Louisiana Creole Literature Catharine Savage Brosman, 2013-10-17 Louisiana Creole Literature is a broad ranging critical reading of belles lettres in both French and English connected to and generally produced by the distinctive Louisiana Creole peoples chiefly in the southeastern part of the state The book covers primarily the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the flourishing period during which the term Creole had broad and contested cultural reference in Louisiana The study consists in part of literary history and biography When available and appropriate each discussion arranged chronologically provides pertinent personal information on authors as well as publishing facts Readers will find also summaries and evaluation of key texts some virtually unknown others of difficult access Brosman illuminates the biographies and works of Kate Chopin Lafcadio Hearn George Washington Cable Grace King and Adolphe Duhart among others In addition she challenges views that appear to be skewed regarding canon formation The book places emphasis on poetry and fiction reaching from early nineteenth century writing through the twentieth century to selected works by poets still writing in the early twenty first century A few plays are treated also especially by Victor Séjour Louisiana Creole Literature examines at length the writings of important Francophone figures and certain Anglophone novelists likewise receive extended treatment Since much of nineteenth century Louisiana literature was transnational the book considers Creole based works which appeared in Paris as well as those published locally

Louisiana Culture from the Colonial Era to Katrina John Lowe, 2008-12-15 In 1803 President Thomas Jefferson acquired 828 000 square miles of French territory in what became known as the Louisiana Purchase Although today Louisiana makes up only a small portion of this immense territory this exceptional state embraces a larger than life history and a cultural blend unlike any other in the nation Louisiana Culture from the Colonial Era to Katrina a collection of fourteen essays compiled and edited by John Lowe captures all of the flavor and richness of the state's heritage illuminating how Louisiana despite its differences from the rest of the United States is a microcosm of key national concerns including regionalism race politics immigration global connections folklore musical traditions ethnicity and hybridity Divided into five parts the volume opens with an examination of Louisiana's origins with pieces on Native Americans French and German explorers and slavery Two very different but complementary essays follow with investigations into the ongoing attempts to define Creoles and creolization No collection on Louisiana would be complete without attention to its remarkable literary traditions and several contributors offer tantalizing readings of some of the Pelican State's most distinguished writers a dazzling array of artists any state would be proud to claim The volume also includes pieces on a couple of eccentric mythologies distinct to Louisiana and explorations of Louisiana's unique musical heritage Throughout the international slate of contributors explores the idea of place particularly the concept of Louisiana as the center of the Caribbean wheel where Cajuns Creoles Cubans Haitians Jamaicans and others are part of a New World configuration connected by their linguistic identity landscape and climate religion and French and Spanish heritage A poignant conclusion considers the devastating impact of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita and what the storms mean for Louisiana's cultural future A rich portrait of Louisiana culture this volume stands as a reminder of why that culture must be preserved Literary Legacies, Folklore

Foundations Karen E. Beardslee, 2001 In this provocative study of eight novels Karen E Beardslee asserts that American writers often engage with folk traditions as a necessary part of their characters' journeys to wholeness Focusing not only on African American Native American and Hispanic American cultures but also on women's culture Beardslee traces the connections between folk legacies and the search for selfhood in both nineteenth and twentieth century works Within each chapter a novel by a contemporary author and one from an earlier period are brought together Whitney Otto's How to Make an American Quilt and Harriet Beecher Stowe's The Minister's Wooing David Bradley's The Chaneyville Incident and Charles Chesnutt's The Conjure Woman Leslie Marmon Silko's Ceremony and Zitkala-Sa's American Indian Stories and Roberta Fernandez's Intaglio and Maria Cristina Mena's The Birth of the God of War These pairings are not based on matters of intertextuality or influence but are chosen according to the folk groups to which the novels' characters belong This strategy enables Beardslee to trace the particular legacies that inform the work of the twentieth century authors As Beardslee notes contemporary texts and the critical commentary on them have focused until fairly recently on the search for self in male usually white characters Such works have also positioned that search outside the character's family or community and have usually emphasized its futility With the growing shift toward multiculturalism in fiction however folk traditions have come to play an increasingly crucial role in characters' journeys to self-awareness as well as in the success of those journeys Thoroughly researched and cogently argued this book makes a significant contribution to the study of both folklore and literature as it explores the relationship between knowing one's cultural heritage and achieving a sense of self that is whole instead of fragmented connected instead of drifting The Author Karen E Beardslee teaches in the Department of Language and Literature at Burlington County College in Pemberton New Jersey Her articles have appeared in MELUS The Encyclopedia of Folklore and Literature and the Zora Neale Hurston Forum History of Louisiana

Hitori-Nakamoto, 2024-09-12 History of Louisiana In the vast expanse of the universe where galaxies swirl and stars twinkle in the blackness of space humanity stands as a curious observer striving to unravel the mysteries that surround us Since time immemorial we have gazed up at the night sky pondering the secrets hidden beyond our reach Our insatiable thirst for knowledge has propelled us forward driving us to explore the uncharted territories of the cosmos As we embark on this journey of discovery we find ourselves at a pivotal moment in history Technological advancements have opened up new frontiers allowing us to peer deeper into the cosmos than ever before From the humble beginnings of Galileo's telescope to the intricate instruments of modern observatories our tools have evolved offering us unprecedented insights into the workings of the universe But our quest for understanding goes beyond mere observation We seek to unravel the fundamental laws that govern the cosmos to decipher the origins of stars and galaxies and to probe the very fabric of space and time itself From the subatomic particles that dance within atoms to the colossal structures that stretch across the cosmos we strive to uncover the underlying principles that bind the universe together In this book we embark on a journey into the unknown guided by the spirit of exploration and the thirst for knowledge We will traverse the vast reaches of space delving into the mysteries of black holes supernovae and dark matter We will explore the wonders of exoplanets seeking out new worlds that may harbor the building blocks of life And we will contemplate the profound questions that have puzzled philosophers and scientists alike for centuries Are we alone in the universe What is the ultimate fate of the cosmos And what lies beyond the boundaries of our understanding But our journey is not just a quest for answers it is also a celebration of the human spirit For as we gaze out into the cosmos

Transnationalism and American Serial Fiction Patricia Okker, 2012-06-12

Transnationalism and American Serial Fiction explores the vibrant tradition of serial fiction published in U.S. minority periodicals Beloved by readers these serial novels helped sustain the periodicals and communities in which they circulated With essays on serial fiction published from the 1820s through the 1960s written in ten different languages English French Spanish German Swedish Italian Polish Norwegian Yiddish and Chinese this collection reflects the rich multilingual history of American literature and periodicals One of this book's central claims is that this serial fiction was produced and read within an intensely transnational context the periodicals often circulated widely the narratives themselves favored transnational plots and themes and the contents surrounding the fiction encouraged readers to identify with a community dispersed throughout the United States and often the world Thus Okker focuses on the circulation of ideas periodicals literary conventions and people across various borders focusing particularly on the ways that this fiction reflects the larger transnational realities of these minority communities

Iconic French Quarter Neighborhood in New Orleans, Louisiana James Fulton, The History of Iconic French Quarter Neighborhood in New Orleans Louisiana explores the rich tapestry of culture architecture and social life that defines one of America's most vibrant neighborhoods Delving into its origins from the colonial era through the jazz age to the present day the book highlights the French Quarter's unique blend of French Spanish and Creole influences which have shaped its distinctive character Readers journey through the storied streets uncovering tales of notorious figures pivotal events and the enduring traditions that continue to draw visitors and locals alike With vivid descriptions and captivating anecdotes the book celebrates the resilience and charm of the French Quarter revealing how it remains a lively hub of art music and culinary delights all while maintaining its historical roots Gateway Heritage ,1990 Calypso Magnolia John Wharton

Lowe,2016-02-08 In this far reaching literary history John Wharton Lowe remakes the map of American culture by revealing the deep persistent connections between the ideas and works produced by writers of the American South and the Caribbean Lowe demonstrates that a tendency to separate literary canons by national and regional boundaries has led critics to ignore deep ties across highly permeable borders Focusing on writers and literatures from the Deep South and Gulf states in relation to places including Mexico Haiti and Cuba Lowe reconfigures the geography of southern literature as encompassing the circumCaribbean a dynamic framework within which to reconsider literary history genre and aesthetics Considering thematic concerns such as race migration forced exile and colonial and postcolonial identity Lowe contends that southern literature and culture have always transcended the physical and political boundaries of the American South Lowe uses cross cultural readings of nineteenth and twentieth century writers including William Faulkner Martin Delany Zora Neale Hurston George Lamming Cristina Garcia Édouard Glissant and Madison Smartt Bell among many others to make his argument These literary figures Lowe argues help us uncover new ways of thinking about the shared culture of the South and Caribbean while demonstrating that southern literature has roots even farther south than we realize Black Women in New South Literature and Culture Sherita L. Johnson, 2009-09-11 This book focuses on the profound impact that racism had on the literary imagination of black Americans in the South Sherita L Johnson argues that it is impossible to consider what the South and what southernness mean without looking at how black women have contributed to and contested any unified definition of that region
