Age in Love Jacqueline Vanhoutte, 2019-06 The title Age in Love is taken from Shakespeare's sonnet 138 a poem about an aging male speaker who by virtue of his entanglement with the dark lady vainly performs the role of some untutored youth Jacqueline Vanhoutte argues that this pattern of age in love pervades Shakespeare's mature works informing his experiments in all the dramatic genres Bottom Malvolio Claudius Falstaff and Antony all share with the sonnet speaker a tendency to flout generational decorum by assuming the role of the lover normally reserved in Renaissance culture for young men Hybrids and upstarts cross dressers and shape shifters comic butts and tragic heroes Shakespeare's old men in love turn in boundary blurring performances that probe the gendered and generational categories by which early modern subjects conceived of identity In Age in Love Vanhoutte shows that questions we have come to regard as quintessentially Shakespearean about the limits of social mobility the nature of political authority the transformative powers of the theater the vagaries of human memory or the possibility of secular immortality come to indelible expression through Shakespeare's artful deployment of the age in love trope Age in Love contributes to the ongoing debate about the emergence of a Tudor public sphere building on the current interest in premodern constructions of aging and ultimately demonstrating that the Elizabethan court shaped Shakespeare's plays in unexpected and previously undocumented ways

Sleep and the Novel Michael Greaney, 2018-04-04 Sleep and the Novel is a study of representations of the sleeping body in fiction from 1800 to the present day which traces the ways in which novelists have engaged with this universal indispensable but seemingly nondescript region of human experience Covering the narrativization of sleep in Austen the politicization of sleep in Dickens the queering of sleep in Goncharov the aestheticization of sleep in Proust and the medicalization of sleep in contemporary fiction it examines the ways in which novelists envision the figure of the sleeper the meanings they discover in human sleep and the values they attach to it It argues that literary fiction harbours on its margins a sleeping partner one that we can nickname the Schlafroman or sleep novel whose quiet absorption in the wordlessness and passivity of human slumber subtly complicates the imperatives of self awareness and purposive action that traditionally govern the novel
