an Anglo Saxon saint was promoted over a long period of time by different hagiographers and how the saint was continually re created in the image which the hagiographers or his community required depending on their current needs and perceptions The volume also includes the first English translations of the Life and the miracle stories      A Companion to Medieval Canonization Processes ,2025-03-24 Canonizations which officially proclaimed a person s sanctity were complex embracing theological judicial social and cultural aspects of medieval Christianity The dossiers manifest the theological ponderings while also revealing the devotional practices daily life and troubles of those not learned in canon law or theology This volume offers tools for comprehending canonization processes by investigating their judicial background and structural elements as well as devotional aspects reflected in the depositions It approaches canonization processes in a three fold way as a phenomenon of the past as a source material with methodological challenges and as a specific field of historical studies Furthermore this volume engages in innovative methodological discussions and illuminates the state of the art and topical new themes Contributors include Christian Kr tzl Maria Teresa Fattori Didier Lett Saku Pihko Jenni Kuuliala Nicole Archambeau Adelheid Russenberger Jyrki Nissi Laura Ackerman Smoller Sari Katajala Peltomaa Marika R s nen and Jonathan Greenwood

Hagiography and the History of Latin Christendom, 500-1500 ,2019-12-02 Hagiography and the History of Latin Christendom 500 1500 shows the historical value of texts celebrating saints both the most abundant medieval source material and among the most difficult to use Hagiographical sources present many challenges they are usually anonymous often hard to date full of topoi and unstable Moreover they are generally not what we would consider factually accurate The volume s twenty one contributions draw on a range of disciplines and employ a variety of innovative methods to address these challenges and reach new discoveries about the medieval world that extend well beyond the study of sanctity They show the rich potential of hagiography to enhance our knowledge of that world and some of the ways to unlock it Contributors are Ellen Arnold Helen Birkett Edina Bozoky Emma Campbell Adrian Cornell du Houx David Defries Albrecht Diem Cynthia Hahn Samantha Kahn Herrick J K Kitchen Jamie Kreiner Klaus Kr nert Mathew Kuefler Katherine J Lewis Giovanni Paolo Maggioni Charles M riaux Paul Oldfield Sara Ritchey Catherine Saucier Laura Ackerman Smoller and Ineke van t Spijker See inside the book      The Cult of St Katherine of Alexandria in Early Medieval Europe Christine Walsh,2017-05-15 St Katherine of Alexandria was one of the most popular saints in both the Orthodox and Latin Churches in the later Middle Ages yet there has been little study of how her cult developed before c 1200 This book redresses the balance providing a thorough examination of the way the cult spread from the Greek speaking lands of the Eastern Mediterranean and into Western Europe The author uses the full range of source material available including liturgical texts hagiographies chronicles and iconographical evidence bringing together these often disparate sources to map the way in which the cult of St Katherine grew from its early stages in the Byzantine Empire up to c 1100 its transmission to Italy and the introduction and development of the cult in Normandy and England up to c 1200 The book also includes appendices listing early manuscripts containing Katherine's Passio and including key original texts on St Katherine of the period. This study will be welcomed by scholars of medieval history and the history of medieval art and as a case study for all those with an interest in the development of medieval saint's cults.

A Bibliographic Guide to the Comparative Study of Ethics John Braisted Carman, Mark Juergensmeyer, William Darrow, 1991-04-26 This bibliography is the culmination of four years' work by a team of noted scholars; its annotated entries are organised by religious tradition and cover each tradition's central concepts, offering a judicious selection of primary and secondary works as well as recommendations of cross-cultural topics to be explored. Specialists in the history and literature of religions and comparative religion will find this bibliography a valuable research tool.

The Ashgate Research Companion to the Counter-Reformation Alexandra Bamji, Geert H. Janssen, Mary Laven, 2016-03-23 In the last two decades the history of the Counter-Reformation has been stretched and reshaped in numerous directions. Reflecting the variety and innovation that characterize studies of early modern Catholicism, today this volume incorporates topics as diverse as life cycle and community science and the senses, the performing and visual arts, material objects and print culture, war and the state, sacred landscapes and urban structures. Moreover, it challenges the conventional chronological parameters of the Counter-Reformation and introduces the reader to the latest research on global Catholicism. The Ashgate Research Companion to the Counter-Reformation presents a comprehensive examination of recent scholarship on early modern Catholicism in its many guises. It examines how the Tridentine reforms inspired conflict and conversion and evaluates lives and identities, spirituality, culture and religious change. This wide-ranging and original research guide is a unique resource for scholars and students of European and transnational history.

Landscapes of Christianity James S. Bielo, Amos S. Ron, 2022-09-22 How do Christians make relationships with land central to their faith? How have the realities of materiality, geography and ecology shaped Christian territories of belonging and theologies of territory? What social, economic, political conditions surround exchanges between religion and nature? This book explores how Christianity intersects with nature to create unique religious landscapes. Case studies range from the Mormon Trail across the USA, completed by thousands every year, to the Catholic devotional cult of and shrine to St Padre Pio of Pietrelcina. Contributors examine the entangled forms of agency between nature and culture that are at work as Christians produce, consume, experience, imagine, inhabit, manage and struggle over formations of land. Focusing on Christian engagements with land forms in the early 21st century, this book advances the spatial turn in the study of religion, contributes to the anthropology of religion and the study of global Christianities as well as our understanding of the relationship between Christianity, space and place.

Canonization and Decanonization A. Van Debeek, Karel Van Der Toorn, 1998 This volume is the most wide-ranging religious historical study on de-canonization ever published. It contains significant contributions to the study of canonization in different religions in ancient times as well as in modern societies. An Annotated Bibliography adds greatly to its value.

Kerala Christian Sainthood Corinne G. Dempsey, 2001-01-25 Kerala Christian Sainthood is an ethnography based study that celebrates the multi vocal function of saints Drawing on pilgrim anecdotes shrine practices official hagiographies and regional lore author Corinne Dempsey demonstrates how the business of saints routinely extends beyond their capacity as earthly conduits of miraculous power Saintly characters described in this book hailing from the religiously pluralistic south Indian state of Kerala tend not only to the health and happiness of individual devotees but help craft and express the multiple identities and complex power relations of their devotional communities as well Throughout the study Dempsey highlights the traditions of Sr Alphonsa of Bharananganam 1910 1946 and St George the martyr two figures who reflect the many preoccupations of Kerala sainthood Sr Alphonsa native of Kerala and famous for her life of suffering and posthumous power stands in line to be canonized by the Vatican St George the caped dragon slayer imported to Kerala by Syrian merchants and later by Portuguese and British colonizers is today partially debunked by Rome These two figures while differing dramatically in temperament nationality age of cult and Vatican standing boast a vast popular appeal in Kerala s Kottayam district In examining Sr Alphonsa and St George Dempsey shows how Kerala s saint traditions reflect devotees hybrid identities in both colonial and postcolonial times This ethnography of Christian sainthood within a Hindu cultural context of foreign traditions adopted by native practice and of female sanctity negotiated through patriarchal expectation is poised at a number of intersections Dempsey provides not only a comparative study of cultures religions and worldviews but also a unique grounding for contemporary ethnographic post colonial and feminist concerns
