Pedigree and Panache Shireen Huda, 2008-04-01 Art auctions have long captured the public imagination They regularly make news headlines and have become synonymous with glamour money and social distinction The marketing of auction houses and the works they sell has resulted in firms attaining authoritative positions and the ability both to influence and reflect collecting tastes Pedigree and panache is the first comprehensive history of the art auction in Australia In this fascinating work Shireen Huda investigates the construction of the glamorous reputation of art auctions and art auction houses Featuring absorbing case studies of key art auctions and major art auction houses in Australia including Christies Sothebys and Deutscher Menzies the work provides an overview of the origin and international development of art auctions The development of the Australian marketplace is then explored detailing colonial inception and continuing until Christies withdrawal of its saleroom presence in 2006 Provided by publisher

Hunting the Collectors Susan Cochrane, Max Quanchi, 2014-11-10 This volume investigates Pacific collections held in Australian museums art galleries and archives and the diverse group of 19th and 20th century collectors responsible for their acquisition The nineteen essays reveal varied personal and institutional motivations that eventually led to the conservation preservation and exhibition in Australia of a remarkable archive of Pacific Island material objects art and crafts photographs and documents Hunting the Collectors benchmarks the importance of Pacific Collections in Australia and is a timely contribution to the worldwide renaissance of interest in Oceanic arts and cultures The essays suggest that the custodial role is not fixed and immutable but fluctuates with the perceived importance of the collection which in turn fluctuates with the level of national interest in the Pacific neighbourhood This cyclical rise and fall of Australian interest in the Pacific Islands means many of the valuable early collections in state and later national repositories and institutions have been rarely exhibited or published But as the authors note enthusiastic museum anthropologists curators collection managers and university based scholars across Australia and worldwide have persisted with research on material collected in the Pacific This volume is a very important one for anyone studying the art and material culture of the Pacific It focuses on collections now in Australia Even those well versed in museum collections from the Pacific will learn about many important but little known collectors as well as better known figures like the anthropologists F E Williams and Thomas Farrell the husband of Queen Emma This will be a treat for students and specialist alike Professor Robert L Welsch University of Dartmouth
