Madeleine Blaess a French born British raised student set off for Paris to study for a doctorate in Medieval French literature at the Sorbonne In June 1940 the German invasion cut off her escape route to the ports preventing her return to Britain She was forced to remain in France for the duration of the Occupation and in October 1940 began to write a diary Intended initially as a replacement letter to her parents in York she wrote it in French and barely missed an entry for almost four years Madeleine s diary is unique as she wrote it to record as much as she could about everyday life people and events so she could use these written traces to rekindle memories later for the family from whom she had been parted Many diaries of that era focus on the political situation Madeleine s diary does reflect and engage with military and political events It also provides an unprecedented day by day account of the struggle to manage material deprivation physical hardship mental exhaustion and depression during the Occupation The diary is also a record of Madeleine s determination to achieve her ambition to become a university academic at a time when there was little encouragement for women to prioritise education and career over marriage and motherhood Her diary is edited and translated here for the first time The English Catalogue of Books
