Performing Religion Gregory F. Barz, 2016-08-09 Performing Religion considers issues related to Tanzanian kwayas KiSwahili choirs musical communities most often affiliated with Christian churches and the music they make known as nyimbo za kwaya choir songs or muziki wa kwaya choir music The analytical approach adopted in this text focusing on the communities of kwaya is one frequently used in the fields of ethnomusicology religious studies culture studies and philosophy for understanding diversified social processes consciousness By invoking consciousness an attempt is made to represent the ways seemingly disparate traditions coexist thrive and continue within contemporary kwaya performance An East African kwaya is a community that gathers several times each week to define its spirituality musically Members of kwayas come together to sing to pray to support individual members in times of need and to both learn and pass along new and inherited faith traditions Kwayas negotiate between multiple musical traditions or just as often they reject an inherited musical system while others may continue to engage musical repertoires from both Europe and Africa Contemporary kwayas comfortably coexist in the urban musical soundscape of coastal Dar es Salaam along with jazz dance bands taarab ensembles ngoma performance groups Hindi film music rap reggae and the constant influx of recorded American and European popular musics This ethnography calls into question terms frequently used to draw tight boundaries around the study of the arts in African expressive religious cultures Such divisions of the arts present well defended boundaries and borders that are not sufficient for understanding the change adaptation preservation and integration that occur within a Tanzanian kwaya Boundaries break down within the everyday performance of East African kwayas such as Kwaya ya Upendo The Love Choir in Dar es Salaam as repertoires traditions histories and cultures interact within a performance of social identity

Introducing Linguistics

Joyce Bruhn de Garavito, John W. Schwieter, 2021-01-21 Everything we do involves language Assuming no prior knowledge this book offers students a contemporary introduction to the study of language Each thought provoking chapter is accessible to readers from a variety of fields and is helpfully organized across six parts sound structure and meaning language typologies and change language and social aspects language acquisition and language cognition and the brain The book s companion website also offers three brief chapters on language and computers animal communication and dialectal varieties of English The chapters feature illustrative tables figures and maps along with three types of pedagogical boxes Linguistic Tidbits Pause and Reflect and Eyes on World Languages that break up text contextualize information and provide colourful accents that give real data from languages across the globe Key words are bolded and defined in a glossary at the end of the book while end of chapter summaries and practice exercises reinforce the key points discussed

The Migrant in Arab Literature Martina Censi, Maria Elena Paniconi, 2022-12-20 This edited book offers a collection of fresh and critical essays that explore the representation of the migrant subject in modern and contemporary Arabic literature and discuss its role in shaping new forms of transcultural and transnational identities The selection of essays in this volume offers a set of new insights on a cluster of tropes self discovery alienation nostalgia transmission and translation of knowledge sense of exile reconfiguration of the relationship with the past and the identity and the building of transnational identity A coherent yet multi faceted narrative of micro stories and of transcultural and transnational Arab identities will emerge from the essays the volume aims at reversing the traditional perspective according to which a migrant subject is a non political actor In contrast to many books about migration and literature this one explores how the migrant subject becomes a specific literary trope a catalyst of modern alienation displacement and uncertain identity suggesting new forms of subjectification Multiple representations of the migrant subject inform and perform the possibility of new post national and transcultural individual and group identities and actively contribute to rewriting and decolonizing history

Pursuing Just Peace: An Overview and Case Studies for Faith-Based Peacebuilders Mark M. Rogers, Tom Bamat, Julie Ideh, 2008-03-24 This book on faith based peacebuilding is a practical resource for peacebuilding practitioners and all others who are grappling with injustice and conflict Seven case studies describe concrete initiatives within highly diverse contexts Three case studies focus on strengthening internal church peacebuilding capacity through peace education one looks at the role of alliances and networks in advocacy for addressing gender based violence and three focus on ecumenical and inter religious collaboration

An introductory essay provides a general overview and literature review for faith based peacebuilding discusses processes and describes key roles that faith based actors can play The Undergraduate's Companion to Arab Writers and Their Web Sites Dona S. Straley,2004-08-30 This companion provides information on the lives and works of about 150 authors who write primarily in Arabic covering the first known works of Arabic literature in the 5th and 6th centuries A D to the present day While concentrating on literary authors writers from the fields of history geography and philosophy are also represented The individuals represented were chosen primarily from the Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Among the major authors are Najib Mahfuz the 1988 Nobel laureate Nawal Saadawi the Egyptian physician who is the leading female literary author in the Arab world and the most frequently translated into English Abu al Ala al Ma arri the 11th century poet whose verses are taught to every Arab schoolchild and Avicenna the great physician and philosopher transmitter and interpreter of Aristotle whose work on medicine was long the standard not only in the Middle East but also in Latin translation in Europe In addition entries will be included for the anonymous romances so common in Arabic literature such as The Arabian Nights a cycle of stories perhaps even better known in the West than in the Arab world Interest in the history and culture of the Arab world at U S universities has taken a quantum leap since the events of September 11 2001 In this book the author demonstrates that at least three major distinct literary and cultural traditions are included within the fields of Middle Eastern and Islamic studies Arabic Persian and Turkic The Arabic tradition is the oldest largest and most widely dispersed Undergraduate courses in Arabic literature and culture are now being taught at both lower and upper levels at many universities Such courses are often used by undergraduates to fulfill basic educational requirements for their degrees Students in such courses often have difficulty finding information on Arab writers and this volume fills the void Salam Pax Salam Pax,2003 Bringing these writings together for the first time Salam Pax The Clandestine Diary of an Ordinary Iraqi provides one of the most gripping accounts of the Iraqi conflict Jacket Movements, Borders, and Identities in Africa Toyin Falola,Aribidesi Adisa Usman,2009 Migration has become a continuous phenomenon in the history of human societies Migration is synonymous with the history of Africa itself The migration of individuals and groups over time is associated with the emergence of cultures and of civilizations throughout the world This book establishes the centrality of migrations and movements of people in the historical evolution of African peoples and societies By making use of different sources oral archaeological and written and focusing on various subjects and geographical areas the book shows that migration was a multifaceted phenomenon which varied in nature and character over time and in different places Using carefully selected case studies drawn from across the continent the book provides a broad but insightful overview of the subject of migrations and the varying impact of slavery commerce gender religion colonialism poverty and development on the movements of people and ideas and on the development of states and societies on the continent most especially in the last two centuries The chapters are based on original research and recent thinking on migrations in Africa and their changing forms and dynamics since the pre colonial period The various topics addressed include the causes and consequences of migration population movements displacements migration experiences settlement patterns and strategies labor mobility immigrant societies identity and culture contact as well as conceptual and methodological aspects of research on migration The contributors represent scholars from diverse fields with extensive teaching and research experience Thus the book provides a broad but insightful overview of the subject of migrations from Preface and Introduction

Arab Voices in Diaspora

Layla Al Maleh, Layla Maleh, 2009 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader Diana Abu Jaber Leila Aboulela Leila Ahmed Rabih Alameddine Edward Atiyah Shaw Dallal Ibrahim Fawal Fadia Faqir Khalil Gibran Suheir Hammad Loubna Haikal Nada Awar Jarrar Jad El Hage Lawrence Joseph Mohja Kahf Jamal Mahjoub Hisham Matar Dunya Mikhail Samia Serageldine Naomi Shihab Nye Ameen Rihani Mona Simpson Ahdaf Soueif and Cecile Yazbak Contributors Victoria M Abboud Diya M Abdo Samaa Abdurraqib Marta Cariello Carol Fadda Conrey Cristina Garrig s Lamia Hammad Yasmeen Hanoosh Wa l S Hassan Richard E Hishmeh Syrine Hout Layla Al Maleh Brinda J Mehta Dawn Mirapuri Geoffrey P Nash Boulus Sarrou Fadia Fayezy Suyoufie

Memories of German Colonialism in Tanzania

Reginald Elias Kirey, 2023-08-21 German colonial history in today Tanzania Mainland is extensively documented but it has not been studied from its memory perspective despite it being widely remembered among the Tanzanians This book documents German colonial memories as shared cultural legacy that exists in forms of monuments archives and historical sites It also presents them as trans generational memory narratives that live in people s memories that are also commemorated in different ways like erection of war monuments The book analyzes memories of colonialism from the historical perspective showing how the collective memories like monuments and commemorations have undergone structural and institutional changes over time The study uses Michael Rothberg s multi directional theory together with other theoretical approaches to analyze various forms of German colonial memories in Tanzanian context The findings which are analyzed historically indicate that the collective memories of the Germans are cultural communicative commemorative functional and topographical They are also traumatic as well as nostalgic
