Canadiana, 1982 Fascinating Canada John Robert Colombo, 2011-05-27 Few people have read as widely in the field of Canadiana as has John Robert Colombo. The curiosity of this Toronto writer, editor, and anthologist knows few if any bounds when it comes to the lore, literature, history, culture, and character of Canada. He has an inquiring mind and he seems able to find national and even international twists to subjects of interest or importance. Fascinating Canada, his latest book, is the product of over half a century of research, reading, writing, and thinking. Some years ago the author produced a trilogy of question and answer books: 1 000 Questions about Canada, 999 Questions about Canada, 1 000 Questions about Canada. The first two were published by Doubleday Canada; the third one in 2001 by Dundurn Press. The same format is adapted to the material in the present book, but this time the majority of the questions are short, whereas a good many of the answers are quite long discussions of the subjects at hand: concise questions followed by considered answers. Here is a book about the Canadian past, present, and future. The information in Fascinating Canada is organized under four headings: People, Places, Things, Ideas, and there is a detailed Index for ready reference. This book may serve as a work of popular reference, but it has been written to stimulate inquiry and spark the sense of surprise in the minds of readers who know something about this amazing country but perhaps not as much as the author. Open this book and begin to read and match wits with author and researcher John Robert Colombo.

The Canadian Year Book for ..., 1899 Bridges to Understanding Linda M. Pavonetti, 2011-08-18 This is the fourth volume sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People following Children's Books from Other Countries 1998, The World Through Children's Books 2002, and Crossing Boundaries 2006. This latest volume, edited by Linda M. Pavonetti, includes books published between 2005 and 2009. This annotated bibliography, organized geographically by world region and country, with descriptions of nearly 700 books representing more than 70 countries, is a valuable resource for librarians, teachers, and anyone else seeking to promote international understanding through children's literature. Like its predecessors, it will be an important tool for providing stories that will help children understand our differences while simultaneously demonstrating our common humanity.

A Book of Canadian Prose and Verse Edmund Kemper Broadus, Eleanor Hammond Broadus, 1923 A History of Canadian Literature William H. New, William Herbert New, 2003 New offers an unconventionally structured overview of Canadian literature from Native American mythologies to contemporary texts. Publishers Weekly: A History of Canadian Literature looks at the work of writers and the social and cultural contexts that helped shape their preoccupations and direct their choice of literary form. W. H. New explains how, from early records of oral tales to the writing strategies of the early twenty-first-century writer, reader, literature, and society are interrelated. New discusses both Aboriginal and European mythologies, looking at pre-Contact narratives and also at the way Contact experience altered hierarchies of literary value. He then considers representations of the real, whether in documentary, fantasy, or satire; historical romance and the social construction of Nature and State; and ironic subversions of power, the politics of cultural form, and the relevance of the media to a representation of community, standard, and individual.

voice New suggests some ways in which writers of the later twentieth century codified such issues as history gender ethnicity and literary technique itself In this second edition he adds a lengthy chapter that considers how writers at the turn of the twenty first century have reimagined their society and their roles within it and an expanded chronology and bibliography Some of these writers have spoken from and about various social margins dealing with issues of race status ethnicity and sexuality some have sought emotional understanding through strategies of history and memory some have addressed environmental concerns and some have reconstructed the world by writing across genres and across different media All genres are represented with examples chosen primarily but not exclusively from anglophone and francophone texts A chronology plates and a series of tables supplement the commentary Super Strength Alan Calvert,1924 Mad Dogs, Midgets and Screw Jobs Pat Laprade,Bertrand Hebert,2013-03-14 A fascinating history of one of the hottest wrestling territories of all time Montreal was the proving ground for some of the biggest names in wrestling including Andre the Giant Abdullah the Butcher and the infamous Mad Dog Vachon it was the site of the first midget battle ever and made famous worldwide for the infamous Survivor Series screw job that saw Vince McMahon the Heartbreak Kid Shawn Michaels and Bret Hart create the attitude that reshaped the business Mad Dogs Midgets and Screw Jobs is the ultimate guide to Montreal s legendary place in professional wrestling history Get the lowdown on all the major wrestlers who made their name in the territory from Yvon Robert the Rougeaus and Gino Brito to edouard Carpentier With a detailed account of the promotional war between the Rougeaus AllStar Wrestling and the Vachons Grand Prix a complete history of how wrestling developed on Montreal TV and an investigation of the murder of Dino Bravo this book demonstrates how much of what has happened in wrestling just may have happened first in Montreal Scientific Canadian Mechanics' Magazine and Patent Office Record Canada. Patent Office,1906 Study of Furnishings Alternatives Sharon A. Brown,1985 The Canada Gazette Canada,1905 Deindustrializing Montreal Steven High,2022-06-13 Point Saint Charles a historically white working class neighbourhood with a strong Irish and French presence and Little Burgundy a multiracial neighbourhood that is home to the city s English speaking Black community face each other across Montreal s Lachine Canal once an artery around which work and industry in Montreal were clustered and by which these two communities were formed and divided Deindustrializing Montreal challenges the deepening divergence of class and race analysis by recognizing the intimate relationship between capitalism class struggles and racial inequality Fundamentally deindustrialization is a process of physical and social ruination as well as part of a wider political project that leaves working class communities impoverished and demoralized The structural violence of capitalism occurs gradually and out of sight but it doesn t play out the same for everyone Point Saint Charles was left to rot until it was revalorized by gentrification whereas Little Burgundy was torn apart by urban renewal and highway construction This historical divergence had profound consequences in how urban change has been experienced understood and remembered Drawing extensive interviews a massive and varied archive of imagery and original photography by David Lewis into a complex chorus Steven High brings these communities to life tracing their history from their earliest years to their decline and their current reality He extends the analysis of deindustrialization often focused on single industry towns to cities that have seemingly made the post industrial transition The urban neighbourhood has never been a settled concept and its apparent innocence masks considerable contestation divergence and change over time Deindustrializing Montreal thinks critically about locality revealing how heritage becomes an agent of gentrification investigating how places like Little Burgundy and the Point acquire race and class identities and questioning what is preserved and for whom
