As Pope Benedict XVI has said A writer once said that angels can fly because they don't take themselves too seriously Maybe we could also fly a bit if we didn't think we were so important Imagine the pontiff now in his eighties and undoubtedly feeling the pains of growing older himself cracking a joke about it to one of the cardinals in the Vatican So must every married couple do as they go about the business of maintaining a loving committed relationship but discover that they still get on each other's nerves occasionally Here is The Third Book of Catholic Jokes chosen and told by Deacon Tom Sheridan the former editor of The Catholic New World the newspaper of the Archdiocese of Chicago He is now retired and living with his wife in Florida The book also features a Foreword by Father James Martin SJ the culture editor of America magazine and the author of Between Heaven and Mirth Why Joy Humor and Laughter Are at the Heart of the Spiritual Life This edition of this popular series of books focuses on the universal and often hilarious human experience of relating to one another and growing old together These stories jokes lists and one liners are mostly about lay people and are told from a Catholic that is Roman Catholic or a catholic that is universal and about everyone perspective They are clean and not mean and are certainly not intended to offend anyone of any faith or situation in life But if we can't make fun of ourselves about the difficulties of growing older or trying to maintain our most intimate relationships over a lifetime then how can we ever expect to fly a bit
