The Big Book of Women Saints Sarah Gallick,2009-11-11 A fascinating collection that profiles more than 400 inspiring Catholic women Library Journal Most books about the saints are thin on women especially contemporary women Even Fr Alban Butler's popular Lives of the Saints lists far more men than women No book about the saints could ignore such beloved early martyrs as Agnes of Rome and Lucy of Syracuse but this new book will introduce you to many new women who have been canonized or beatified in recent decades Among them are martyrs and mystics rebellious daughters loving wives and mothers reformed prostitutes restless visionaries and humble recluses Of the hundreds of women mentioned 159 have been canonized or beatified since 1979 Approximately 100 of them lived in the twentieth century This book is also unique in that it uses the saint's own words wherever possible taking advantage of newly discovered archives memoirs and other primary sources It includes resources such as internet shrines and other websites as well as little known information on the canonization process A beautiful and concise guide to the luminous women who inspire us to deeper faith Edward L Beck author of God Underneath Spiritual Memoirs of a Catholic Priest Marriage Customs of the World George P.

Distortion and Love Nigel Rapport,2016-07-07 In this ground breaking book a theory of distortion of the way in which the processes of human life are subject to interference diversion and transformation is developed by way of the art of one of Britain's greatest twentieth century painters and that art's public reception Devoted to his native village of Cookham on Thames Stanley Spencer painted not only landscapes and portraits with loving detail but also the memory feelings which he felt were a sacred part of his consciousness Yet Spencer was also a controversial public figure with some taking the view that his visionary paintings were ugly distortions of human life even marks of an immoral nature Examining how Spencer lived his vision how he painted it and wrote it and also how his attempts to communicate that vision were received by his contemporaries and have continued to be interpreted since his death the author posits distortion as key an intrinsic aspect both of human creation and of human interaction What we intend to make to say to do and have done often mutates in the process of being expressed or put into effect we live amid distortion Love the affective appreciation of one another is then a means by which we accommodate distortion and its consequences in our lives An illustration through Stanley Spencer's story of significant aspects of a human condition this book will appeal across disciplines including to art historians and students of Spencer's work as well as to scholars of anthropology with interests in creativity perception and interpretation
