Communities of Saint Martin Sharon Farmer, 2019-03-15 Sharon Farmer here investigates the ways in which three medieval communities the town of Tours the basilica of Saint Martin there and the abbey of Marmoutier nearby all defined themselves through the cult of Saint Martin She demonstrates how in the early Middle Ages the bishops of Tours used the cult of Martin their fourth-century predecessor to shape an idealized image of Tours as Martin's town As the heirs to Martin's see the bishops projected themselves as the rightful leaders of the community However in the late eleventh century she shows the canons of Saint Martin where the saint's relics resided and the monks of Marmoutier which Martin had founded took control of the cult and produced new legends and rituals to strengthen their corporate interests Since the basilica and the abbey differed in their spiritualities structures and external ties the canons and monks elaborated and manipulated Martin's cult in quite different ways Farmer shows how one saint's cult lent itself to these varying uses and analyzes the strikingly dissimilar Martins that emerged Her skillful inquiry into the relationship between group identity and cultural expression illuminates the degree to which culture is contested territory Farmer's rich blend of social history and hagiography will appeal to a wide range of medievalists cultural anthropologists religious historians and urban historians

Saints and Spectacle Carolyn L. Connor, 2016-02-10 Saints and Spectacle examines the origins and reception of the Middle Byzantine program of mosaic decoration This complex and colorful system of images covers the walls and vaults of churches with figures and compositions seen against a dazzling gold ground The surviving eleventh-century churches with their wall and vault mosaics largely intact Hosios Loukas Nea Moni and Daphni in Greece pose the challenge of how when and where this complex and gloriously conceived system was created Using an interdisciplinary approach Connor explores the urban culture and context of church building in Constantinople capital of the Byzantine Empire during the century following the end of Iconoclasm of around 843 to 950 The application of an innovative frame of reference through ritual studies helps recreate the likely scenario in which the medium of mosaics attained its highest potential in the mosaiced Byzantine church For mosaics were enlisted to convey a religious and political message that was too nuanced to be expressed in any other way At a time of revival of learning and the arts and development of ceremonial practices the Byzantine emperor and patriarch were united in creating a solution to the problem of consolidating the Greek Orthodox Byzantine Empire It was through promoting a vision of the unchallengeable authority residing in God and his earthly representative the emperor The beliefs and processional practices affirming the protective role of the saints in which the entire city participated were critical to the reception of this vision by the populace as well as the court Mosaics were a luxury medium that was ideally situated aesthetically to convey a message at a particularly important historical moment a brilliant solution to a problem that was to subtly unite an empire for centuries to come Supported by a wealth of testimony from literary sources Saints and Spectacle brings the Middle Byzantine church to life as the witness to a compelling and fascinating drama
